LITTLE SPEAKS AGAINST HARDY

Arguments Heard in Impeachment Case—Aimee on Stand Last Night

SACRAMENTO, Cal., April 25 (AP)—Superior Judge Carlos S. Hardy, of Los Angeles, should forfeit his office because of his activities on behalf of Aimee Semple McPherson, evangelist, Assemblyman Walter J. Little told the senate today when he opened the prosecution's final arguments in the Hardy impeachment case.

Drop Airplane Ride Tickets During Stunts

As the Waco bi-plane piloted by Lieut. Leo Allen, of Walla Walla, went through a series of breath taking stunts including a tail spin for 1500 feet straight down, two wingovers, four beautiful loops and several vertical banks, a shower of colored tickets for free airplane rides by the courtesy of the Blue Mountain Air service in La Grande drifted down to the field below, east from the plane by one of the two passengers, a feminine one, by the way.

Almece Testifies

Mrs. McPherson whose name had figured prominently throughout the trial was the last person to occupy the witness stand. For 15 minutes last night she sat before the senators and a packed gallery to answer questions of the managers. Walter Little, chairman of the board, undertook the task of interrogating the evangelist. Her responses apparently did not satisfy him for at one point, when she gave one of her "I can't recall" replies, he read the transcript from which he was reading and tossed it with an air of disgust into the lap of Manager Harry Sewell.

Little placed emphasis on testimony Mrs. McPherson had given the assembly investigating committee in Los Angeles last February relative to what, if anything, Judge Hardy said about visiting Wallace Moore, Santa Barbara newspaperman, before traveling north from Los Angeles on a vacation trip.

Moore partially identified a woman seen in an automobile with Kenneth Ormiston in Santa Barbara in 1926 as Mrs. McPherson and one article of impeachment charges the jurist with attempting to intimidate the newspaperman so that he changed his mind later about the woman's identity.

NEW PROBLEM IN LANDING FIELD QUESTION HERE

As the furnishing of rock or gravel for runways, grading, sodding, draining, etc., would be borne by the city. The department would require that the right be reserved to the aeronautical public to land and to make emergency or occasional landings without charge for the privilege, but the city would have the right to establish a scale of charges which would apply to those wishing to use the field regularly for commercial or other purposes, provided that no preferential or exclusive privileges for the use of the field be granted. The city would have the right to build hangars and rent space . . . and would be free to make arrangements with a private organization for the management of the flying operation of the field.

Following the reading of this letter and some discussion, Proclamation A. T. Hill referred the charter matter to Mr. Cochran. Other investigations have been conducted by City Manager W. C. Crews.

The city manager reported conferring with the manager of the Columbia Geographical Transportation company. He said that the stage company is eager to secure a permanent depot here and that the manager would be back in a week to attempt to secure a location.

Appointments Accepted

Acceptances of appointments to the city planning commission were read from Mrs. Charleston, Julius Rosech, Charles R. Miller, J. K. Fitzgerald and George H. Currey and Charles Edwards declined the appointment. Mr. Hill set next Wednesday night at 8 o'clock as the time for the planning commission to meet and elect officers.

Question of vacating a street and alley at the Garrett Taal property near the Second street viaduct where a swimming tank is being built, was again taken up and the matter was referred to the city attorney.

Delegation of men from the Alder, Umatta street district asked for grading or some type of improvement on their road and the city manager promised to inspect the outlet and do whatever he could. The matter of getting water to this district was also taken up and referred to the city manager.

P. J. Lilly was given a contract to build a retaining wall on 49th street.

Water Main Near Completion

Mr. Crews reported the water main to the normal school grounds almost completed.

A soft drink license was granted to G. B. Pickett at 1206 1/2 Adams avenue.

In the city manager's report, the section from the health department showed 42 inspections during the week with four condemnations. Receipts at the treasurer's office during the week were $72.88 and disbursements totaled $2,871.92.

Senator Jones says drinking congressman who vote dry are only trying to keep other people from becoming drinkers like themselves. There is some nobility even among the unscrupulous.

Local Schools' Art Exhibit To Be Held May 3

Badges gave the men no authority to make investigations or arrests. The shooting was believed to have taken place in Kern county, just over the line.

Ormsby and Chenoweth said that Chulla opened fire on them after they had passed him on the ranch and had an argument. A gun battle followed, according to their story, in which Chulla was shot down and his Indian companion escaped by running across the desert. Ormsby and Chenoweth brought Chulla here and surrendered.

STORM WARNINGS POSTED WASHINGTON, Apr. 25.—(AP)—The weather bureau today issued the following storm warning: "A heavy southwest gale warning ordered 9:30 a. m. Cape Hatteras to Eastport, Maine; storm over Central Illinois will cause strong southwest winds and gales with rain next 24 hours."

ings in the vicinity of Papillion and Ashland, between Omaha and Lincoln. Charles H. Sprague, a farmer, suffered slight injuries when his automobile was hurled into a ditch near Papillion.

A terrific hail storm preceded the tornado in the vicinity of David City. Hail stones ruined the tops of scores of automobiles, broke windows and damaged the wheat crop.

STORMS KILL SEVEN

PALESTINE, Tex., Apr. 25.—(AP)—Two tornadoes lashed three East Texas hamlets yesterday killing seven persons, injuring at least twenty one and causing property damage estimated at $250,000.

The most severe of the windstorms roared down a path three miles wide, twisted the little town of Slocum, 15 miles east of here, into a mass of ruins and took the seven lives, then dipped again four miles to the east and wiped out Benson Springs without injury to any of its inhabitants. Another twister of lesser intensity hit the farm community near Center, Tex., close to the Louisiana border, leaving 75 homeless and one casualty, a woman injured.

The injured, several of whom are expected to die, were being cared for in hospitals here. The Red Cross and relief committees from nearby towns furnished shelter and food for the homeless.

School Children Killed

Two of those killed at Slocum, a typical Texas farming community of not more than 200 population, were school children. Approximately 150 children were on the school playgrounds during the noon recess, when suddenly the tornado appeared. The children rushed to the school house but the storm destroyed it just as they entered. Several other children were injured.

In addition to the school house two churches, seven store buildings and nine dwellings were razed by the tornado at Slocum.

Women Golfers Arranging For Coming Season

The golfing season for the women of La Grande was definitely launched last night when 30 women players met in the chamber of commerce office with the chairman of the men's tournament committee, Fred Lanzer, Jack Renner, pro, and Charles Reynolds, to make plans for the coming season which bids fair to be a record one. Rules of the game and its etiquette were explained.

"The golf course is in top condition and the women are becoming more actively interested than last year. More women are planning to play this season," one of the players announced.

The women's tournament committee was elected last night and includes Mrs. L. L. Kinzel, chairman, Mrs. Ray Murphy and Eliza-beth Donnelly. The committee will meet soon to make summer plans.

The flag tournament to be held next Sunday was discussed. Play can begin anytime during the day and nine holes will be played. The entrance fee will be twenty-five cents. Prizes will be awarded to the winners.
