Major Teams To Head Northward Early In Week

TAMPA, Fla., Mar. 28 (AP)—Big and little guns of major league baseball—the veterans and the rookies—largely will be headed northward from spring training camps by the first of the week. For most of the ten big clubs conditioning in Florida, however, the progress to home cities for the official openings will be slow because of exhibition games along the route.

The Cardinals of St. Louis, Boston Braves and Brooklyn Robins, already have pulled away from the original training cities to return to more this year. The world champion Yankees planned to leave St. Petersburg after today's game and the Cincinnati Reds will break away from Orlando tomorrow.

Connie Mack's Athletics, encamped at Fort Myers, the St. Louis Browns at West Palm Beach, Washington's Senators, the Phillies at Winter Haven, and the Boston Red Sox at Bradenton will pull stakes the next few days.

AIRMEN TURN TO ETHYLENE GLYCOL

Base for Anti-freeze Solution to Replace Water in Engines

By William E. Reichhold (Associated Press Aviation Editor) WASHINGTON, Mar. 28 (AP)—Ethylene Glycol, common base for many anti-freeze solutions, was announced here as the chemical developed by army engineers to replace water as an airplane engine cooling fluid. Use of the chemical is foreseen as opening an unlimited field for future development of water-cooled engines.

The fluid which is clear, colorless and odorless, boils at 387 degrees Fahrenheit. It is the first and simplest of poly-hydric alcohols and its constituents can be obtained on the open market at reasonable prices.

Although simple in its composition, the chemical was found to be the most satisfactory liquid for cooling airplane engines after six years of research by air corps engineers in the Wright field laboratories near Dayton, Ohio.

Use of the fluid, which is said to make possible a 75 per cent reduction of weight and air resistance offered by the present day water-filled radiator, is expected to solve a problem which has been perplexing aeronautical engineers since the Wright brothers constructed their first plane.

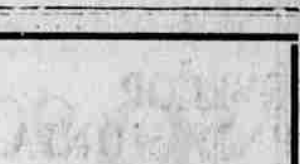

The cumbersome, heavy radiator necessary for water-cooled engines can be cut to one-fourth its present size and weight by use of the chemical cooler. The result is an increase of speed, reported by army engineers to be 11 miles an hour on a standard pursuit plane, and a proportionate increase in payload.

George Washington was a poor flute-player, says a Harvard professor. In this day of "stark criticism," you'll have to admit that's a pretty nice thing to say.
