NO 2-TEAM RACE IN JUNIOR LEAGUE

Yankees and Athletics Not Expected to Find Opposition Easy

By Neelan Bell (Associated Press Sports Writer) ATLANTA, Ga., March 22 (AP)—If early star players have roared correctly signs in the American league baseball sky there will be no two team race this season...

Tigers Strengthen Of the four second division clubs in 1928, Chicago, Detroit, Cleveland and Boston, the Detroit Tigers, under new management and partially renovated, seem to furnish the most serious threat to the teams higher up.

Shift Foxes to Field Connie Mack has stood pat on the perpetuation of the Athletics but has rearranged the infield, Jimmy Fox, the hard hitting catcher, third baseman and first baseman will be the regular first sacker.

Staley Harris, making his bow to Detroit fans as manager of the home team seems to have a great chance to move the Tigers up from their sixth place position of last year.

Brownie Hustling The St. Louis Browns, who finished themselves in third place last season have rebounded after a fighting spring. A clever fielder has been added to the infield in the person of Third Baseman Eddie Grimes and another recruit in fielder, Leonard Downes may be heard from.

Washington's Senators will be built about the personality of the belated Walter Johnson, who has his chance as a major league manager after a brief apprenticeship at Newark.

Cleveland will offer an outfit largely made over from 1928 with the exception of the battery fence. The Indians may have the satisfaction of breaking in two recruits...

in Dick Porter and Earl Ayerell, and Bill Falk, long a Chicago White Sox, will be a valuable man for Manager Peckinpaugh. Jack Taxner has fitted into the Cleveland machine as shortstop and Joe Sewell will play good ball at third base.

Chicago's Hopes The Chicago White Sox will depend on the fat young men who joined the team last autumn to keep them in the running with the exception of Johnny Kerr, drafted from Hollywood, at second base.

Some time must elapse before Manager Bill Garrigan will know how good his latest cast of the Boston Red Sox is to be. He has seen enough to convince him that it is a stronger combination than last year.

Cambridge Wins Over Oxford In Their 81st Race

PITNEY-ON-THAMES, England, Mar. 22 (AP)—Cambridge, with a veteran aggregation of oarsmen, scored its sixth consecutive victory over Oxford in the 81st annual boat race between the two famous English universities today.

The Cambridge crew, taking an early lead, crossed the finish line seven full lengths ahead of their rivals from the Isis.

Cambridge's veterans, pulling a strong and steady stroke, jumped into a half length lead at the end of the first half mile, increased this advantage to three-quarters of a length at the mile and then pulled away from their rivals during the rest of the struggle.

STAMPORD BRIDGE, England, Mar. 22 (AP)—Cambridge won the annual track and field meet from its rival, Oxford today.

Despite a fine showing by Oxford in the later stages of the meet in which the leading races were played by former American college athletes, Cambridge managed to repeat on land the triumph which its oarsmen had achieved on water a few hours before.

McLarnin, Miller Match Slow And Dull; Mac Wins

NEW YORK, March 22 (AP)—The boys who pay "the freight" may be expected to view with ill-concealed amusement any future pugilistic encounter between well advertised sluggers.

Having understood that Jimmy McLarnin and Ray Miller could hit with the lethal power of a stick of dynamite, 21,000 of the fistic faithful bravely paid $17,000 to see McLarnin outpoint the blonde Calypsonian last night in as dull a ten-round bout as Madison Square Garden has seen in recent months.

Miller, possibly best of the light-weight left hook punchers in the business, stopped McLarnin in a sensational and bloody scrap at Detroit some months ago, despite the fact that McLarnin seems definitely to have outgrown the 125-pound division, there was almost unprecedented interest in their return meeting.

felt uneasy unless the fighting was at close quarters where a clean punch is next to impossible. In justice to the Chicagoan it might be pointed out that he conceded too many pounds and tired badly toward the finish. He scaled 122 1/2, McLarnin 124 1/2.

UNCLE BILLY WINS FROM JIM DEMETREL FENDELTON, Ore., March 22 (AP)—Billy Edwards, 158-pound Kansas City wrestler, defeated Jimmy Demetrel of Chicago, 155 pounds, in straight falls here last night in a rough main-event match. Edwards took both falls with headlocks and body slams.

IRA DEIN WINS SALT LAKE CITY, March 22 (AP)—Ira Dein, 145-lb. airplane artist, spun Jack Lewis, Arizona matman, so hard for the second fall in last night's match that Lewis was unable to continue the tussle. The first fall went to Lewis.
