Churches Making Ready For The Easter Period

Christians to Conduct A Campaign; L. D. S. Conference Being Held in La Grande This Week

With Easter nearing, many of the churches of La Grande are making plans for the observance of this period. During that week the Christian church's regular weekly services and meetings will give place to silent evangelism. Special personal workers will meet for supper at the church each evening and then go out as personal evangelists, visiting active lists. A large number are expected to unite with the church on Easter.

The Rev. J. George Wala, of the First Presbyterian church, reports there is a keen desire on the part of the church these days, just preceding Easter, to have all people attend the worship and to think again of the passion of the One Lord.

L. D. S. Conference A feature of this weekend is a conference at the L. D. S. church, with a representative from Salt Lake City scheduled to be in attendance. The meeting tonight is at 7:30 p. m.

It is anticipated that there will be a large attendance at the Saturday evening meeting from all the wards of the stake which include Baker, Union, Mt. Glen, Imbler and two La Grande wards. The morning session Sunday at 10 o'clock and the afternoon meeting at 2 o'clock are for the membership to which the public is cordially invited.

Services in the various churches of the city tomorrow include: St. Peter's Episcopal Church. Tomorrow will be the final service conducted by the Rev. Oliver Riley, who has accepted a call to the church at Scottsbluff, Neb. He plans to leave for his new home almost immediately.

Following holy eucharist and church school, at 9:45 a. m., respectively, the morning prayer begins at 11 o'clock. The anthem will be "God So Loved the World" by Staifer, and the sermon will be on "Religion and Amusements." Mrs. H. N. Ashby, at the console, will play; prelude "O-Sharp Minor" by Vodovinski, offertorio "Priests" by Callaerts, and postlude "Coronation March" by Meyer Beer.

The View of a Visitor From San Francisco "I travel most of the year throughout the western states and I have never found a hotel in recent years that had the appointments and comfort facilities of the Sacajawea. The best Crane plumbing fixtures — fine carpets — full tiled baths — big windows with metal weather strips. It's a wonderfully built hotel." And that opinion of the Sacajawea, voiced by a visitor from San Francisco yesterday, shows the impression made by this exceptional hotel.
