CHICAGO CUBS SHOW STRENGTH

Blank St. Louis Cards for Fourth Win—Malone Hard to Hit

By Herbert W. Barker
(Associated Press Sports Writer)

Not that anyone has denied it, but the time seems to have come for the experts to grant that Joe Mott's Chicago Cubs have something more than uniforms to prove they're baseball players and possible National league pennant winners.

Facing the St. Louis Cardinals at Chicago yesterday, the Cubs played bang-up ball behind Mal Malone's great pitching, and won 7 to 0, for their fourth victory in five starts. Holding the slugging Cardinals to five hits for his second victory of the season, Malone stretched the cub pitchers' scoreless inning streak to 26.

"Old Pete" Alexander puzzled the cubs until the fourth when Hornsby connected for a home run with the bases empty. After that they pecked away at the veteran with enough effectiveness to score single runs in the fifth and sixth innings.

After holding the Cincinnati Reds scoreless for six innings, Carmen Hill, best-pitched star of the Pittsburgh Pirates, blew up with a foul report in the seventh, and the Reds scored six runs before Roy Kremer could halt the carnage.

The Reds added three more in the eighth to bring the final score to 9-4. Fifteen hits railed off last bats while Red Lucas was holding the Pirates to six. George Grantham didn't get any of them but he scored three times because Lucas insisted on giving him four consecutive passes.

In the American league, George Uhl pitched Detroit to a 1 to 0 shutout over the St. Louis Browns at St. Louis but he had some help from his mound rival, Jack Ogden. Jack's mark in the first inning, coupled with two singles, allowed the Tigers to score the only run of the game. Dale Alexander, stellar first baseman of the Tigers, was credited with driving in the tally, the 14th he has accounted for this season. That total, incidentally, leads both leagues.

Seals Wind Up Week With Win Over Oaks, 12-3

By The Associated Press

The Seals, who had been engaged all last week in a nip and tuck battle with the Oaks, defeated their rivals from across the bay yesterday 12 to 3, and won the series four games out of seven. The game yesterday was the only one scheduled for the day in the coast league, having been postponed because of weather troubles.

With two men walked by Boehler of the Oaks in the first inning, and ten more walked by Kasich of the Oaks in the rest of the game, it was a rather long drawn-out affair. Hollis Thurston pitched for the Seals, and he chalked up his fifth success of the season. He has started six games and won five of them. The Oaks pounded in three runs in the first inning, but Hollis blanked them for the remainder of the game.

Reds and Angels Tangle
Los Angeles and the Missions were scheduled to tangle on the local lot today in the first of this week's series. Sacramento was lined up at Oakland, San Francisco against Hollywood at Los Angeles, and Seattle at Portland.

The league leading Mission Reds have thus far in the season given many indications of walking off with the 1929 pennant. They were to engage this week against the second place Angels, and the tussle was expected to give the fans plenty of thrills. The Missions, however, with a big lead and much determined effort, should make a good showing.

CAMEL

CIGARETTES

WHY CAMELS ARE THE BETTER CIGARETTE

Camels are made of the choicest tobaccos grown—cured and blended with expert care.

Camels are mild and mellow.

The taste of Camels is smooth and satisfying.

Camels are cool and refreshing.

The fragrance of Camels is always pleasant, indoors or out.

They do not tire the taste nor leave any cigaretty after-taste.
