Will be Two Years Old— Gilpin Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. G. S. Sessions, of Hot Lake, will be two years old tomorrow. The little curly, blond headed boy and his mother are at the Sacajawea Inn staying this week while Mr. Sessions is in Portland on a business visit. Gilpin hasn't had the meaning of a birthday explained to him yet but the idea that he may have a cake with two burning candles on it pleases him.

Two Liquor Cases In Municipal Court

Two women were arrested over the weekend and were charged with possession of liquor by the police. Dorothy Gailbreath is to appear at city court at 7:30 o'clock Tuesday night. She was released upon furnishing $250 bail. Mabel Johnson, also charged with possession of liquor, is held in jail until time for her hearing, as she could not furnish bail.

LOCAL CHURCHES SWING INTO HOLY WEEK PREPARATION

sermon at 11 o'clock at the Episcopal church. The Rev. F. O. Hess reports a decided interest in the revival meetings now being held at the Baptist church with the Rev. J. L. Taylor in the pulpit. Last night he spoke on "The Final Judgment" and tonight his subject will be "The One Thing Needful in Conversion." The public is invited.

PERFECT SCORES IN SUNDAY SHOOT

defeated, but its 73 was two less than La Grande's score. The local club also defeated Birch Creek, with a 71.

The six perfect scores were made at the Lone Tree grounds in spite of poor weather conditions. It is said that the Sunday scores were the best ever made on the local traps. Incidentally, one of the six men shot two perfect 25s—Chase Bohnenkamp.

Send Team to Portland— It is announced that the scores Sunday will cause quite a change in individual scores, as Mr. Hollister, who has been leading the list, has been nosed out by L. B. Hannefeld. Mr. Bohnenkamp also moved up. J. B. Smith, being absent, may drop down as he and A. McAllister were tied for third. A complete score of individual averages for the entire shoot will be prepared soon. It has also been decided to send a team to Portland for the state shoot providing La Grande finishes in the high 10 clubs in the telegraphic contest.

W. M. Hollins, Mr. Bennett, Mr. Lanning, Mr. Huff and C. L. Mackey shot 24s yesterday. A. McAllister, Mr. McCall, Jim Garity and Aug. J. Stange got 23s. J. B. Garity, Mr. Rhinehart and Mr. Small shot 21s and Mr. Hollister, H. K. O'Brien, Oth Vea, Ed Boylen, Mr. Lee and Mr. Roehm got 20 out of 25.

STORMS AND FLOODS TAKE AT LEAST 49

during a weekend hike. Three members of one family were drowned at Webster, Tenn. Bodies of seven boy scouts, their scout master and two others have been recovered. Kentucky's death toll was heaviest in Know and Bell counties where five lives were taken by the sudden freshet. Three were drowned near Barbourville, and two near Pineville. One was drowned in Perry county.

RIVER NEAR RECORD— QUINCY, Ill., March 25 (AP)—Within two inches of the highest record since 1851, the Mississippi river here reached a stage of 26.5 today, putting levees both north and south of the city and on both sides of the river in danger of further breaks.

Pending arrival of the naval militia detachment, Sheriff Kenneth Elmore has taken charge of a district where some looting was reported. He has sworn in a number of deputies who are patrolling the high places and in the flooded areas in launches. He has issued orders to "shoot to kill" where thievery is discovered. The Red Cross, Salvation Army, Humane society and neighbors are all lending aid to sufferers, many of whom have lost everything in the flooded Indian Grave district.

STILL MENACING— CHICAGO, March 25 (AP)—The Mississippi and Missouri rivers still threaten to batter down levees and overrun their banks today as patrolling and apprehensive residents watched eagerly for signs of receding.

MARSHAL FOCH TO BE BURIED ON TUESDAY

PARIS, Mar. 25 (AP)—The people of Paris again today for six solid hours passed before the bier of the late Marshal Foch which during the night had been conveyed from the Arc de Triomphe to the cathedral of Notre Dame. Meanwhile the French government was preparing for tomorrow's national funeral a procession of such solemn pomp as even Paris has seldom witnessed. From European capitals near and far, representatives of sovereigns and governments are on their way here to take part in the religious and secular ceremony.

WASHINGTON, Mar. 25 (AP)—Secretary Kellogg will represent President Hoover at services for Marshal Foch to be conducted here tomorrow at St. Patrick's cathedral, at the same hour that funeral services are held in Paris for the generalissimo of the allied armies.

SNAKE RIVER RAILROAD IS DISCOURAGED

ton to Lewiston, a distance of 126 miles, to be built by the Union Pacific, Northern Pacific, Oregon Short Line, O.-W. R. & N., and Camas Prairie.

The latter proposal also includes common use of the Camas Prairie line from Lewiston to Riparia, Wash., further up the Snake. As in the Oregon case, fingers held that the interstate commerce commission has authority to require railroads to undertake new construction. Even though such authority exists, he contends that the cost of a new line from Lewiston to Homestead, estimated by the complainants at $16,922,822 and by the railroads at $29,590,402 would result in a large deficit, possibly necessitating an increase in rates.

Stress Laid on Need. Idaho laid much stress upon the need of such a line to connect the southern and northern part of the state, separated by mountainous country, which has discouraged rail construction, and which has lengthened the time required to go

NEW YORK, Mar. 25 (AP)—Special attention was given today to woods in Southern New Jersey in search for a Sikorsky amphibian plane missing since it left Norfolk, Va., at 5:45 a. m. Friday with T. Raymond Finucane, wealthy Rochester real estate operator and three companions.

One pressing need which would be remedied only in minor degree by the proposed rail construction, he says, is that of an adequate highway bridge across the Snake river from Lewiston to Clarkston. There is also said to be a lack of good highways leading from Lewiston and Clarkston to the vast agricultural areas tributary to those towns.

Reorganize Camp At Pendleton, Ore.

A delegation from the La Grande Spanish-American war veterans' camp and auxiliary went to Pendleton Saturday afternoon and in the evening, assisted by Senior Vice President C. L. Clark and Mrs. Gray, senior vice president of the auxiliary, of Portland, reorganized the Pendleton camp and auxiliary. The meeting was held in the Elks temple and opened with a banquet. Talks were made by the visiting officials, the mayor of Pendleton, Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Chandler, L. B. Hale, Ralph Huron and Mr. Mathison from La Grande. Several comrades who had not met since they were mustered out 30 years ago renewed acquaintances.
