Camp, Mrs. Russell and Mrs. Lela Jones. An enjoyable program consisted of the following numbers: violin solo, Margaret Milne; Alice Milne and Edna Tavery, piano solos; vocal solo, Ruth Gelbie. Refreshments were served. The next meeting will be held with Mrs. Fred Anderson.

The G. E. A. met in the Knights of Pythias hall yesterday afternoon with Mrs. J. E. Cunliffe, president, in charge.

A new member, Mrs. W. A. Hutchinson, was initiated into the organization.

A social hour followed, which was in charge of Mrs. Ed Ebell, chairman, Mrs. Bradshaw and Mrs. Barclay.

Leavitts Honored At Farewell Dinner

Officials of the second division of the O. W. gave a farewell banquet to Master Mechanic and Mrs. F. A. Leavitt at the La Grande hotel Tuesday evening at 7 p. m. Twenty-two officers were present. Mr. and Mrs. Leavitt will leave shortly for Spokane, where he has been transferred to a like position.

May 1 rounded out an even 39 years' service for Mr. Leavitt with the O. W. and 29 years have been spent in La Grande. He was general shop foreman at Albina for four years and master mechanic at Walla Walla five years prior to his return here in 1920. Before going to Albina, Mr. Leavitt worked as a machinist apprentice here and after completing his apprenticeship he gradually climbed higher in the official family of the railroad, becoming machinist, round house foreman and general foreman at La Grande.

During the banquet Pearl's orchestra furnished the music and after dinner, W. H. Perry, round house foreman, acting as toastmaster, made an appropriate speech, reviewing Mr. Leavitt's work with the O. W. In response, W. H. Guild, division superintendent, C. E. Beck, superintendent of motive power in Portland, O. G. Olson and G. R. Williams, traveling engineers; L. V. Chausse, division engineer, paid tribute to Mr. Leavitt. During the evening Mrs. Leavitt was presented with a beautiful corsage bouquet.

Among the out-of-town guests were Mr. Peck, Mr. and Mrs. M. A. Arns, Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Picklin, of Huntington, and Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Tall, of Rieth.
