WALKER TO FIGHT FOR THIRD TITLE

Chicago's Biggest Ring Attraction in 2 Years Scheduled Tonight

By Paul H. Mickelson (Associated Press Sports Writer) CHICAGO, Mar. 28 (AP)—Mickey Walker, the middleweight champion looking for more worlds to conquer, tonight will attempt to match the triple title record of the great Bob Fitzsimmons by toppling Tommy Loughran from his light heavyweight throne.

The battle, billed to go 10 rounds in a decision at the light heavyweight limit of 175 pounds, will open the largest and most luxurious sports amphitheater in the world, Paddy Harmon's $7,000,000 Chicago stadium.

It is Chicago's biggest ring attraction since the Tunney-Dempsey spectacle at Soldier Field two years ago, and 26,000 spectators were expected to pay $10,000 to watch it.

Both Confident With both fighters superbly trained and confident and with thousands of their admirers from all sections of the country on the scene, odds vacillated to Walker and then to Loughran. When the gladiators pull on the leather at approximately 10 p. m. Central standard time, however, odds were expected to be even.

For Walker, the match carries not only gold but the glory of equalling Fitzsimmons' record. Mickey once held the welterweight championship and the middleweight crown now rest jauntily on his head. Tonight, he seeks a new corse for his Irish nose.

For Loughran, the fight means vastly more than the light heavyweight title. The Philadelphia adonis is out to succeed Gene Tunney on the heavyweight throne and defeat tonight would drop him several notches from his rank as a leading contender.

Loughran a Boxer From the standpoint of fighting, the match was simply a vest pocket edition of the Tunney-Dempsey battle. Loughran, like Tunney, is a brilliant boxer. He is not a heavy hitter, but a cutting jabber. If Loughran pursues his usual tactics, he will stab and dance out, scooping the New Jersey bulldog's rushes with his straight left. Walker, like Dempsey, is a hard puncher and invariably launches a telling body attack. Tonight, he plans to carry the battle to the champion, get inside the careful leads and land a knockout punch, if possible.

Walker has fought eight ring battles in Chicago, and won them all. Although the name of the referee will not be announced until Walker and Loughran part the ropes, the task seemed certain to rest between Ed Purdy, Phil Collins or Johnny Behr, all of Chicago. Two judges also will cast a vote, but their identity is unknown save to the Illinois state athletic commission.

To fans who like a slugger, the match is a John L. Sullivan, the to round semi-windup tonight between Tuffy Gelfinck and Leo Lemack. The Aberdeen, Wash., has created considerable interest. With the winner promised a shot at tonight's victor for the light heavyweight crown, a stirring, two-fisted battle is anticipated.

The main event will be broadcast over the National Broadcasting company's chain.

Joplin Golfer Wins Headline Event of Spring

PINEHURST, N. C., March 28 (AP)—Horton Smith, from Joplin, Mo., won on his golfing way today with another title tucked away in his bag and seven hundred more first money dollars in his pocket.

Making his first bid for recognition on the sand greens of Pinehurst, the new sensation of the golfing world kicked in with a 72 hole score of 287 to win the historic North and South open, one of the headline events of the spring season.

Tommy Armour, the Detroit unstable artist, who usually is tied for the Pinehurst courses, was runner-up for the second time in an many years. His score was 289, just two strokes behind the youth from the Ozarks.

Iroland Hancock, the Lynchburg youngster who gave Bobby Jones and Johnny Farrell the shivers in the national open last summer, served notice that he is back in championship form by shooting at 291 to collect third money.

The brilliant youth from Joplin, Mo., who will not attain voting age for two months, has collected a fair sized fortune since last November in open golf tournaments.

There are various estimates of his winnings, but most of them agree on a figure close to $15,000. The largest single prize was $5,000 first money in La Gorce open at Miami Beach, where he finished ahead of a fine field.

Smith has only two years of professional experience. His first appearance in the competitive field was in 1924 when he got to the semi-final round of the western junior championship. He broke the limelight last fall when he reached the semi-final of the P. G. A. championship at Baltimore.

Babe Waiting For Blisters To Fade

ST PETERSBURG, Fla., Mar. 28 (AP)—With a long barsternorming tour just ahead, Babe Ruth is getting ready to give the fans an exhibition of how he does his home runs. The first step in the preparation is to cure his blistered hands. The plague is blister, one of the Babe's annual afflictions, has just reached its height and Ruth is taking his customary rest cure, going fishing without trying to catch any fish. He expects the blisters to disappear in a day or two and then he will be able to hold his bat "right" for hitting home runs.

At Oakland 3, Mission 1.

SAN FRANCISCO, Mar. 28 (AP)—Aces of sweat turned the tide of battle yesterday, as the Pacific Coast league functioned on all eight in the second day's play of the 1929 season.

The Soles avenged their defeat by Portland in the first game by winning yesterday 3 to 1, scoring on hits by Cronett, Jolley, and Wingo. The Beavers had an alibi at least, in the fact that a strong gale was blowing, and carried a potential homer spanked out by Joe Bush into the hands of Wingo who was backed against the left field bleachers.

The Angels at Los Angeles won for the second time from the Seattle Indians 13 to 3. Dave Barbee Seattle right fielder, blamed the sun when he lost a fly ball and started off a four-run rally by the Angels in the sixth. The Southrons added five more in the seventh, and three in the eighth and culled it a day.

Oakland and the Missions evened up the score at Emeryville when the former claimed a 3 to 1 victory with two runs by Frazier, and a third by Fenton. Christensen hung up the lone tally for the Hells, in the final inning. Pete Daglia was credited with having gained Killer's boys with his masterful pitching.

At Sacramento the Solons won their second straight victory over Hollywood 5 to 4. The Senators took the lead by scoring twice on singles by Harris and Tohver in the fourth, and Koehler's double. The losers outthrew the winners 13 to 12, despite all that Otis "Doc" Crandall could do for the Solons.

Harry Heilmann May Be Released

PHOENIX, April, Mar. 28 (AP)—Reports were circulated about the Detroit Tigers camp today that Harry Heilmann, star outfielder, may not finish the season with the team. They were based on declarations that Bucky Harris, manager, will ask for waivers on Heilmann due to his failure to observe training rules and regulations. Harris benched Heilmann during the coast exhibition games, and the player also failed to get into the Chicago Cubs or Pittsburgh Pirates exhibition games here.

Tom Gardner Beats Seattle Filipino

WALLA WALLA, Wash., Mar. 28 (AP)—Tommy Gardner, Spokane, won every round from Danny Flores, Seattle Filipino. In a six-round main event here last night, they are bantams.

Frankie Grandetta, Hollywood, knocked out Dave Brady, Portland, in the fifth round of a six-round semi-final.

Jack Nash, Portland, took a six-round slugfest from Johnny Woods, Seattle and Ronny Buskirk, Pendleton, won a four-round decision from Harry Lange, Portland.

Veteran Infield Stars Rally To The "Hot Corner" In Big Leagues

This trio of high powered big leaguers is moving over where those grounders have to be grabbed before they get a chance to cool off.

By Jay H. Vessels (Associated Press Sports Writer) NEW YORK (AP)—Cutting down some of those drives that while past third base is a problem several major league clubs are trying to meet by drafting players from other infield positions.

The notable instances have been supplied by the Yankees, Indians and Cardinals. They have shifted three of the best infielders in baseball to the hot corner.

Mark Koenig moves over from shortstop for the Yankees, Frankie Frisch is due to shift from second for the Cardinals and Joe Sewell changes from shortstop for the Indians.

All three of these men consigned to the torrid zone are hitters and two of them have few equals as fielders. Frisch led the regular National league second basemen last year with a fielding average of .976, while Sewell topped the American league short fielders with a mark of .943.

Of the three, Koenig made the worst showing afield, placing seventh among the regular shortstops with an average of .923. But Mark is a 200 hitter and has an arm that can stand the strain of hard throws clear across the diamond. The change was inevitable for Koenig as the Yankees dropped Joe Dugan, their old third base standby, and had Len Lary, Pacific coast shortstopper, flash, coming up.

Likewise, Frisch is carded to shift partly because of the arrival of a rookie, Carey Selph, who hit .312 and fielded .971 for Houston of the Texas league, is bidding for Frankie's old job at second and he needs only to make good to clinch the transfer of the Fordham Flash to the position that has long bothered the Red Birds. Frankie, a natural fielder, can hit regardless of his playing position. His lifetime major league average of .21 proves that.

Cleveland decided last year that Joe Sewell was the man to do the third basing for that club. Joe took a whirl at the job last season and
