week with her sister, Mrs. Karl Park. She returned to La Grande today.

To Give Dancing Party

Members of the Blue Mt. grange are giving a dancing party this evening at their hall near La Grande. All members of any grange subordinate are invited to attend.

Purchase Orchard

Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Anclaire and family who formerly lived in the Dry creek neighborhood north of Sumnerville and later moved to Elgin, have moved back in the Dry Creek neighborhood and will make that their home. They have purchased the Sherwood Williams orchard in that locality.

Drive to Wallawa

Mrs. Henaley and son, Denver, Mrs. W. F. Ott and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hattson of Sumnerville drove the first of the week to Wallawa county where they have been visiting among relatives.

Week in Town

Miss Anna Brooks of Brooks Lane has been spending this week in La Grande visiting with relatives.

Mrs. Rollins Better

According to reports from her bedside at the Grande Ronde hospital Mrs. Pat Rollins of Imbler who has recently undergone her fourth operation is improving satisfactorily and hopes to be able to return to her home soon.

Buy Neighboring Property

The following report of another real estate deal involving good farming land in Wallawa county is reported through the Record-Chiefdom—Sale of 59 acres of the W. H. Boyd place in Lower Valley to Jacob Weinhard, capitalist of Dayton, Wash., was made this week through the L. Couch agency of Wallawa. Consideration was reported to be $125 an acre. Through this deal, Mr. Weinhard adds to the extensive holdings operated by his son, F. H. Weinhard, and gives an outlet on the Maxville highway. At the same time W. T. Dougherty, who also owns extensive holdings adjoining purchased 40 acres of the same place to square out his land.

Combined Aids to Meet

Mrs. J. A. Howell and Mrs. I. E. Chenault of the Valeria district will give a social affair at the home of Mrs. Chenault next Tuesday afternoon the guests being their combined groups from the Alcohol ladies aid society. At the last meeting of the general aid the membership list was divided into four parts and each of the groups is to give a tea or luncheon for their individual lists.

BEN E. HARRIS IS REWARDED A FELLOWSHIP

By Mrs. J. B. Price (Observer Correspondent) COVE, Ore. (Special)—Ben E. Harris, who graduated from the Cove High school in 1924, has received a fellowship from Oregon State college which will enable him to earn his doctor's degree in physics within three years' time. Mr. Harris graduated Mar. 19 of this year and will continue doing part time laboratory work with the opportunity of part time teaching in his major subject. He will have earned his M. A. degree in June of 1929. He will then receive the fellowship for the next two years' work. A great deal of pleasure has been expressed by friends of Mr. Harris over his good fortune. A seven-pound son was born to Mr. and Mrs. Harold Van Vlack Friday. The baby, who has been named Charles David, and his mother are doing nicely at the Dr. Wonderlich hospital. Two other sons of the family are with their uncle, Ed Van Vlack, and the only daughter is with Mrs. Allen at present.

Mr. and Mrs. C. G. Springer, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Comstock, Mrs. Helene Lincoln and H. W. Stevens were the representatives from Mr. Panny grange who attended the Pomona grange at La Grande Saturday.

The members of the Cove scout troop cleaned the yard around the home of Mrs. Nellie B. Grace Tuesday afternoon after school.

Mrs. Lydia Lantz and her son Lulu, and Dorothy and Gordon Berger were among those attending the opera Tuesday evening in La Grande.

Oldest Free Library

The town library of Petersborough, N. H., formed through the effort of Rev. Abbot in 1825, appears to have been the first free library which has continued to the present day.

Cove Churches To Have Easter Sunday Services

By Mrs. A. G. Conklin (Observer Correspondent)

Cove, Ore. (Special).—There will be special Easter services at all the churches Easter Sunday. At the Methodist Episcopal church at the regular hour of eleven o'clock the pastor, the Rev. Mr. Graham will give an Easter sermon from the text, "He Is Risen", Mark 16:6. The choir will sing, "He Is Risen, Hallelujah" by Lorenz. Other special music will be "O Lamb of God" by Roy Nolte, in which Miss Vina Conley will sing the aria. The Assumption Episcopal church will have an early communion service at 8 o'clock for which service special music has been prepared. A children's festival at 2:30 is also a feature of the day. The Baptist church will have an Easter service at the usual hour of eleven with special Easter music.

The friends here of Mrs. Elma Jaycox have received the news of her death at Walla Walla, Wash., Mar. 16. Her death came suddenly from heart trouble. The deceased, who was Miss Elma Sanborn, was born Oct. 5, 1854 at Boscobel, Wis., and was married to O. P. Jaycox, Oct. 5, 1882 at Lake Mills, Wis. They came to Cove, where they lived until 1922 when they moved to Walla Walla. While here, Mrs. Jaycox was engaged in the mercantile business and continued in this business after her removal to Washington. They were the parents of four children, two of whom survive. Mr. Jaycox, who passed away five years ago, was a brother of Mrs. Loy Payne, who is well known all over this valley. Besides the two daughters, Mrs. Jaycox also leaves two sisters, Mrs. Edward Payne and Mrs. Stevens, both of Walla Walla.

The members of the Epworth League will give a basket Friday evening at 7:15 at the church parlors, at which time the older members of the league will be the speakers. L. J. Chadwick, Roy Barker and several others will have a part on the program.

George and Virgil Chadwick have just purchased a six-weeks-old bull calf of the famous "Milkling Short-horn" breed. The calf came from the herd of Paul Denaby in the Willamette valley and is a registered animal. There are not many of this type animals in this valley. Julius Fisher in Lower Cove, has a herd with some especially fine cows and J. F. Conley also has a few of them. The boys expect to enter club work.

Cove High school will present the annual junior vaudeville Tuesday evening, April 2 at the Macca-bee hall. The cast for this vaudeville will include the entire high school. It is under the direction of Professor Springer and promises to be especially fine.

Mrs. J. J. Conley who has been ill for three months at the home of her son I. N. Conley, is in La Grande with her daughter, Mrs. Ray Goodnough. Another daughter, Mrs. Lloyd Carter, who has been caring for her mother during her illness, has gone to her home at Radium Springs, near Haines.

Mrs. Mae Kelly, Miss Bess Kelly and F. B. Kelly were Sunday visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs.

Frank Miller on the sand ridge. Mrs. Everett Powell, who has been a teacher at Shanghai for the past two years, has been re-selected for the ensuing year.

Mrs. Karl Haag has had as her guest, her brother, L. B. Larson, of Baker and a sister, Mrs. E. E. Pierson and her daughter, Miss Ruby, of Seattle, Wash., for the last two weeks. Mr. Larson and Mrs. Pierson went to North Powder for the weekend, but returned here where they will be for a couple of weeks.

H. D. Monahan, of Freewater, a fruit buyer for a New York firm was here recently for a meeting with the board of directors of the Cooperative Cherry Growers association.

Range of White Pine

White pine, which is often called yellow pine, and is known in England as Quebec pine, grows through out eastern Canada, being most abundant in northern Ontario and Quebec.

Shakespeare in Japanese

A Tokyo professor has recently completed a translation of all of Shakespeare's writings, having spent 45 years upon the work which is reported to be a brilliant achievement.

Doesn't Work Right
