IMBLER WINS 2 PERFECT GAMES

No-Hit, No-Run Contests Turned in by I. H. S. Team This Spring

For many years Imbler high school has been turning out championship baseball teams, and many of the players have "gone up" to college and semi-pro nine. At present two or three of the former Imbler lads played with Oregon State college and one, Russell McKenna, is holding down second base at present on the Pirate nine.

This year's team, however, has done something that doesn't happen once in a blue moon—maybe, wice. During the present season the Imbler lads have twice turned in no-hit, no-run games, with two pitchers taking part—Marion Pugh and Lyle Ledbetter.

The feat was so outstanding as to impress L. H. Gregory, sports editor of the Oregonian, sufficiently to warrant his giving about a third of a column in today's edition, telling the world about Imbler. The article that appeared under Mr. Gregory's signature follows: "Much has been said about the decline in amateur baseball interest these days, but there has been no decline in the smaller communities. Baseball is still the big and outstanding game there—as it would be in the cities, too, if they gave the kids a quarter of the baseball playing facilities they provide for golf. Too many of the larger towns have gone 'golf crazy' and neglect to provide or to keep up enough playing fields for baseball. Portland is one city decidedly in that category."

recites in matter-of-fact fashion that the Imbler high school team, playing Joseph high the other day, won its second no-run, no-hit game of the present season. The score was 15 to 0. The pitcher was Marion Pugh, who also pitched the other no-run no-hit victory. The game with Joseph, however, was unique in that Pugh shared his no-hit shutout honors with another Imbler chucker named Lyle Ledbetter. When Ledbetter relieved Pugh, or why, the account doesn't tell, but he Joseph batsmen found him as tough as his predecessor, for there it is in the summary, "no hits and no runs for Joseph."

"Think of that, you big-town baseball bugs—two no-run no-hit games already this damp season for one little school, and two pitchers sharing honors in one of them!"

"I wish I could recite Imbler's high school baseball record of the last few years, but the figures escape me and a letter from the school's former principal and coach, written last summer, which I put aside for the rainy days, has been mislaid. "But I do know that this little Union county high school has so remarkable a winning record over a long period that were there an Oregon high school baseball championships, as I wish there were, Imbler surely would be entitled to it. These sturdy youngsters of the wheat country play hard and seriously. More power to them for keeping alive the amateur traditions of America's first, best and truly national game, baseball. Mentally, physically, and as a developer of 'team' play and spirit as against purely individual work, and in every other way, baseball has the undoubtedly fascinating golf backed off the boards as a young fellow's game."

Race Opening Is Again Postponed

AURORA, Ill., May 2 (AP)—Aurora race track remained closed today as striking horse owners and track officials continued in disagreement. It was the second day the opening of the track's spring season had been postponed and the strikers persisted in their demands for a minimum purse of $1,000 and a deduction by the track in favor of their organization. The Thoroughbred Horse association, of one percent from all first moneys from all events.

600 Purchase Licenses But Few Hook Fish

"You have to out-smart 'em to catch 'em," says H. A. Farnam, president of the Isaac Walton League, caustically commenting on water and weather conditions for fishing this spring. "Nobody's had much luck yet, although in La Grande between five and six hundred persons have bought fishing licenses."

"The weather's too cold yet for good fishing," Mr. Farnam says. "The season's delayed due to the long winter season." A popular stream has been the Wallowa river because it is accessible and as a rule out-averages most of the other nearby streams in its stock of fish. The fish in the Wallowa are as a rule bigger than most. Folks are catching steelhead there mostly.

"Fishing should be good in Wallowa lake this year," Mr. Farnam predicts. "The water is much higher than last year." About June the Isaac Walton League will put in some fish in the streams and lakes of Union and Wallowa counties. Many of the fishing licenses already granted have been obtained by women, Mr. Farnam says. All anglers must have licenses from the age of 14 up. Thirty fish or 20 pounds is the bag limit for one day.

JAP MATMEN SCORE WINS AT SEATTLE

SEATTLE, Wash., May 2 (AP)—One grapple was choked to unconsciousness and three others were partially strangled when the Waseda university jiu-jitsu team of Tokyo defeated the University of Washington mat squad in a combination jiu-jitsu wrestling exhibition here last night. The Japanese won the 125 pound and 135 pound matches while the other three were draws. The athletes wrestled jiu-jitsu style first, catch as catch can second, and then tossed a coin to decide the third way when necessary. Cliff Bloom, the Washington 125 pound champion, was choked into unconsciousness in the first fracas when his oriental opponent, K. Takahata, gained a throat hold with his judo jacket. After being revived Bloom continued, in the American style, but lost at his own game.

Ducks Dive To Lower Place In League Column

By The Associated Press. Functioning on all eight, and weather, the Coast League clubs engaged in some fast and furious baseball yesterday, with the Missions forging ahead another notch, and the race for second, third and fourth places drawing ever narrower.

The league leading Reds put an other victory in the bag when Merton Nelson held the Portland Ducks to eight hits and blanked the Athletics, 5 to 0. "Pussy" Hill, Mission left fielder, was the leading offender at the plate with a homer, double and single in four trips. The winners put over four runs in the sixth.

Oaks Even Count. The Oakland Oaks did a lot of timely hitting to defeat the Seals, 3 to 5, and evened up the week's work. Walter Malis, left-hander, was driven from the mound when he walk and four hits brought in four runs. Turpin and Jones, who followed, also were hard hit. Craighead allowed the Seals 10 hits but his teammates turned in better support.

Sacramento Walked Off with the First Game of the series with two singles in a wild affair that lasted two hours and 20 minutes. Oaks, coming a big lead, the Senators scored six times in the sixth inning to tie up the game. They came back with two in the seventh to tie things up again and win. Pitt started for the Angels, but failed to hold on to a big lead. Miller, Molling and Peters following him in succession. Reating hurried for the Senators.

Seattle's Indians made it two straight over Hollywood's Stars with a 15 to 10 decision in a wild slug-fest. Both sides hammered out the same number of hits—16—but the Indians made their batting count for more. Among the 22 safeties were home runs by Dudley Lee, Hollywood shortstop, and Fred Kettle, Oscar Kerkhadt and Wally Hood of the Indians.

The Stars drew ahead for a five-run lead in the first inning, but it was held only briefly. McCabe, Marticorena and Stanley, in the order named, relieved the veteran Hank Hulvey and fared little better.

Yesterday's Coast League results follow: At San Francisco—R. H. E. Portland 6 8 1 Mission 5 11 0 Batteries: Mahaffey, Chestertield and Bates; Nelson and Hoffman.

At Los Angeles—R. H. E. Seattle 15 16 3 Hollywood 10 16 1 Batteries: Gutzwiller, Lammanski and Cox; Steinecker, Hulvey, Kline, McCabe, Marly, Stanley and Hasser, Spiller.

At Oakland—R. H. E. San Francisco 5 10 1 Oakland 8 10 2 Batteries: Malis and Reed; Craighead and Reed.

At Sacramento—R. H. E. Los Angeles 3 10 3 Sacramento 10 17 2 Batteries: Pitt, Miller, Hally Peters and Sanders; Keating, Bryan and Koehler.

SMART PIECE OF STRATEGY WINS MATCH

PORTLAND, Ore., May 2 (AP)—By the use of a smart piece of wrestling strategy, George Kotsomirof, Hollywood, defeated Ed Wirth, Detroit, on the back while the latter had him in a tight corner. Wirth had taken the first fall with a step-over toe hold in 16 minutes 31 seconds. Twenty minutes later he hooked Kotsomirof with the same hold. Thinking it was the referee putting him on the back, Wirth let go of the hold. Then Wirth went wild. Kotsomirof met his reverse headlock working and after four applications had Wirth groggy and slammed him to the mat with such force he had to be carried from the ring and on advice of a physician did not return to resume the match.

In the hour preliminary, Bob Krue, Oswego, and George Walker, Canada, put up a smashing fast tussle to a draw, each taking a fall.

Pendleton Club Will Play Here Sunday At 2:30

Baseball fans are all ready for the toughest game of the first part of the season next Sunday, when the Pendleton Buckaroos, twice winner over Enterprise, will cross bats with the undefeated Pirates at the L. H. S. athletic field at 2:30 o'clock.

This will be Pendleton's first appearance here since 1925, when the Bucks made an excellent showing against La Grande, winning half of their games.

The Round-up crew will have the same battery that worked here last year. Meyers and Hoskins, and the Buccaneers will pit Cecil Duff and Murchison against the visiting pair. Both teams are well equipped with heavy hitters and, weather permitting, a contest of thrills is expected to result.

While La Grande and Pendleton are deciding the league leadership at the end of the first quarter, Baker will journey to Enterprise to test the Chieftains' strength.

Strangler Lewis Wins From Stecher

LOS ANGELES, May 2 (AP)—For "Strangler" Lewis, of the dancing headlock, was one up on Joe Stecher, powerfully limbed exponent of the body selectors today in the count of matches won since their rivalry started back in 1916.

These two former heavyweight wrestling champions locked horns for the sixth time here last night, and Lewis won by taking two out of three falls in the finish match. It was his third triumph over Stecher. He previously had lost twice to Stecher and one of their six bouts was a draw.

NIGHT FIGHTS By Associated Press. Detroit—Ray Miller, Chicago, outpointed Billy Petrolle, Fargo, N. D. (7-5). Winnipeg—Charlie Bohaner, Winthrop, knocked out Jackie Lee, Los Angeles, (10).

Two Tie Games In Big League Circles May 1

By William J. Chipman (Associated Press Sports Writer).—A quest through the east in an effort to prove that they really can win a ball game away from home. The Bruins of 1928, lost the pennant for two reasons: Their failure when away from Wrigley field and their inability to win at home or abroad. In meeting their eastern invasion at Baker bowl today, the men of McCarthy have an opportunity to begin piling up revenge on both old scores.

The last few days of the Cubs in intra-sectional warfare in the west were anything but pleasant for Professor McCarthy. After taking two beatings in three days at Cincinnati, his charges closed their stay there yesterday by falling through 13 innings of baseball in a game eventually called with the score tied at 4 to 4 to permit the Cubs to start their trek eastward on schedule. The defense perked up, but the hitting was not there.

Sherdel Holds Up. The Cardinals and the Pirates also engaged in a 4 to 4 tie game over the 12-inning route yesterday as rain swept out all National League competition in the west. Wes Willie Sherdel went the distance against Carmen Hill, Steve Swanton and Irvin Braine.

The Athletics featured an abbreviated campaign in the American league by stampeding the Boston Red Sox 24 to 6 at Fenway park in a game which netted the A's 29 hits, good for 44 bases. It was not a record, but was so close to one that fatalities were sent scurrying into the books.

At Simmons capped the Athletic attack with five hits and lost his chance to get a sixth when he let a third strike float by in the eighth. One of Al's drives was a homer.

Brown's Shade Indians. While all of this commotion was churning up the Fenway, the Browns were quietly quieting their invasion of Cleveland by shading the Indians, 4 to 3, behind the smart pitching of Alvin Crowder. That one counts for just as much in the standing of the clubs as the Athletic ory at Boston, and serves to keep the Browns in front by a margin of one and one-half games.

The rest of the American league program yesterday was swept away by rain at New York and Chicago.

Bunion Burners Reach Oklahoma

JOPLIN, Mo., May 2 (AP)—The thirty third lap of C. C. Pyle's transcontinental derby today takes his trappers to Miami, Okla., by way of Baxter Springs, Kansas, the home of Guy Shields, who is thirteenth in elapsed time. Plans were made to give Shields a warm welcome when he jogs through the town.

Johnny Salo, Passaic, N. J., poleman, second in elapsed time, cut down the lead of Pete Gavuzzi, Southampton, England, to 2:12.43 hours yesterday when he led the caravan into Joplin from Miller. His time for the 47 miles was 3:51.1. Gavuzzi finished in sixth place.
