

Local News In Brief

Have Fine Vacation—
The Misses Alta Lillie, Eleanor Vernon, Alice Klippel and Mabel Norton returned last evening from their auto trip to Seattle, which lasted for about nine days. Miss Lillie visited friends from her home in Iowa in Seattle, then with relatives in Portland and friends in Hermiston. Miss Vernon spent the time at the home of her parents, Rev. and Mrs. Vernon, in Seattle. Miss Klippel visited at the home of a cousin there and Miss Norton spent the time at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Seaman and family. Mr. Seaman is a member of the faculty of the University of Washington, and Mrs. Seaman is a sister of Dr. Ida Belle Lewis, of Poochew, China, who has many friends in La Grande.

Admires Hotels of La Grande—
John G. Rivenburgh, of Portland, surveyor for the Oregon Insurance Rating Bureau, expresses his admiration for the hotels of La Grande. They are unusually fine for a city of this size, he says. Mr. Rivenburgh and Rodney Keating, of this city, held a reunion yesterday. They were freshmen together at the University of Oregon. Mr. Rivenburgh is leaving today for other points in the territory which he travels.

Quarters in La Grande—
Rodney Keating, of Portland, now has his headquarters in La Grande as representative of the International Harvester company. Mr. Keating has many friends in this city as he is a graduate of the University of Oregon with the class of '28. For two years he was located in Klamath Falls as manager of the Illinois Lumber company. Today he left for Baker and surrounding points. Mr. Keating is looking forward to a fishing excursion in that vicinity next Sunday.

Asked to Repeat Ensemble—
Mrs. W. H. Parkinson, of the Eastern Oregon School of Music, announces that she has had numerous requests to repeat the piano ensemble which was presented last Tuesday but owing to the large expense attached to such a program it will be impossible to do so now. However, she says, they expect to give one such program each year. There was a large and appreciative audience in attendance last Tuesday.

News of Death—
Word has been received here of the death of Leo N. Klees, of Tacoma, Wash., on Mar. 29. He was a former resident of the Grande Ronde valley. Following the death of his father Anton Klees, he leaves a wife, formerly Marguerite Clark and mother, Marion Klees, a brother, A. P. Klees and sisters, Mrs. C. J. Steinger and Mrs. Albert Walters.

Visit Sunday From Enterprise—
Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Brown, Miss Virginia Brown and Miss Ruth Cherry, all of Enterprise, were visitors in La Grande yesterday afternoon. Mr. Brown, who is manager of the J. C. Penney company store at Enterprise, conferred with M. M. Hunt, manager of the Penney store here.

Spent Sunday Here—
Miss Edris Maguire, formerly of La Grande, but now of Portland was visiting her mother and sister, Mrs. S. B. Morgan and Mrs. Jack Ferris here yesterday. Miss Maguire returned to Portland last night.

A. H. Stange Arrives—
A. H. Stange, of Merrill, Wis., is in La Grande visiting his son, Aug. J. Stange, of the Mt. Emily Lumber company. A. H. Stange expects to be in La Grande until Apr. 20.

Left Friday—
Mr. and Mrs. M. N. Dawson, of Miami, Ariz., left Friday morning by car for Seattle, Wash., after visiting here for a week with Mrs. Dawson's twin sister, Mrs. D. H. Lefebvre, and family.

Visit Charles Phayle Home—
Mr. and Mrs. Rosenbaum, of Baker, spent the weekend at the home of Mrs. Rosenbaum's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Phayle, in La Grande.

George Birnie Appointed—
George Birnie, of this city, has been appointed member of the Eastern Oregon council of boy scouts by Dr. W. T. Phy, president of the council.

Has Operation—
Mrs. Virgil Keltz, of La Grande, submitted to an appendix operation at the Dr. Wonderlich hospital this morning. She is getting along very nicely.

Overcoat Stolen—
J. M. Carr reported to the police Saturday night that his overcoat had been stolen from his car at 782 Lake street.

In Portland—
Clyde L. Kiddle, of Island City, among the Eastern Oregon people, who spent the weekend in Portland.

At Benson Hotel—
Herman Siegrist, merchant of La Grande, accompanied by Mrs. Siegrist, registered yesterday at the Benson—Portland Oregonian.

Zelpha La Crosse Comes—
Zelpha La Crosse, of Baker, is a visitor in this city. She is at the Sacajawea Inn.

From Pendleton—
S. M. Bukheiter, of Pendleton, arrived in La Grande yesterday and registered at the Sacajawea Inn.

Visit in Baker Yesterday—
Mr. and Mrs. Otis Veal, of this city, were visitors in Baker for a short time yesterday.

Return to La Grande Home—
Mr. and Mrs. Adolph Siegrist, Miss Sally Siegrist and Miss Mary Gould Parsons, returned to La Grande yesterday from Portland. Miss Parsons has been spending the spring vacation in Eugene with her mother.

Spends Vacation at Home—
Miss Vina Conley, who teaches in the La Grande schools, spent the spring vacation at her home near Cove with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Conley. She returned to La Grande this morning.

Arrives to Visit Parents—
Lloyd Barnwell, of Kellogg, Ida., arrived in La Grande yesterday for a visit with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. O. Barnwell. The visitor is a mining engineer at Kellogg.

Scouts to Meet—
Tomorrow afternoon at 2:45 o'clock the boy scouts who plan to attend the conference in Pendleton, Apr. 19 to 21, will meet in the boy scout office.

Returns to Joseph—
Mrs. E. M. Calvert, of Joseph, passed through La Grande today on the way to her home from Portland where she has been visiting her sister, Mrs. Harry Wagner.

Mrs. Happersett Returns—
Mrs. C. E. Happersett, of this city returned Saturday from Portland where she has been visiting her father.

Mother Comes From Eugene—
Mrs. Ida French, of Eugene, arrived in La Grande this morning to visit her son, D. C. French, and family.

To Be Wed—
A marriage license was issued Saturday to Fred Slusher, of Enterprise, and Mercedes Heavens, of Joseph.

Grant Conley Visitor Here—
Grant Conley, of Cove, is a visitor in La Grande today.

16 DEAD, 28 HURT DURING WEEKEND
(Continued from Page 1)
Francisco, Mrs. Isabella Nielson, 667, San Francisco, Walter Hall, 71, Petaluma, Lawrence Courtney, 24, Modesto, Raul Valenzuela, Los Angeles, Gray Vivars, Los Angeles, Goldie Sigman, Los Angeles, Mrs. Emma Belt, Los Angeles, Allen Lane, 69, Los Angeles, Fred B. Miller, Merced, Baby R. J. Salzman, Tulalip, Wash., William Martlow, Aberdeen, Wash., Clifford Horton, Sunnyside Wash., Mrs. W. M. Poole, Portland, Urban Schwartz, Portland.

BURNED TO DEATH
VENTURA, Cal., Apr. 15 (AP)—Ed Masonhopper and L. Jones, were burned to death and Ed Rodgers was probably fatally burned in a fire that followed a gas explosion at an oil well in the Kleon district. Rodgers was saved from death by his 12-year-old son, who beat his father's flaming clothing.

DRIVER SURRENDERS
PORTLAND, Apr. 15 (AP)—Gale E. Dolashmitt, 27, surrendered to police today after he had been sought since Saturday night on a charge of driving the automobile which ran down and killed Mrs. W. M. Poole at a west side intersection.

ST. LOUIS, Apr. 15 (AP)—The body of Lieutenant Shapley Gray of the Missouri national guard unit was found this morning in a field near Gumbo, 29 miles west of here. The lieutenant had jumped from his plane when its motor stalled while on a return trip from Jefferson City late yesterday. The flier's parachute was found intact strapped to his body with the release cord still in his pocket, indicating he had failed to pull the ring. Captain William B. Wimer, pilot, also leaped from the plane but made a safe parachute landing. The plane, an army training ship, was demolished. The homes of both fliers are in St. Louis.

MURDER TRIAL OPENS APR. 19
KLAMATH FALLS, Ore., Apr. 15 (AP)—The trial of Fred Swan, indicted for first degree murder in connection with the death of Ned Connolly on a lonely homestead north of Dorris, will open in circuit court here Apr. 19. The district attorney's office expects the case to take only two days for hearing.

Harlan Dexter Returns—
Harlan Dexter who attends school in La Grande, returned yesterday from Baker where he has been spending the spring vacation. He makes his home in this city with his aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. D. C. French.

Return From Vacation—
Prof. and Mrs. Warner Thomas, of the high school faculty have returned from Yakima where they spent their spring vacation at the home of Mrs. Thomas' parents, Mr. and Mrs. Persi.

Comes From Beaverton—
A. M. Kennedy, father of L. A. Kennedy, of La Grande, is visiting his son here. Mr. Kennedy came about a week ago from his home at Beaverton. He plans to be in La Grande for two more days.

Bound Over to Grand Jury—
Lester Elliott, charged with forgery, has been bound over to the grand jury as the result of his waiving of preliminary hearing when he appeared in the justice court.

Auxiliary Will Meet—
The N. A. to B. of E. T. will meet tomorrow night at 7:30 o'clock at Eagles hall. Initiation will be held and all members are requested to attend.

Arraigned for Forgery—
Cecil Manning, of Union, was arraigned in the justice court last Saturday on a charge of forgery. The hearing was set for this afternoon.

ABE MARTIN
Just the same as the big turkey dinner in "Way Down East" used to send us all home hungry, nearly every movie that comes along sends us home thirsty. According to a Columbia professor college trainee decreases a feller's earning power, unless, of course, he's a natural born bond salesman.

CONGRESS IS CALLED FOR MAJOR TASKS
(Continued from Page 1)
Burton, of Ohio, who delivered an address of tribute to the late Myron T. Herrick, who died while serving as Ambassador to France. Then adjournment was ordered.

SHOW PROMOTER SOUGHT
SALEM, Ore., Apr. 15 (AP)—Billy Mack, musical comedy show promoter, who for several weeks has been training a local troupe here and who put on several shows at a local theater, was sought today by local officers on a charge of defrauding an innkeeper. He is said to have left the Marion hotel without paying a $200 board bill.

THE OPEN COURT
CORRESPONDENTS MUST SUBMIT THEIR NAMES TO THE EDITOR IF THEY DESIRE LETTERS PRINTED.
La Grande Apr. 14, 1929.
To the Editor:
Having noticed the mystery advertisements of the Spanish War Veterans, advertising their flag fund dance of May first, I desire to call the writer of these advertisements attention to an evident mistake.

W. B. A. RALLY IS PRAISED BY DR. REYNOLDS
(Continued from Page 1)
Packard, Dr. Reynolds and to the presidents of the different reviews including Mrs. Ostland, of La Grande. The three national and state officers were in the evening also presented with corsages.

THE OPEN COURT
In Friday Observer, the advertisement asks, "What happened April 13th, 1898?" The answer in Saturday's edition states, "War declared upon Spain."
Now, although I was not on this good old earth at that date, my history, as I remember it tells me that war was declared between the United States and Spain on April 22nd 1898.

SAVE WITH SAFETY
The Rexall Store
SHAVERS' PARADISE
Klenzo Shaving Cream 39 cents
Rexall Shaving Lotion 50 cents
You'll be in the seventh heaven of shaving delight after you have used these shaving necessities. KLENZO SHAVING CREAM softens the beard. REXALL SHAVING LOTION refreshes the skin.
Solely at
Glass Drugs Inc. The Rexall Store La Grande, Ore.

W. B. A. RALLY IS PRAISED BY DR. REYNOLDS
Another presentation made later in the evening was a beautiful basket of flowers to Mrs. J. G. Stinger in recognition of her services in helping to plan for the convention and in furnishing the music for the occasion.
Mrs. Newell Slugs, Mrs. Bert Newell, of Baker, was enthusiastically received when she sang vocal selections during the banquet.

W. B. A. RALLY IS PRAISED BY DR. REYNOLDS
The lodge drills and the initiation were done in the ballroom of the Inn, which was attractively decorated with baskets of pussy-willows, carnations, daffodils and evergreens. The colors of the lodge, orchid for the pioneer's club, blue and gold for the girls' club, cerise for the Juniors, old rose and green for the Westway club and national blue for the guard, were used. At the left were the American flags, the La Grande drill team members were in white uniforms with blue capes. At the right were the lodge colors with the women in white from Baker wearing red roses and those in lavender and white from Pendleton. Each of the drill teams put on their work in well prepared fashion.

W. B. A. RALLY IS PRAISED BY DR. REYNOLDS
A surprise feature of the evening was the fancy drill by La Grande which was given early in the evening. With the lights turned out a little procession of women dressed in Chinese pajamas and carrying lighted lanterns held in front of them came into the room.

W. B. A. RALLY IS PRAISED BY DR. REYNOLDS
Members of the drill team were: Edith McAnulty, May Biley, Lillian Leubetter, Helen Dial, Jessie Danforth, Mildred Stabler, Marie W. G. Eva Koyie, Daisy Buchanan, Abbie Thomas, Mae Nedrow, Pearl Eberline, Zella Lyons, Arley Cooper, Della Harlan, Nora Erickson, Elberta Kennedy, Bessie Webb.

W. B. A. RALLY IS PRAISED BY DR. REYNOLDS
Some were dressed in red and some in blue and they all wore caps of different colors.
Miss Myrna Ward, of La Grande, entertained with a group of three readings which proved popular.
Mrs. Nora Rogers, of Pendleton, was the only charter member present from that city. Charter members from La Grande were: Mrs. McAnish, of Imbler; Mrs. John Kinship, Mrs. Mattie Stewart and Mrs. Jessie Masterton.

W. B. A. RALLY IS PRAISED BY DR. REYNOLDS
Fancy Drill
A surprise feature of the evening was the fancy drill by La Grande which was given early in the evening. With the lights turned out a little procession of women dressed in Chinese pajamas and carrying lighted lanterns held in front of them came into the room.

W. B. A. RALLY IS PRAISED BY DR. REYNOLDS
Members of the drill team were: Edith McAnulty, May Biley, Lillian Leubetter, Helen Dial, Jessie Danforth, Mildred Stabler, Marie W. G. Eva Koyie, Daisy Buchanan, Abbie Thomas, Mae Nedrow, Pearl Eberline, Zella Lyons, Arley Cooper, Della Harlan, Nora Erickson, Elberta Kennedy, Bessie Webb.

W. B. A. RALLY IS PRAISED BY DR. REYNOLDS
Some were dressed in red and some in blue and they all wore caps of different colors.
Miss Myrna Ward, of La Grande, entertained with a group of three readings which proved popular.
Mrs. Nora Rogers, of Pendleton, was the only charter member present from that city. Charter members from La Grande were: Mrs. McAnish, of Imbler; Mrs. John Kinship, Mrs. Mattie Stewart and Mrs. Jessie Masterton.

W. B. A. RALLY IS PRAISED BY DR. REYNOLDS
Fancy Drill
A surprise feature of the evening was the fancy drill by La Grande which was given early in the evening. With the lights turned out a little procession of women dressed in Chinese pajamas and carrying lighted lanterns held in front of them came into the room.

THE OPEN COURT
CORRESPONDENTS MUST SUBMIT THEIR NAMES TO THE EDITOR IF THEY DESIRE LETTERS PRINTED.
La Grande Apr. 14, 1929.
To the Editor:
Having noticed the mystery advertisements of the Spanish War Veterans, advertising their flag fund dance of May first, I desire to call the writer of these advertisements attention to an evident mistake.

W. B. A. RALLY IS PRAISED BY DR. REYNOLDS
(Continued from Page 1)
Packard, Dr. Reynolds and to the presidents of the different reviews including Mrs. Ostland, of La Grande. The three national and state officers were in the evening also presented with corsages.

THE OPEN COURT
In Friday Observer, the advertisement asks, "What happened April 13th, 1898?" The answer in Saturday's edition states, "War declared upon Spain."
Now, although I was not on this good old earth at that date, my history, as I remember it tells me that war was declared between the United States and Spain on April 22nd 1898.

W. B. A. RALLY IS PRAISED BY DR. REYNOLDS
Another presentation made later in the evening was a beautiful basket of flowers to Mrs. J. G. Stinger in recognition of her services in helping to plan for the convention and in furnishing the music for the occasion.

THE OPEN COURT
Mrs. Newell Slugs, Mrs. Bert Newell, of Baker, was enthusiastically received when she sang vocal selections during the banquet.

W. B. A. RALLY IS PRAISED BY DR. REYNOLDS
The lodge drills and the initiation were done in the ballroom of the Inn, which was attractively decorated with baskets of pussy-willows, carnations, daffodils and evergreens. The colors of the lodge, orchid for the pioneer's club, blue and gold for the girls' club, cerise for the Juniors, old rose and green for the Westway club and national blue for the guard, were used. At the left were the American flags, the La Grande drill team members were in white uniforms with blue capes. At the right were the lodge colors with the women in white from Baker wearing red roses and those in lavender and white from Pendleton. Each of the drill teams put on their work in well prepared fashion.

W. B. A. RALLY IS PRAISED BY DR. REYNOLDS
A surprise feature of the evening was the fancy drill by La Grande which was given early in the evening. With the lights turned out a little procession of women dressed in Chinese pajamas and carrying lighted lanterns held in front of them came into the room.

W. B. A. RALLY IS PRAISED BY DR. REYNOLDS
Members of the drill team were: Edith McAnulty, May Biley, Lillian Leubetter, Helen Dial, Jessie Danforth, Mildred Stabler, Marie W. G. Eva Koyie, Daisy Buchanan, Abbie Thomas, Mae Nedrow, Pearl Eberline, Zella Lyons, Arley Cooper, Della Harlan, Nora Erickson, Elberta Kennedy, Bessie Webb.

W. B. A. RALLY IS PRAISED BY DR. REYNOLDS
Some were dressed in red and some in blue and they all wore caps of different colors.
Miss Myrna Ward, of La Grande, entertained with a group of three readings which proved popular.
Mrs. Nora Rogers, of Pendleton, was the only charter member present from that city. Charter members from La Grande were: Mrs. McAnish, of Imbler; Mrs. John Kinship, Mrs. Mattie Stewart and Mrs. Jessie Masterton.

W. B. A. RALLY IS PRAISED BY DR. REYNOLDS
Fancy Drill
A surprise feature of the evening was the fancy drill by La Grande which was given early in the evening. With the lights turned out a little procession of women dressed in Chinese pajamas and carrying lighted lanterns held in front of them came into the room.

W. B. A. RALLY IS PRAISED BY DR. REYNOLDS
Members of the drill team were: Edith McAnulty, May Biley, Lillian Leubetter, Helen Dial, Jessie Danforth, Mildred Stabler, Marie W. G. Eva Koyie, Daisy Buchanan, Abbie Thomas, Mae Nedrow, Pearl Eberline, Zella Lyons, Arley Cooper, Della Harlan, Nora Erickson, Elberta Kennedy, Bessie Webb.

W. B. A. RALLY IS PRAISED BY DR. REYNOLDS
Some were dressed in red and some in blue and they all wore caps of different colors.
Miss Myrna Ward, of La Grande, entertained with a group of three readings which proved popular.
Mrs. Nora Rogers, of Pendleton, was the only charter member present from that city. Charter members from La Grande were: Mrs. McAnish, of Imbler; Mrs. John Kinship, Mrs. Mattie Stewart and Mrs. Jessie Masterton.

W. B. A. RALLY IS PRAISED BY DR. REYNOLDS
Fancy Drill
A surprise feature of the evening was the fancy drill by La Grande which was given early in the evening. With the lights turned out a little procession of women dressed in Chinese pajamas and carrying lighted lanterns held in front of them came into the room.

W. B. A. RALLY IS PRAISED BY DR. REYNOLDS
Members of the drill team were: Edith McAnulty, May Biley, Lillian Leubetter, Helen Dial, Jessie Danforth, Mildred Stabler, Marie W. G. Eva Koyie, Daisy Buchanan, Abbie Thomas, Mae Nedrow, Pearl Eberline, Zella Lyons, Arley Cooper, Della Harlan, Nora Erickson, Elberta Kennedy, Bessie Webb.

W. B. A. RALLY IS PRAISED BY DR. REYNOLDS
Some were dressed in red and some in blue and they all wore caps of different colors.
Miss Myrna Ward, of La Grande, entertained with a group of three readings which proved popular.
Mrs. Nora Rogers, of Pendleton, was the only charter member present from that city. Charter members from La Grande were: Mrs. McAnish, of Imbler; Mrs. John Kinship, Mrs. Mattie Stewart and Mrs. Jessie Masterton.

W. B. A. RALLY IS PRAISED BY DR. REYNOLDS
Fancy Drill
A surprise feature of the evening was the fancy drill by La Grande which was given early in the evening. With the lights turned out a little procession of women dressed in Chinese pajamas and carrying lighted lanterns held in front of them came into the room.

THE OPEN COURT
CORRESPONDENTS MUST SUBMIT THEIR NAMES TO THE EDITOR IF THEY DESIRE LETTERS PRINTED.
La Grande Apr. 14, 1929.
To the Editor:
Having noticed the mystery advertisements of the Spanish War Veterans, advertising their flag fund dance of May first, I desire to call the writer of these advertisements attention to an evident mistake.

W. B. A. RALLY IS PRAISED BY DR. REYNOLDS
(Continued from Page 1)
Packard, Dr. Reynolds and to the presidents of the different reviews including Mrs. Ostland, of La Grande. The three national and state officers were in the evening also presented with corsages.

THE OPEN COURT
In Friday Observer, the advertisement asks, "What happened April 13th, 1898?" The answer in Saturday's edition states, "War declared upon Spain."
Now, although I was not on this good old earth at that date, my history, as I remember it tells me that war was declared between the United States and Spain on April 22nd 1898.

W. B. A. RALLY IS PRAISED BY DR. REYNOLDS
Another presentation made later in the evening was a beautiful basket of flowers to Mrs. J. G. Stinger in recognition of her services in helping to plan for the convention and in furnishing the music for the occasion.

THE OPEN COURT
Mrs. Newell Slugs, Mrs. Bert Newell, of Baker, was enthusiastically received when she sang vocal selections during the banquet.

W. B. A. RALLY IS PRAISED BY DR. REYNOLDS
The lodge drills and the initiation were done in the ballroom of the Inn, which was attractively decorated with baskets of pussy-willows, carnations, daffodils and evergreens. The colors of the lodge, orchid for the pioneer's club, blue and gold for the girls' club, cerise for the Juniors, old rose and green for the Westway club and national blue for the guard, were used. At the left were the American flags, the La Grande drill team members were in white uniforms with blue capes. At the right were the lodge colors with the women in white from Baker wearing red roses and those in lavender and white from Pendleton. Each of the drill teams put on their work in well prepared fashion.

W. B. A. RALLY IS PRAISED BY DR. REYNOLDS
A surprise feature of the evening was the fancy drill by La Grande which was given early in the evening. With the lights turned out a little procession of women dressed in Chinese pajamas and carrying lighted lanterns held in front of them came into the room.

W. B. A. RALLY IS PRAISED BY DR. REYNOLDS
Members of the drill team were: Edith McAnulty, May Biley, Lillian Leubetter, Helen Dial, Jessie Danforth, Mildred Stabler, Marie W. G. Eva Koyie, Daisy Buchanan, Abbie Thomas, Mae Nedrow, Pearl Eberline, Zella Lyons, Arley Cooper, Della Harlan, Nora Erickson, Elberta Kennedy, Bessie Webb.

W. B. A. RALLY IS PRAISED BY DR. REYNOLDS
Some were dressed in red and some in blue and they all wore caps of different colors.
Miss Myrna Ward, of La Grande, entertained with a group of three readings which proved popular.
Mrs. Nora Rogers, of Pendleton, was the only charter member present from that city. Charter members from La Grande were: Mrs. McAnish, of Imbler; Mrs. John Kinship, Mrs. Mattie Stewart and Mrs. Jessie Masterton.

W. B. A. RALLY IS PRAISED BY DR. REYNOLDS
Fancy Drill
A surprise feature of the evening was the fancy drill by La Grande which was given early in the evening. With the lights turned out a little procession of women dressed in Chinese pajamas and carrying lighted lanterns held in front of them came into the room.

W. B. A. RALLY IS PRAISED BY DR. REYNOLDS
Members of the drill team were: Edith McAnulty, May Biley, Lillian Leubetter, Helen Dial, Jessie Danforth, Mildred Stabler, Marie W. G. Eva Koyie, Daisy Buchanan, Abbie Thomas, Mae Nedrow, Pearl Eberline, Zella Lyons, Arley Cooper, Della Harlan, Nora Erickson, Elberta Kennedy, Bessie Webb.

W. B. A. RALLY IS PRAISED BY DR. REYNOLDS
Some were dressed in red and some in blue and they all wore caps of different colors.
Miss Myrna Ward, of La Grande, entertained with a group of three readings which proved popular.
Mrs. Nora Rogers, of Pendleton, was the only charter member present from that city. Charter members from La Grande were: Mrs. McAnish, of Imbler; Mrs. John Kinship, Mrs. Mattie Stewart and Mrs. Jessie Masterton.

W. B. A. RALLY IS PRAISED BY DR. REYNOLDS
Fancy Drill
A surprise feature of the evening was the fancy drill by La Grande which was given early in the evening. With the lights turned out a little procession of women dressed in Chinese pajamas and carrying lighted lanterns held in front of them came into the room.

W. B. A. RALLY IS PRAISED BY DR. REYNOLDS
Members of the drill team were: Edith McAnulty, May Biley, Lillian Leubetter, Helen Dial, Jessie Danforth, Mildred Stabler, Marie W. G. Eva Koyie, Daisy Buchanan, Abbie Thomas, Mae Nedrow, Pearl Eberline, Zella Lyons, Arley Cooper, Della Harlan, Nora Erickson, Elberta Kennedy, Bessie Webb.

W. B. A. RALLY IS PRAISED BY DR. REYNOLDS
Some were dressed in red and some in blue and they all wore caps of different colors.
Miss Myrna Ward, of La Grande, entertained with a group of three readings which proved popular.
Mrs. Nora Rogers, of Pendleton, was the only charter member present from that city. Charter members from La Grande were: Mrs. McAnish, of Imbler; Mrs. John Kinship, Mrs. Mattie Stewart and Mrs. Jessie Masterton.

W. B. A. RALLY IS PRAISED BY DR. REYNOLDS
Fancy Drill
A surprise feature of the evening was the fancy drill by La Grande which was given early in the evening. With the lights turned out a little procession of women dressed in Chinese pajamas and carrying lighted lanterns held in front of them came into the room.

THE OPEN COURT
CORRESPONDENTS MUST SUBMIT THEIR NAMES TO THE EDITOR IF THEY DESIRE LETTERS PRINTED.
La Grande Apr. 14, 1929.
To the Editor:
Having noticed the mystery advertisements of the Spanish War Veterans, advertising their flag fund dance of May first, I desire to call the writer of these advertisements attention to an evident mistake.

W. B. A. RALLY IS PRAISED BY DR. REYNOLDS
(Continued from Page 1)
Packard, Dr. Reynolds and to the presidents of the different reviews including Mrs. Ostland, of La Grande. The three national and state officers were in the evening also presented with corsages.

THE OPEN COURT
In Friday Observer, the advertisement asks, "What happened April 13th, 1898?" The answer in Saturday's edition states, "War declared upon Spain."
Now, although I was not on this good old earth at that date, my history, as I remember it tells me that war was declared between the United States and Spain on April 22nd 1898.

W. B. A. RALLY IS PRAISED BY DR. REYNOLDS
Another presentation made later in the evening was a beautiful basket of flowers to Mrs. J. G. Stinger in recognition of her services in helping to plan for the convention and in furnishing the music for the occasion.

THE OPEN COURT
Mrs. Newell Slugs, Mrs. Bert Newell, of Baker, was enthusiastically received when she sang vocal selections during the banquet.

W. B. A. RALLY IS PRAISED BY DR. REYNOLDS
The lodge drills and the initiation were done in the ballroom of the Inn, which was attractively decorated with baskets of pussy-willows, carnations, daffodils and evergreens. The colors of the lodge, orchid for the pioneer's club, blue and gold for the girls' club, cerise for the Juniors, old rose and green for the Westway club and national blue for the guard, were used. At the left were the American flags, the La Grande drill team members were in white uniforms with blue capes. At the right were the lodge colors with the women in white from Baker wearing red roses and those in lavender and white from Pendleton. Each of the drill teams put on their work in well prepared fashion.

W. B. A. RALLY IS PRAISED BY DR. REYNOLDS
A surprise feature of the evening was the fancy drill by La Grande which was given early in the evening. With the lights turned out a little procession of women dressed in Chinese pajamas and carrying lighted lanterns held in front of them came into the room.

W. B. A. RALLY IS PRAISED BY DR. REYNOLDS
Members of the drill team were: Edith McAnulty, May Biley, Lillian Leubetter, Helen Dial, Jessie Danforth, Mildred Stabler, Marie W. G. Eva Koyie, Daisy Buchanan, Abbie Thomas, Mae Nedrow, Pearl Eberline, Zella Lyons, Arley Cooper, Della Harlan, Nora Erickson, Elberta Kennedy, Bessie Webb.

W. B. A. RALLY IS PRAISED BY DR. REYNOLDS
Some were dressed in red and some in blue and they all wore caps of different colors.
Miss Myrna Ward, of La Grande, entertained with a group of three readings which proved popular.
Mrs. Nora Rogers, of Pendleton, was the only charter member present from that city. Charter members from La Grande were: Mrs. McAnish, of Imbler; Mrs. John Kinship, Mrs. Mattie Stewart and Mrs. Jessie Masterton.

W. B. A. RALLY IS PRAISED BY DR. REYNOLDS
Fancy Drill
A surprise feature of the evening was the fancy drill by La Grande which was given early in the evening. With the lights turned out a little procession of women dressed in Chinese pajamas and carrying lighted lanterns held in front of them came into the room.

W. B. A. RALLY IS PRAISED BY DR. REYNOLDS
Members of the drill team were: Edith McAnulty, May Biley, Lillian Leubetter, Helen Dial, Jessie Danforth, Mildred Stabler, Marie W. G. Eva Koyie, Daisy Buchanan, Abbie Thomas, Mae Nedrow, Pearl Eberline, Zella Lyons, Arley Cooper, Della Harlan, Nora Erickson, Elberta Kennedy, Bessie Webb.

W. B. A. RALLY IS PRAISED BY DR. REYNOLDS
Some were dressed in red and some in blue and they all wore caps of different colors.
Miss Myrna Ward, of La Grande, entertained with a group of three readings which proved popular.
Mrs. Nora Rogers, of Pendleton, was the only charter member present from that city. Charter members from La Grande were: Mrs. McAnish, of Imbler; Mrs. John Kinship, Mrs. Mattie Stewart and Mrs. Jessie Masterton.

W. B. A. RALLY IS PRAISED BY DR. REYNOLDS
Fancy Drill
A surprise feature of the evening was the fancy drill by La Grande which was given early in the evening. With the lights turned out a little procession of women dressed in Chinese pajamas and carrying lighted lanterns held in front of them came into the room.

W. B. A. RALLY IS PRAISED BY DR. REYNOLDS
Members of the