AT THE THEATERS

"Honeymoon Flats" At Arcade Sunday

Both those going through life with the matrimonial yoke and those still free of marital bliss will be highly entertained by this theatre's next entertainment, "Honeymoon Flats", which will play on Sunday with George Lewis and Dorothy Gulliver in the starring roles.

"Honeymoon Flats" is from Earl Deer Biggers' recent Saturday Evening Post short story and contains all the finesse and discernment that has made him one of the most successful authors in America.

Lewis and Miss Gulliver will be remembered for their work in "The Collegians", in which they became one of the greatest romantic-comedy teams in the history of the screen.

The supporting cast includes Kathleen Williams, Ward Crane, Bryant Washburn, Phillips Smalley, Jane Winton, Eddie Phillips and Patricia Caron.

"The Ware Case" Is Great Mystery Film

A crime and mystery picture of an unusual nature is First National's film, "The Ware Case", which comes to the Star Theatre on Sunday. Without resort to trickery the identity of the murderer is not revealed till the very end, and the ending, when it is flashed on the screen comes as a shock notwithstanding its entire plausibility.

George Lloyd Brockhoff wrote the story from which the London stage play and then the motion picture was adapted. It had a remarkable success both as novel and play in England and is repeating that success in America in its screen version.

The production was directed by Manning Haynes. Aside from its accurate picture of a murder trial in London's Old Bailey, it has some beautiful and picturesque rural English scenery. The sheer drama and emotional intensity of the story makes its appeal universal.

LONDON (AP)—Art interests are boosting an idea for a loan exhibition here of Italian art, similar to the showing last season of the works of Dutch masters. Proponents of the scheme hope the Italian and vatican authorities will send some of their choicest paintings.

Excuses aren't worth while. Your friends don't care and your wife won't believe you.
