

Local News In Brief

Eastern Oregon Students Active—Students at the University of Oregon from La Grande and other Eastern Oregon cities continue to take active part in the work of organizations on the campus. Carl Gregory, of Wallawa, assistant managing editor of the Oregon Daily Emerald, has just been appointed chief day editor. Announcements of executive council members of the Women's League, were given yesterday by June Cochran, formerly of La Grande, Joan Patterson, of Baker, and Grace Hargrove, of Union. Anne Stange and Dot Ann Warnick are on the committee in charge of the freshman stunt for April Frolic. George Cherry, of Enterprise, was a member of the varsity debate team which defeated the University of Montana Wednesday night on the Oregon campus.

Books Sold for $100—Friends of Miss Florence Hurley in La Grande are rejoicing with her as the success she is achieving at the beginning of her career in the palm of the short story. Miss Hurley's home is at Enterprise and she is a graduate of the University of Oregon with the class of '28. A story, "Who Casts the First Stone," written by Miss Hurley, was recently purchased by the Hearst Magazine publications for $400. Miss Hurley is society editor of the Valjeo Evening Chronicle in California. She is a niece of Dan Sheahan, Enterprise attorney.

Mother Visits Joe Carr—Mrs. F. W. Wood, of North Bend, mother of Joe Carr, is in La Grande with Mr. Carr. She expects to be here for the coming month. Mr. Carr's sister, Mrs. H. L. Anderson, of Elsieburg, Wash., and his mother, Mrs. Katherine Drury, of Princeton, are also visiting Mr. Carr. They all attended the funeral of Carr, which was held Wednesday. Mrs. Carr's sister, Mrs. Elizabeth Sutherland, of Astoria, is leaving tonight and Frank Cary, of Seilo, tonight and Mrs. Carr will return to his home tomorrow.

University Committee—Miss Dorothy Ann Warnick, of La Grande, freshman at the University of Oregon, has been appointed a member of the freshman committee of women working on plans for the start of the first year men to be given Apr. 20 as part of the April Frolic program, an annual event.

At Clark Home Here—Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Jordan, of Well, Kansas, arrived in La Grande last night and are house guests of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Clark at 2902 Oak street. The Jordans and the Clarks are friends of many years, knowing each other since both families lived in Kansas.

Buttons and Boxes to be Told—"Buttons and Boxes," "Dilly Dally" and "Pido and the Tulpin Bully," the names of the stories to be told tomorrow morning at 10 o'clock by Miss Gertrude Wagoner at the city library as part of the regular story hour for children of La Grande.

Deaths Here—P. C. Thomas, local representative of Ritzy Protective association for 37th, Wallawa and Baker counties, has come to La Grande from Portland. His wife and two children will join him here in June.

Eagles Make Plans—At the meetings of the Eagles and Eagles' auxiliary lodges last night plans were made for a May day dance to be given May 1. The auxiliary sewing club will meet Wednesday at the home of Mrs. Frank Pats. It was announced.

Fish Baker Ministers—The Rev. F. O. Hess, of the Baptist church, and I. E. Chenault, went to Baker Thursday to meet with other ministers to make a program for the Grande Ronde association which meets at Ontario on June 5.

House Guests at Lanzer Home—Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Campbell, of Enterprise, who were house guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Lanzer in La Grande yesterday and today, left today for their home.

Former Residents Visit Here—Mr. and Mrs. Len McCrary, of Portland, formerly of this city, are in La Grande visiting Mr. and Mrs. Robert Pattison. Mrs. Pattison and Mrs. McCrary are sisters.

Leaves La Grande—M. L. Patterson, of Baker, has left La Grande, following a short visit. He was at the La Grande hotel.

LIQUOR TROUBLES CAUSE 25 DEATHS

(Continued from Page 1)
killed a citizen in attempting to make an arrest where the officer was not allowed of blame by a coroner's or grand jury he has been found to have acted in performance of his duty when tried in court. Lawson said. Several cases, however, still are pending.

Statistics show that since the inauguration of the prohibition law a total of 125 persons have been killed by prohibition agents. During the nine years 55 prohibition agents have met death in line of duty.

The deaths by years were: 1920, agents, 6; citizens, 22; 1921, agents, 8; citizens, 14; 1922, agents, 12; citizens, 13; 1923, agents, 4; citizens, 17; 1924, agents, 2; citizens, 22; 1925, agents, 5; citizens, 20; 1926, agents, 6; citizens, 17; 1927, agents, 5; citizens, 6; 1928, agents, 7; citizens, 10; 1929, agents, none; citizens, 1.

Here From Arlington—A. B. Clough, of Arlington, is a visitor in La Grande and a guest at the Sacajawea Inn.

Mr. Craig is Visitor Here—A. P. Craig, of Enterprise, arrived in La Grande yesterday. He is at the Sacajawea Inn.

Guest at Kellogg Home—Mrs. Gustie Stillman, of Great Falls, Mont., is a guest at the J. W. Kellogg home in this city.

Guard Company At Union Makes High Attendance

By W. V. Cannon (Observer Correspondent)
UNION (Special)—As a reward for having kept up a 100 per cent in attendance at their regular weekly meetings, the members of Headquarters company of the national guard located here, were tendered a banquet at Shanks cafe prior to their practice Tuesday evening. Lieutenant Adrian Goodbrod plans on having target practice on the range near Hot Lake Sunday if the weather is suitable.

The Home Missionary society of the Methodist church held its regular monthly meeting at the church Wednesday afternoon. Following the regular routine of business the members enjoyed a short missionary play, representing a scene in Chicago where the society is carrying on some of its work. The former Presbyterian organization has recently merged its work with that of the Methodist society, and several new members were present at this meeting. A covered dish luncheon was served after the program.

Mrs. Mertie Irwin and baby, Richard, arrived in Union this week and will make an indefinite visit at the home of Mrs. Irwin's mother, Mrs. Flora Kiehlblock. The Irwins have been living in Walla Walla, from where Mr. Irwin is doing commercial traveling. Mr. and Mrs. Irwin formerly lived in Union.

The volunteer fire boys were called out Wednesday to put out a grass fire in North Union which threatened to spread and destroy some nearby buildings. No particular damage was done.

Grande Ronde encampment held a meeting at the Odd Fellows' hall Tuesday evening and finished their evening's program with a sing banquet.

A dance and card social was enjoyed Monday evening at the Women's club building by members of the high school student body and many other young folk of the city. The event being given in honor of the athletic teams from the high school. The social was sponsored and chaperoned by a committee from the women's organization.

R. H. Bonney, superintendent of the state fish hatchery located just east of this place, has been confined to his home for several days on account of illness.

A clean-up campaign inaugurated by the city council is in full swing and Union is beginning to take on a neat appearance. Garden making is also under way in most parts of the community.

The local judge of Odd Fellows has a committee appointed to plan some kind of program to celebrate the founding of the society. The annual celebration is given about the 26th of April.

TRAPPED BY FIRE, SUICIDES
SACRAMENTO, Apr. 5 (AP)—Trapped by flames which virtually destroyed the Garvey Rice Milling company plant here early today, Thomas J. Garvey, 46, the owner, committed suicide in his living quarters on the second floor, by firing a shotgun charge into his chest. The fire caused a $45,000 loss.

10 Years Ago Today--
The base drummer of the O.-W. is tickled over his new drum which arrived this morning.

NOT half so pleased AS you over your new AUTO you saved to BUY this spring. KEEP it nice, and CLEAN. We have whisk BROOMS, chamois and SPONGES that will SHINE 'er up and KEEP 'er like new.

L. & L. Drug Co.

Coming Soon
VITAPHONE and MOVIETONE
It Is Thrilling The World

School Fair Is Held At Perry This Afternoon

By Mrs. Mary B. Kall (Observer Correspondent)
PERRY, Ore. (Special)—The Perry school fair was postponed from last Friday until today and is being held at the school house beginning with a program at 1 p. m., which lasted an hour, after which the guests were invited to view the work of the students which was on display.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Perislo and sons, Paul and Beryl, returned from Greenleaf, Idaho, Monday afternoon, where they had spent several days visiting relatives and friends.

Mr. and Mrs. George Hejckel have moved to Elgin where Mr. Hejckel will be section foreman. J. R. Cox was quite ill last Friday and a doctor was called from La Grande to treat him. He is reported to be much improved at this time.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Cox and two small children left for Burns, Ore., last week where Mr. Cox expects to secure employment. Mrs. Mary B. Kall was called to Cove Friday noon on account of the death of her sister, Mrs. Fannie Muir. Mrs. Muir was laid to rest at Cove Sunday afternoon. She had been ill for three years, suffering from cancer.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Cantwell and five children arrived in Perry from Boise last week. They expect to make Perry their home while four of their children attend school. Mr. Cantwell is employed at the rock crusher at present. Mr. La Marr was a business caller in Perry last Tuesday.

Mrs. May R. Kall had as her guest last Monday her mother, Mrs. J. D. Braughton, of Rossburg. Mrs. Braughton is visiting other daughters while here. She expects to go to Enterprise Wednesday, accompanied by Mrs. J. H. Albertson, where she will visit her father, the Rev. N. E. Hammock, who recently suffered a paralytic stroke.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe La Gore recently returned from Portland where Mr. La Gore went to consult a specialist about his health. Thomas Haylock and sons made a business trip to Ponda one day last week.

Charles Ditty and four children, of Lower Cove, were visitors in Perry last Thursday. Kenneth Pierson recently returned from Burns, Ore.

TO PROTECT AMERICANS IN MEXICAN AREA
(Continued from Page One)
time to check up on federal casualties.

"Marble Halls"
a term that's now aptly applied to living rooms that have floors covered with one of these new and altogether attractive Hinton marble design linoleums.

—Unlike the "marble halls" of old, however, such a living room is now achieved very reasonably.

$1.35 - $2.50 Sq. Yd.
Bohnenkamp's

STAR
Buffalo Bill Jr.

Coming Saturday
The Obligin' Buckaroo
TODAY Rod La Rocque In "CAPTAIN SWAGGER"

A rebel monoplane appeared over Naco this morning, dropped four bombs and returned to its base at Del Rio. There were no troop movements by the rebels captured before the federal entrenchments here and damage caused by the bombs was not announced.

WASHINGTON, Apr. 5—(AP)—Major General Lassiter, at San Antonio, informed the war department today of the arrest by civil authorities at Naco, Ariz., of one captain and ten enlisted men of the 38th Mexican federal infantry on the United States side of the international boundary.

SNOW STORM GRIPS STATE OVER NIGHT

(Continued from Page 1)
cast on the highway when they discovered the wreck. The car was reported to be only slightly damaged. The three occupants, Joe Patterson, a man whose name was not learned, and Colla Simmons, were not hurt, the officers report.

SNOW IN MEDFORD
MEDFORD, Ore., Apr. 5—(AP)—A thin layer of snow fell here last night, covering the Rogue River valley. In the higher levels a heavy fall was reported.

SALEM WEATHER IMPROVING
SALEM, Ore., Apr. 5—(AP)—Snow which fell Thursday afternoon and evening to a depth of half an inch here was still standing on roofs and side hills this morning, but rapidly disappeared under the rays of a bright sun. The thermometer dropped to 28 degrees during the night.

DETROIT PEOPLE MAROONED
DETROIT, Apr. 5—(AP)—About 30,000 residents of Detroit's east side were marooned in their homes early today by flood waters of "connors" creek following a ninety minute heavy rain. The water was receding slowly this morning and it was thought the flooded district, which is about a mile square will be drained by night. Street cars were put out of service shortly after midnight last night and police used boats to transport people who wished to leave their homes. No casualties were reported.

FLOOD IN OHIO
YOUNGSTOWN, O., Apr. 5—(AP)—Much of the industrial activity here was at a standstill today.

SAVE WITH SAFETY
300 at 300
The Rexall Store

COLONIAL
TODAY SATURDAY

A little piece of parchment meant certain death to ELMO LINCOLN & LOUISE LORRAINE in "ADVENTURES OF TARZAN does he escape? See this electrifying serial"

—Also—
W. RAY JOHNSTON presents TEX MAYNARD & RABBIT'S ROUGH RIDERS IN "RIDIN' LUCK"
Topics And Fables.

Coming Saturday
STAR
Buffalo Bill Jr.

Coming Saturday
The Obligin' Buckaroo
TODAY Rod La Rocque In "CAPTAIN SWAGGER"

"One of the dominant characteristics of the people of this country is to go after anything that's hard to get," was Ted Blankley's only comment when he heard that the Jones law would double the price of liquor. I wonder if Author Conledge's typewriter amuses the family in the other half of that Northampton double?

night and police used boats to transport people who wished to leave their homes. No casualties were reported.

FLOOD IN OHIO
YOUNGSTOWN, O., Apr. 5—(AP)—Much of the industrial activity here was at a standstill today.

KEEP TEETH WHITE BREATH SWEET
REXALL MILK OF MAGNESIA TOOTH PASTE does these two most essential things.

Glass Drugs Inc.
The Rexall Store
La Grande, Ore.

The woods are full Of cheap clothing But Johnny Don't Get your gun.

Between Chain store claims and coaxing catalogues "suits with two trousers at $17.50 and suits without a leg to stand on at $13.75—" Is it any wonder the average man seeking right style and good value is bewildered?

This institution thinks you want the truth unglided rather than a bird in a gilded cage—and we frankly tell you that any suit under $22 is a mirage and a stealer of time—money.

These cabinets abound with fine suits that start at $24. And it's easy to see the difference if you'll look.

Trotter's

as the worst flood since 1912 rushed into steel mills, marooned trains, jammed many families in their homes, halted traffic and caused thousands of dollars property damage.

BOY'S BODY FOUND
GORDON, Neb., Apr. 5—(AP)—The snow that cool him his life has melted away, revealing to searchers the body of six year old Melvin Reeves. The boy, hunting a lost mitten, was caught in a sudden and terrific blizzard three weeks ago and perished in a struggle to reach a place of shelter.

The body was found last night by George Davis, an employe at the ranch of Nathan Hiller. It lay in a cow path about 200 yards from the Hiller ranch house, indicating the boy had been trying to reach the home of Mrs. Hiller, who was his aunt. The Hiller place is four miles from the Reeves ranch.

Hundreds of persons, and 200 Indians from the Pine Ridge reservation, lined in many days of fruitless search for the boy.

WINTRY IN BAKER
BAKER, Ore., Apr. 5 (AP)—Winter paid a return visit to Baker county today. The ground was white with snow here this morning.

De's SELF SERVICE STORE
Across from Bohnenkamp's
Still a few Von Fleet Gladstone Bulbs left - While they last one bulb given FREE with each 50 cents worth of merchandise purchased.

but the fall of less than one inch was melting today. The temperature dropped to 27 degrees above normal this morning.

LIGHT SNOW IN PENDLETON
PENDLETON, Ore., Apr. 5 (AP)—A light snow fell over Pendleton for a few minutes early this morning but melted as fast as if the heaviest spring snow in the fall. Although a chilling wind was memory of old residents.

TACOMA SNOW HEAVY
TACOMA, Apr. 5 (AP)—Snow varying in depth from two to 14 inches covered Tacoma and the area for a few minutes early this morning but melted as fast as if the heaviest spring snow in the fall. Although a chilling wind was memory of old residents.

ARCADE
Now Showing
BELLE BEAUMONT
in MOTHER WITCHER
WITH VICTOR MILES and NEIL HAMILTON
OR THE FOX ATTRACTION

Mother Witcher
A soul that knows no misery
And eyes that smile through tears.
A heart that scars disaster,
And laughs at the conquering years
Clemey & News.

PIGGLY WIGGLY

If Your Dollar Could Talk It Would Say:-
"I know I don't amount to much these days, but I'm supposed to work for you just the same—to help you get some of the good things of life. But there are so few places where I can do anything worth while alone. For instance, it takes a regiment of my tribe to capture a single automobile. I'm a mite when it comes to paying rent. I'm of little use when it comes to buying a suit of clothes. I can't even buy a decent pair of shoes or a hat—BUT—"

AT PIGGLY WIGGLY I'M BIG MONEY

That's one place where I'm still able to do something worth while for you!

Citrus Soap Large Bar 4¢	Royal Gelatine Regular Pkg. 19¢	Royal Plain Mint Sauce 7 oz. Bottle 30¢
Wesson Oil Can't Be Beat for Making French Dressing 1 pt. can 27¢	Santiam Brand Loganberries — Blackberries No. 2 Can 19¢	Strictly fancy quality.
B. & M. Oven Baked Beans No. 1/2 Can 14¢ No. 1 Tall Can 17¢ No. 2 Tall Can 22¢	Duz Makes Washing Easy Makes Oxygen Suds. Large Pkg., 24¢	Old Dutch The Old Standby 2 Cans 15¢

Oyster and Shrimp Special
American Beauty and Dunbar Brands.

No. 1 Can 15c No. 1 Can

This is a special price, put on for a limited time to help us reduce our large stock of these items.

Florida Gold Fancy Quality Grape Fruit No. 2 Cans 24¢ Picnic Cans 12¢	Swift's Premium Hams You All Know the Quality. 8 to 10 lb. average, lb. 29¢
Marshmallows Fireside Brand 1 lb. Carton 25¢	Telephone Peas Fountain Brand No. 2 can 16¢
Tri-Tex Washes — Bleaches 1 pt. bottle 15¢	B. & M. Sugar Corn No. 2 Can 18¢
Corner Depot and Wash.	PRUDENCE Corned Beef Hash No. 2 Can 29¢

Two Stores In La Grande
1408 Adams Roesch Bldg.