Inner Bridge At Sacajawea Inn Is Charming Affair

A charming affair of last night the dinner and evening of the Sacajawea Inn. The tables in the dining room for the 7:15 o'clock dinner were very attractive with bouquets of spring flowers and candles in glass shades.

Between tables of cards were at 8 o'clock the evening. Prizes were won by Mrs. Leliman, Mrs. W. C. Perkins, second, Mrs. Adolph Siegrist, third, Mrs. J. Stueb and Walter Heuser, first, second and third.

Out-of-town guests for the occasion were Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Appell, of Enterprise.

Mrs. C. J. Edenhelm was hostess of the Thursday Bridge Club yesterday afternoon. Mrs. Jones received club prizes. The tables were at play. A luncheon was served.

The Swastika Bridge club met last night with Mr. and Mrs. Low Williamson. Three tables of cards were at play with Mrs. Leliman winning women's prizes. Herbert Pattison, men's first prize was awarded to Mr. E. Hoessler.

A two-course luncheon was served at a table attractively decorated with a centerpiece of tulips. The club will meet again in two weeks with Mr. and Mrs. Allen.

Mrs. Roy Cameron entertained at home on Cedar street last evening in honor of Mrs. Ray Brown, to leave Monday, with her two children, for Gooding, Idaho, to join her husband, where they will make their home. A feature of the evening was a handkerchief shower for the honor guest.

Three tables of bridge were met and Mrs. Blake Shields made high score. Mrs. Ira Howell received the consolation award.

The color scheme was lavender, yellow and spring flowers were prettily arranged about the room. Refreshments were served in the evening.

Mrs. J. L. Anderson Entertains Group

The Women's Missionary society of the Christian church met at the home of Mrs. J. L. Anderson Wednesday evening.

The B. F. O. party that was to have been held tonight at Shade's cabin, will be held in the junior room of the church instead. The change was made necessary by bad weather.

The Rainbow Girls are requested to meet in front of the Methodist church Sunday morning at 10:45 o'clock to attend church service at that church at 11 o'clock in keeping with national church day for Rainbow Girls.

The Women's Relief corps will meet in regular session tomorrow. Luncheon will be served at 12 o'clock.

The Royal Neighbors of America will meet Monday night at 7:30 o'clock at the L. O. O. F. hall.

The Epworth League of the Methodist church will go to North Powder Sunday as the guests of the league there. All wishing to go are asked to be at the Methodist church at 3:30 o'clock Sunday afternoon where cars will be waiting.

Camp Fire Sponsors Give A Silver Tea At Richardson Home

An important event of the week was the charming Camp Fire girl sponsors silver tea given yesterday at the home of Dr. and Mrs. Alfred L. Richardson. The delightful event was attended by many La Grande people including a large surprise delegation of members of the Rotary club who came during the afternoon.

The spacious Richardson home was decorated following a color scheme of flame, the Camp Fire color. A large basket of pussy willows which had been gathered by Camp Fire girls, was placed in the reception hall and about the rooms were bouquets of sweet peas and other flowers. Mrs. Richardson and Mrs. W. C. Perkins were at the door to welcome the guests.

The dining room was lovely with flame colored tulips in silver vases and flame tapers in silver holders. Mrs. Ray Murphy was in charge of the dining room and was assisted by a group of Camp Fire girls including Juanita and Barbara Stitzinger, Eleanor Hicks, Helen Hughes, Jean French and Myrtle Schultz.

Pouring during the afternoon were Mrs. H. K. O'Brien, Mrs. H. S. Brown, Mrs. Stella Ingle and Mrs. A. T. Hill.

Mrs. Adolph Siegrist and Dr. Lewis Wilkes were hostesses in the drawing room and Mrs. E. W. Ely and Miss Lenore Headley had charge of the attractive exhibit of Camp Fire ceremonial gowns, head bands, and other insignia of the organization.

An enjoyable program was given by Camp Fire groups and individuals. Miss Daisy Robbs, Mrs. Ray Fuller and Miss Ruth Gelbel gave vocal numbers. Accompanists were Mrs. Lynn Wright and Miss Myrtle Wilcock.

The Pukwana Camp Fire group, of which Mrs. R. F. Tyler is guardian, sang two songs. Miss Sarah Williamson's group, Toguessee, was represented by Ola Mae Hough who played two piano numbers. The Wakelita group of Miss Etienne Glass was represented by Andrea Almsworth and Genevieve Flexer in a violin duet accompanied by Muriel Webb. Mrs. W. T. Phy's group gave two folk dances.

Plans for a social meeting and initiation Apr. 18 were made when the G. L. A. met yesterday afternoon at the Knights of Pythias hall. Twelve were in attendance.

The Triangle club met Tuesday night at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Bert Webb. Three tables of bridge were at play with club prize going to Mr. and Mrs. Walter Jones.

The hostess served light refreshments.

Mrs. Henry Riley entertained the N. B. club yesterday afternoon. Mrs. Ernest Walden received first prize, Mrs. Boyd Pidcock, second and Mrs. Bert Webb, guest prize. Three tables were at play.

A two-course luncheon was served.
