Local News In Brief

And Still They Work—

Adding their mites to the job of keeping the student activities on the University of Oregon campus going, increasingly good reports continue to come here from the campus. Five La Grande freshmen were on the staff of the annual frosh edition of the Daily Emerald, university publication, Saturday. They were Robert Guild, Lenore Ely, Raymond Griffin, Lois Nelson, all journalism majors, who reported for the issue, and Dorothy Anne Warnick, freshman in foreign trade, who as regular assistant foreign advertising manager for the Emerald, conducted her regular work for the issue. The initial spring term meeting of the freshmen commission organization of all frosh women and sponsored by the Y. W. C. A., enjoyed a program arranged by Lenore Ely, who as chairman of the program committee regularly supervises that department of the commission work. Gracia Haggerty, of Union, junior on the campus, chairman of social events o fthe Y. W., has an active partthis week in making preparations for the tea to be given Thursday afternoon at the "Y" bungalow complimenting visiting speakers here for the International week program.

'HAND' OF HOOVER SEEN AT GENEVA

Hugh S. Gibson's Address at Disarmament Conference Given Today

GENEVA, April 22 (AP)—Hugh S. Gibson, American delegate to the preparatory disarmament conference in session here, announced today the United States was disposed to accept France's proposal of limitation of naval tonnage by categories. The offer, he said, was made in the hope of facilitating a general agreement on naval reduction.

Mr. Gibson presenting an eagerly awaited American thesis before the preparatory disarmament commission today, appealed for a fresh examination of the entire problem based on the idea that all nations are going to be friends and settle their difficulties by peaceful means.

Hoover's Hand Seen

Through Mr. Gibson's address, President Hoover is generally deemed in Geneva to have launched an important move to place the relations between the United States and Great Britain on a firm foundation of collaboration and friendliness.

Mr. Gibson's speech was made in an atmosphere of intense expectation and interest. He had every ear as he began, departing from his set speech to refer to the "hopeful" statement of Lord Cushendun, British delegate, last week.

"I desire to lay emphasis on the fact," he said, "that for us the essential thing is achievement of substantial results. Methods are of secondary importance."

Mr. Gibson asked the conference to bear in mind recent world changes, and he pointed out that most of the nations had bound themselves by solemn undertaking to renounce war as an instrument of national policy.

STORMS TAKE 26 LIVES IN WEST, SOUTH

southwest struck Dahomey, Miss. A twister also descended upon Wham, La., but no loss of life was reported there.

Colorado and Wyoming were piled with snow in some sections while Oklahoma, Kansas and Missouri were having flood and tornado forries.

Three Indians were killed in Oklahoma tornadoes. A man was killed in a storm at Reece, Kas. A baby was crushed to death in a Texas storm, and a boy drowned at Wyandotte, Okla. Reece and Bolivar, Mo., were particularly hard hit by themidwest storms.

There was renewed alarm along the Mississippi river near Quincy, Ill., and Canton, Mo., with government observers predicting the highest stage in 75 years. There was no known loss of life when the levee crumbled at Canton, but 200 were homeless and many other families were moved from their homes as a precaution against other levee breaks. A break in the levee of the Fabius river, emptying into the Mississippi, preceded the Canton break, flooding 4,000 acres of farm land.

CANTON, Mo., Apr. 22—(AP)—The Mississippi was on a tear again today, throwing its strength, intensified by waters from swollen tributaries, against the levees here and on the Illinois side of the river. The Canton levee crumbled yesterday, flooding more than 200 homes.

The Canton break followed a similar one in the Fabius river levee which flooded 4,000 acres of farm land. The Fabius is a Mississippi tributary, and the break occurred near the point where it empties into the larger stream. A portion of the Mississippi levee was dynamited last night so that the Fabius overflow could escape. It was expected that this would equalize the pressure and save other levees in the flooded district.

JAPAN HAS FATAL STORM

TOKYO, April 22 (AP)—Japan counted the cost today of windstorms which swept the islands last night, killing more than a score injuring others, and leaving many missing.

The naval office announced that four members of the crew of the cruiser Akagi were missing as a result of the storm.

CHANG LOSES NIGHT BATTLE NEAR CHEFOO

CHEFOO, Shantung, China, April 22 (AP)—General Liu Chen-Nien inflicted a serious defeat during the night at Ningchaichow on forces of Marshal Chang Tsung Chang who retreated in great disorder through Chefoo.

It was reported that Chang was fleeing to Dairen, Japanese territory, leaving 25,000 leaderless bandit-soldiers in North Shantung. Residents and merchants here were apprehensive.

As the retreating troops of Chang rushed pell mell and in the greatest disorder through Chefoo, representatives of the former war lord demanded $2,000,000 Mexican of the Chefoo merchants.

Many of Chang's soldiers were discarding their uniforms to escape the vengeance of the nationalists, who were believed to be just behind them.

NO FAULT OF FRANCE

BAR-LE-DUC, France, Apr. 22—(AP)—Premier Poincare, addressing the general council of the Meuse department, declared today that should the reparations conference fail it would be through no fault of France which was perfectly willing to revert to the original Dawes plan, having reached the limit of its concessions.

Scouts Return From Meeting At Pendleton

Fifty-four Eastern Oregon Boy scouts and leaders have returned to their homes following attendance in Pendleton at the Eastern Oregon, Blue Mountain and Mid-Columbia Deschutes and Lewis and Clark councils patrol leaders' conference held there this weekend. The next conference will be held in La Grande Oct. 24, 25 and 26.

At the opening banquet Clair Perkins gave the responsive speech to the address of welcome.

Dr. W. H. Phy, president of the council, spoke on "Leadership" and E. Russell Scott, scout executive, spoke on "The Eleventh Scout Law," which is "A scout is clean."

Edwin Kirby, Clair Perkins, Woodrow Damerell and Robert Ramsey were patrol leaders.

Clair Thomas was the scribe, or secretary, of the conference. There were 120 scouts at the meeting.

Two Men Killed In Pistol Duel; Woman Is Hurt

ATLANTA, Ga., Apr. 22—(AP)—Police today searched futilely for the motive of the shooting in a dimly lighted hallway here last night that resulted in the death of two men and probable fatal wounding of a woman.

Police, however, said they were convinced that Leslie Lohden, 24-year-old escaped convict from Alabama, and S. C. "Smitty" Hayes, participants in a duel fatal to both, "shot it out" because of an old feud connected either with liquor or narcotic traffic.

Mrs. Hayes today was in a critical condition at a hospital from a bullet wound through the abdomen, inflicted, she said, by Lohden when she went into the hallway to investigate sounds of a struggle.

Mrs. Hayes told police that she answered her door bell last night to be confronted by Lohden who asked to see her husband.

Her huband went to the door and scarcely had he reached it before sounds of a struggle and the report of a pistol shot came from the hallway, the wounded woman told officers.

As she entered the hallway, she said her husband's assailant fired at her, the bullet penetrating her abdomen. As she crawled back into the living room a fusillade of shots rang out.

Police found Lohden dead in the hall, a pistol with five empty cartridges in the cylinder in his hand, and in the living room found Hayes, his pistol still in his hand. Four empty cartridges were in the weapon.

Hail Stones Are Nine Inches Around

LOUISVILLE, Ky., Apr. 22 (AP)—A 12-minute barrage of heavy hail stones, some of them measuring nine inches in circumference did damage estimated at $500,000 here and at New Albany and Salem, Ind., just across the Ohio river yesterday afternoon. Two were killed in automobile accidents during the storm.

Miss Elizabeth Ramsler, 24, of New Albany, was killed when her automobile crashed head on into another machine near Salem. Raymond Landrum, a negro, drove an automobile into a Louisville street car and was instantly killed.

French Quarantine Is Again Placed

PARIS, Apr. 22 (AP)—The French quarantine on travellers coming from England, because of smallpox in that country was declared again and this time made effective at once. There are 10,000 or more American tourists in England who are said to have intended visiting France.

Under the quarantine, persons entering France from England by way of the channel ports either must present a certificate showing that they have been vaccinated within eight days, must submit to a medical examination, or must carry a sanitary passport to be presented to medical authorities on each French city they visit.

SALEM BOWLERS WIN

VANCOUVER, B. C., Apr. 22—(AP)—O'Leary's Legionaires, of Salem, Ore., won first place in the senior A team class in the Northwestern International Bowling association championships here yesterday with 2782 points, beating out the Richfield team of Portland with 2704 points.

PRIATES WIN FROM BAKER SUNDAY, 11-3

headed home and beat the throw to the plate, Sylvester stopping on first. Then McKennon had the hard luck to hit into the third double play of the day.

Sylvester Shines

Baker got another run in the sixth. Brown singled and stole second while Trimball and McCord were striking out. Turner singled; advancing Brown to third and then stole second. Murchison pegging to McKennon, the play permitting Brown to race home. Earwood, next up, was retired on a sensational catch by Sylvester, who raced back, taking the ball on a dead run and turning a somersault—but hanging onto the pill. "Bus" got a big hand.

Then came the fatal sixth inning and Baker's hopes of a victory went out like a sunset in the tropics.

Good Brand of Ball

Both teams played good ball considering the earliness of the season and the lack of practice. Baker's infield, although erratic, turned in four double plays and had another one started but Brown overthrew first. La Grande's infield, although not turning in so many snappy plays, played a steadier and more consistent brand of ball. The outfielders had very few chances. Moore, in leftfield, made one of the sparkling plays of the day, cutting of a seemingly sure two-base hit into a mere single with a pick-up on the run and an accurate peg to second, that sent the runner scurying back to safety.

At the bat Stokke led the field with three smashes, two of which were for extra bases. Knight had a good day at bat, driving out a single, a sacrifice and hitting the ball hard the other two times up. Murchison roped out two two-base hits and Alexander, of Baker, got a three-bagger and a two-base clout. Brown, of Baker, made up for three errors by two smashing singles, figuring in every run the Elephants counted.

Drop Ball From Plane

Previous to the game Bus O'Connell glided over the field and dropped a new baseball into center field. Dr. W. T. Phy then pitched three balls to E. R. Ringo, who caught the last one. Renwick announced the batteries and the game was on. The day was a little chilly for baseball, with overhanging clouds, but hardly a drop of rain fell.

In spite of the weather, nearly 700 fans were in attendance and the club management today expressed its appreciation of the excellent support.

The La Grande band, after a short concert down town, played music during the game.

Next Sunday La Grande goes to Baker.

Candidates In L. H. S. Deliver Campaign Talks

Platform speeches, all the same principle as those made by United States candidates, were given this morning at the 9 o'clock assembly of La Grande High school, when Robert Stoddard, Stanley Zundel and Clair Perkins, student body presidential nominees, and the other nominees for the other positions got up and told the students why they would like to be officers in the associated students and how.

The auditorium of the building assumed a political atmosphere for the short period this morning while brief orations were also made by Harold Hoyt, Virgil Conley, Edwin Briggs, desirous of being vice president; Margaret Cunliffe, Margaret Anthony and Jane Ravenscroft, seekers after the secretary-treasurership and Russell Nelson, Frank Anderson and Ellis Watkins, aspirants for the yell king job.

Tonight the teachers of the school will gather in one of the classrooms at 3:15 o'clock to listen to Colon R. Eberhard, state senator, talk to them about the school legislation legislated at the recent session of he Oregon legislature.

Report cards for the second six weeks of the semester will be distributed tomorrow to the students.

HOOVER ASKS OBSERVANCE OF ALL LAWS

immediate problems before the government — to investigate the existing agencies of enforcement and to reorganize the system of enforcement in such manner as to eliminate its weaknesses.

"It is the purpose of the administration," he added, "to strengthen its law enforcement agencies week by week, month by month, year by year, not by dramatic displays and violent attacks in order to make headlines, not by violating the law itself through misuses of the law in its enforcement, but by steady pressure, steady weeding out of all incapable and negligent officials no matter what their status; by encouragement, production and recognition for those who do their duty; and by the most rigid scrutiny of the records and attitudes of all persons suggested for appointment to official posts in our law enforcement machinery.

Needs Reorganization

"Every student of our law enforcement mechanism knows full well that it is in need of vigorous reorganization; that its procedure unduly favored the criminal; that our judiciary needs to be strengthened; that the method of assembling our juries needs revision; that justice must be more swift and sure."

Addressing himself directly to the publishers and editors whom he faced, the president said the press could play a dominant part in resolving the basis question of the understanding, the ideals, the relationship of the individual citizen to the law itself.

"It (the press) is almost final in its potency to arouse the interest and conscience of our people," he declared. "It can destroy their finer sensibilities or it can invigorate them. I am well aware that the great majority of our important journals day by day give support to these high ideals.

"I wonder sometimes, however, if perhaps a little more support to our laws could not be given in one direction. If, instead of the glamor of romance and heroism, which our American imaginative minds too frequently thrown around those who break the law, we would invest with a little romance and heroism those thousands of our officers who are endeavoring to enforce the law it would itself decrease crime.

Perhaps a little better proportioned balance of news concerning those criminals who are convicted and punished would serve to instill the fear of the law.

"Finally, I wish to again reiterate that the problem of law enforcement is not alone the function or business of government. If law can be upheld only by enforcement officers, then our scheme of government is at an end."
