Charming Bridge Luncheon Held At The Sacajawea Inn

A charming social event of Saturday was the bridge luncheon at which Mrs. G. L. Larson and Mrs. William Siegrest were hostesses at the Sacajawea Inn.

The luncheon tables in the main dining room of the Inn were beautifully decorated with bouquets of daffodils and orchid sweet peas in small wicker baskets.

The guests played cards at 19 tables during the afternoon. Mrs. Warren K. Gilbert received high prize, Mrs. Harry Wagner, second, and Mrs. Lee B. Bouvy, third.

Out-of-town guests were: Mrs. D. H. Dewey and Mrs. Sada Van Buren, of Portland; Mrs. H. J. Campbell, of Enterprise, and Mrs. David Stoddard and Mrs. Howard Stoddard, of Baker.

An afternoon of bridge was enjoyed by the Monday bridge club at the home of Mrs. Charles Binnaman yesterday afternoon. Mrs. J. T. Richardson received club prize and a most prize was awarded to Mrs. L. L. Hinton.

The final meeting of the season was held by the Wakefield Bridge club when it met yesterday afternoon at the Union hotel at Ulfjan for a no-hostess luncheon and an afternoon of cards. Officers for the year were elected and include president, Mrs. A. E. Hug; vice president, Mrs. Chester Koyle, secretary-treasurer, Mrs. Geo. Clark.

The luncheon table yesterday was lovely with a centerpiece consisting of sweet peas, daffodils and pussy willows. Place cards suggested the idea of spring.

Three tables of cards were played. Mrs. A. E. Hug received first prize and Mrs. J. L. Brandt, second.

"Women in Art" was the topic of a very interesting talk given by Mrs. E. P. Mossman at the afternoon program meeting of Chapter 1, P. E. O. Friday at the home of Mrs. George S. Birnie with Mrs. P. H. Appleby assistant hostess for a luncheon and meeting.

Mrs. Mossman told of European women in art and discussed of greater length the American women who have achieved a place in the realm of art.

The Mothers' Self Culture club met at the home of Mrs. H. K. O'Brien yesterday afternoon with Mrs. Ray Williams in charge. "How to Make Home Attractive to Young People" was the topic of the program. Mrs. George Richardson gave a talk on "Evening Games in the Family."

Mrs. Miriam Rettig talked on "Music, Reading Aloud, and Other Recreation." Mrs. Ray Murphy spoke on "Inviting Friends of Our Boys to Our Homes."

Juvenile Lodge Is Organized Here

The first juvenile lodge of the Supreme Forest Woodman Circle in Oregon to be known as Grace Grove No. 1 was organized yesterday when a meeting was held at the home of Mrs. L. C. Hawes with Sovereign Grace Christianson, state manager, in charge. The meeting, which was attended by 25 juveniles who joined the Grove.

Mrs. Daisy Newkirk was appointed junior supervisor. Junior officers appointed are as follows: Katherine Betts, guard; Josephine Browning, attendant; Luther Betts, captain; Joseph Browning, assistant attendant; Sheldon Hawes, outer sentinel; Evelyn Newkirk, advisor; La Velle Hawes, inner sentinel; Orville Browning, past guardian; Lena Bell Betts, chaplain; Harold Newkirk, clerk.

The organization was named after Sovereign Christianson by the members who desired to show their appreciation of her visit and her work. The grove will meet the first and third Saturdays of each month.

It was stated that Blue Mountain Grove No. 21 is always appreciative of the visits paid by Sovereign Christianson and will always assure her of a welcome. She will leave this evening for Portland and on June 1 will return to Eastern Oregon.

The tri-state convention of the Supreme Forest Circle will be held in Portland Apr. 22 when each grove in Oregon will be represented.

MENUS

By Sister Mary
Perhaps one of the best ways to cook vegetables are cooked in a casserole all the food elements that are needed by the body are heat conserved.

With the casserole very little water is needed, for the vegetable cooks in the steam of its own juice and both the flavor and mineral salts are preserved.

A hot oven should be used, for the shorter the cooking period for vegetables the less loss of valuable food constituents. Use care not to overcook vegetables prepared this way. It's an easy thing to do, for there is less danger of burning than when cooked over the flame, and consequently the cook does not need to watch her cooking so closely.

Very often we reheat left-overs in a baking dish in the oven. This should not be confused with casserole cookery. A casserole always has a close fitting cover which prevents the escape of steam. This makes the cooking process one of steaming rather than baking.

If vegetables are to be combined with meat and the whole served from the casserole, the meat should be cooked until almost tender before the vegetables are added. Casserole cookery of meats demands long, slow cooking to bring out their flavor and make them tender, and if vegetables were cooked during the entire time they would be ruined.

While almost all vegetables can be cooked in a casserole there are certain ones which lend themselves particularly well to this method.

Carrots, potatoes, turnips, parsnips, corn and tomatoes and all varieties of beans are delicious when cooked in a casserole.

Carrots En Casserole
Six new carrots, 1 tablespoon butter, 1 teaspoon sugar, 1 teaspoon salt.

Sauce: 2 tablespoons butter, 2 tablespoons flour, 1 cup milk, 1/2 tablespoon lemon juice, salt and pepper, bread crumbs.

Scrape carrots and cut in slices. Put into buttered casserole, add butter, sugar and salt and 1/2 cup boiling water. Cover closely and cook in a hot oven for 30 minutes. Melt butter, stir in flour and gradually add milk, stirring constantly. Add lemon juice, salt and pepper and pour over carrots in casserole. Cover with bread crumbs and return to oven long enough to brown the top. Serve from casserole.

Music Students In Recital At Hotel Tonight

An audience of nearly 200 music lovers greeted the intermediate violin and piano students of the Eastern Oregon School of Music at the Sacajawea Inn last evening. The program was given in an excellent manner, showing careful preparation.

Two violinists, Jennie Nielsen and Effie Blanchard, were unable to appear as they were in Spokane rehearsing with the Northwest High School symphony orchestra. Dora Hunt, piano, Dorothy Moncrief, violin and Virgil Conley, violin, were also unable to appear.

Those who took part in the program were: piano, Ida Mae Ambrose, Boris Williams, Ina Scott, Marian Boyles, Alleen Boyles, Wanda Berry, Marguerite White, Alice Milne, Evelyn Auseon, Isabelle Williams; violins: Milton Hunt, Isabelle Williams, James Meldrum, Joyce Cusick and Margaret Milne; Leo Cullen Bryant was the accompanist for the violinists.

Mrs. Wm. H. Parkinson announced the program for the second recital which will be given tonight at the Sacajawea hall room by the advanced piano students.

Piano Ensemble

The school is presenting an ensemble of seven grand pianos which is the first program of this kind ever to be given in Eastern Oregon.

In addition to the ensemble and solo numbers, two novelties will be introduced by the oldest and youngest students of the school.

The following program will be given at 8:15 p. m.

"Invitation To The Dance" von Weber
Piano ensemble using seven grands. Conductor, Leo Cullen Bryant; pianos: Mrs. Anderson, Misses Trill, Shumate, French.

The world's only truly fresh tea - not merely because it is sealed in vacuum - but because it is fresh to begin with - fresh and fragrant as they enjoy it in the Orient. You will never know how much that means, till you try it. No other tea is like it - nor can it be - for it's a closely guarded Schilling secret.

Annual Jubilee Meeting Held By Church Society

By Mrs. Bert Knight (Observer Correspondent)

UNION (Special)—The annual Jubilee meeting of the Home Missionary society of the Methodist church was held Wednesday afternoon in the league room of the church. Thirty-one members and guests were present. Mrs. William Kielblock, president of the society, had charge of the program, which consisted of a mission playlet entitled "Mary Center." Mrs. Cecil L. Griggs gave a reading, "What Paper Pray?" and Mrs. E. P. Reuter read an article on the Jesse Lee Home in Alaska. During the business session which preceded the program, three new members, Mrs. L. Z. Terrall, Mrs. Walter Cook, and Mrs. Ella Holly, joined the society. A covered-dish luncheon followed the program, with Mrs. S. E. Miller, Mrs. E. P. Reuter and Mrs. M. L. Waits in charge.

With the president, Mrs. S. E. Miller presiding, the Woman's club met Thursday afternoon at the club house with 45 members in attendance. Mrs. Ella Holly, Mrs. M. L. Johnson, of Cove, was a Union visitor Wednesday evening and attended the regular meeting of the stock show force.

Merton Davis, proprietor of the Davis super-service station, returned home Thursday evening from Portland, where he attended the Ford service school held there Monday and Tuesday of this week.

T. Kerr and Mrs. Mary Hutchinson were in charge of the afternoon's program. The subject was Samuel Clemens (Mark Twain) and Mrs. Holly gave a sketch of several of his books. A whistling solo and several readings were given by little Wilma Hutchinson. Refreshments were served by the hostesses, Mrs. G. F. Hall, Mrs. L. G. Knight, Mrs. Cedric Gale and Mrs. Mable Gale.

One of the most enjoyable events of the spring season was the dance given Monday evening by the members of the Woman's club at the club house in honor of the Union basketball team and their coaches, Miss Pauline Hood and E. P. Coburn. Dancing continued until 11 o'clock, followed by refreshments. The committee in charge of the affair was Mrs. Roy Conklin, Mrs. George Baird and Mrs. T. T. Cook.

Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Hutchinson were host and hostess Wednesday evening at their home to the members of the T. B. club. Five tables of bridge were at play with Mrs. L. Z. Terrall and George Winship winning high score prizes and the consolation prize was awarded to W. H. Vogel. The hostess served refreshments following the card games.

T. B. Johnson, of Cove, was a Union visitor Wednesday evening and attended the regular meeting of the stock show force.

daughter, Mrs. Reta Bradshaw. In honor of the birthday anniversary of Mrs. W. R. Phillips, Mrs. Walter Cook entertained a few friends at a delightful luncheon Monday afternoon at her home in North Union. Lunch was served at 1 o'clock at four tables prettily decorated in a color scheme of pink and yellow. Small cakes with tiny pink candles in pink rose buds served as a centerpiece for each table. The same color scheme was carried out in the three-course luncheon. Being April Fool's day, earthquake bridge was the diversion of the afternoon following luncheon, and everything was done opposite to the usual way. Mrs. George Baird received low score and was awarded first prize. Mrs. L. G. Knight received second prize for second low score, and Mrs. J. P. Hutchinson received consolation prize for high score. At the close of the card games, the honor guest was presented a large basket of beautiful and useful gifts.

Gets Five Years And Then Parole

OREGON CLAY, Ore., April 9 (AP)—Last week Lawrence Lythe was convicted of attacking young girl Monday he appeared in circuit court and heard the sentence: "Five years in the penitentiary with a parole to this court."

The courtroom listened in astonishment. But the next words of the court eased the strain: "I'm not only revoking your driver's license but I am forbidding you to even ride in an automobile. You will report to this court once a month and bring a personal financial report with you. I want you to account for every cent you earn and every nickel you pay out or spend in any other capacity. You will also pay the costs of this suit."

The prisoner nodded his head. Sentence was pronounced by Judge J. U. Campbell.
