Headaches gone—

Blood pressure normal

If you can't exert yourself without being short of breath, if your head aches, if you can't even lie down with comfort—then life hardly seems worth while. That is how things appeared to a woman who wrote us about her trouble with high blood pressure. She took Agmet. She later says: "My blood pressure is normal. No more headaches. I can now sleep. And actually feel like smiling." Letters like this are received every day.

What is Agmet? A great natural health food. The sap or milk of the Mexican Maguey plant concentrated by removing excess water. Nothing added. Rich in important minerals and other vital elements necessary for the proper functioning of the body. A vital food. Not a medicine. Non-synthetic. Thousands praise Agmet.

If you have any of the following symptoms, investigate Agmet today: headache, backache, dizziness, giddiness, and frequent nervousness. Ask your druggist about Agmet. Or write direct to The Agmet Corporation, 529 Park Avenue, New York, N. Y.

had "to hurry into the hearing of $20,000,000 cases."

"But the courts allowed you enough time in the Franks boy case, didn't they?" inquired State Senator Roy C. Wood.

"The other fellow took all that," Darrow said.

Darrow said.

"But they allowed you over 30 days to present a case on a plea of guilty, didn't they?" Wood went on.

"You don't know anything about it," snapped Darrow.

"Yes I do," said Wood. "I was in the next court below you, trying a case, and I know what was going on."

"You don't act as if you did," Darrow said.

Recalls Bond Surrender

"But you know me, don't you?" said Wood. "I was the assistant state's attorney who made you come down to the criminal court building at 2 a. m. one day and made you surrender a stolen bond that had been cashed in your partner's account."

State Senator James Barbour, chairman of the senate committee, leaped to his feet.

"We won't have charges like that here," he shouted.

"Do you think I'm going to sit here silently and have all the courts attacked in this manner by a man who has been a defender of criminals all his life?" Wood replied.

Dare to Stand Alone

Wait not until you are backed by numbers. Wait not until you are sure of an echo from a crowd. The fewer the voices on the side of truth, the more distinct and strong must be your own.—Channing.
