Union High Will Enter Students In Typing Meet

By Mrs. Bert Knight
(Observer Correspondent)

UNION, Ore. (Special)—A typing team of two beginning students, writing in the novice division, and two advanced students, writing in the amateur division, will represent Union High school at the Eastern Oregon Typing contest in Pendleton Saturday. Amaryllis Knight and Edith Cheney, both sophomores, will enter the novice division. Ruth Connor and Louena Hutchinson, seniors, will compete in the amateur division. The girls will be accompanied by Miss Bess Kuster, commercial teacher.

The team was chosen by means of award tests published by the Underwood typewriter company. The two students in each division who wrote with the greatest speed and the fewest errors were chosen. During the past two months awards have been presented to ten students.

Certificates of proficiency, presented to students writing from 30 to 40 words per minute for 15 minutes with five errors or less have been won by Dorothy Posey, Barton Conner, Amaryllis Knight, Frances Waller, Edith Cheney, Edna Edvalson and Dora Crouter during the month of February.

Bronze awards, indicative of a net speed attainment of from 40 to 50 words with the same restrictions as those given above, were presented to Carl Stratton, Edith Cheney and Amaryllis Knight, having been won during the month of March.

A request for bronze awards for Barton Conner, Gladys Wortman and Frances Waller has just been filed. This test was given during the current week. All the awards have been presented by Miss Kuster during the regular assembly period held each week. This is the first year for some time that the winning of awards has been stressed and both interest and competition are keen.

Mr. and Mrs. Merrill Couper and his mother, Mrs. Ida Couper, of Weiser, Idaho, spent Saturday here visiting relatives and friends. They left Sunday morning for Portland on a combined business and pleasure trip. Mrs. Ida Couper is a sister of A. R. Davis, of Union.

Miss Doris McMillan, of La Grande, spent last week in Union visiting at the home of her aunt, Mrs. Ed Cline.

G. I. Hess, proprietor of the Oregon Trail garage, has installed a new gas tank and pump in front of his place of business.

Mrs. W. R. Phillips spent Monday at North Powder visiting at the home of her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Alta Phillips.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Conner were La Grande visitors Wednesday evening.

Mrs. Elmer Myers and daughter, Ariadean, were shopping in La Grande Wednesday afternoon.

Miss Bess Kuster was a La Grande visitor Wednesday afternoon.

A number of Union people attended "The Jazz Singer" at the Arcade theater in La Grande Sunday evening and highly praise the talking movies.

Mr. and Mrs. F. G. Hoffman and son, Roger, of Caldwell, Idaho, and Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Murphy, of Pendleton, were house guests Saturday and Sunday of Dr. and Mrs. George S. Hoffman. They left Sunday evening for their homes. Mr. and Mrs. Hoffman are parents of Dr. Hoffman and Mr. and Mrs. Murphy are parents of Mrs. Hoffman.

Mrs. Nella Hutchinson and daughter, Wilma, left Saturday evening for Corvallis after a three weeks visit here with their husband and father, William Hutchinson. Mrs. Hutchinson and four children have been living at Corvallis this winter where the children have been attending school. As soon as school is out they will return to their home here for the summer vacation.

Miss Edith Moser returned Saturday afternoon to her home in La Grande after visiting since Wednesday at the home of Miss Amaryllis Knight. Miss Moser is a senior of the La Grande High school.

Monday was an unlucky day for Frank Dean, of South Union. He had sold a team of horses to Dr. Ragle, veterinary, of Baker, for $250.00 and had delivered them that day and received the money. Upon arriving home he discovered he had lost his money. No trace of it has been found.

Mrs. W. R. Phillips was hostess Friday afternoon to the meembers of the Lucky Thirteen and a number of guests at her home in South Union. Luncheon was served at 1 o'clock at five small tables prettily decorated with bouquets of pink carnations and snapdragons. Bridge was the diversion following luncheon. Mrs. Walter Cock won high score among tht guests and received first prize and Mrs. J. F. Hutchinson received the club prize. Mrs. George Seibird secured the consolation.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Fox entertained the T. B. club Wednesday night at four tables of bridge. High score among the women players was won by Mrs. George Winship and the men's prize went to J. F. Hutchinson. Dr. George Hoffman received the consolation prize.

The Ladies Aid society of the Methodist church met Wednesday afternoon at the church with Mrs. S. E. Miller and Mrs. W. O. Miller as hostesses. A social hour followed the regular business session. Before adjournment the hostesses served refreshments.

Members of the Carnation club had an enjoyable meeting Tuesday when a no-hostess luncheon was held at the Union hotel at 12:30 o'clock. After luncheon all motored to La Grande and attended the afternoon show at the Arcade theater.

There was an unusually large attendance of members and guests of the Altar society of the Catholic church Wednesday afternoon when Mrs. Mary McGrath, assisted by her daughter, Mrs. Mae Carroll, were hostesses at the home of Mrs. McGrath in North Union. After the business session the remainder of the afternoon was spent socially, during which time the hostesses served refreshments. There were a number of guests from La Grande and Cove present.

A western comedy, "A Worthy Vagabond" will be presented by the junior class of the Union High school this evening (April 19) at 8 o'clock at the gymnasium. The cast follows:

Fred Miller, brother of Judith ..... "Bill" Dobbin
Bart Thurman, foreman of the Bar-Heart-Bar ranch ..... Carl Stratton
Sandy Lant, who takes Bart's place ..... Marvin Titus
Dan Allen, half owner of the ranch ..... George Gilkison
Horatio Algernan Hazard Jr., a professor of biology ..... Robert Myers
Judith Miller, owner of the Bar-Heart-Bar ranch ..... Gladys Anderson
Queenie Winton, a friend of Judith's ..... Inez Wilson
Sadie Snapp, a neighbor ..... Edna Amell
Rachel, a colored mammy ..... Helen Hall

Bart Thurman, foreman of the Bar-Heart-Bar ranch, schemes to beat Judith Miller out of her one-half interest. Dan Allen, the owner of the other half, appears just in time to frustrate the scoundrel's plans.

The regular meeting of the Woman's club was held Thursday afternoon at the club house. In the absence of the president, Mrs. S. E. Miller, the vice president, Mrs. Frank Connor, presided at the business session. Mrs. G. F. Hall, Mrs. Mabel Gale and Mrs. Cedric Gale had charge of the afternoon's program. The subject was "Joaquin Miller." Mrs. Mabel Gale gave a sketch of the writer's life and Mrs. Cedric Gale read one of his best poems, "An Ode to Columbus." Mrs. Merton Davis sang "Longing," accompanied at the piano by Mrs. L. C. Knight. Little Helen Davis gave two readings, "The Janitor's Child" and "The Watermillion." Master Ehrman Davis sang two numbers. Before adjournment the hostesses, Mrs. George Baird, Mrs. Tony Smith, Mrs. R. H. Bonney and Mrs. D. C. Boyles served refreshments.

A letter sent an American soldier in France 10 years ago has returned to its sender. The government gave up.
