TIGERS, BUCKS TO FIGHT FOR FIRST IN EAST OREGON

but last Saturday Keffer won at Union with a time 2-5 of a second faster. Keffer's third event, the discus, seems secure for the Tigers as he has been undefeated this year, hurling the platter 111 feet 3 inches at Pendleton and 109 feet at Union.

The relay, the final event of the day, is expected to see a duel between La Grande and Pendleton and many fans would not be surprised if this decided the meet. Pendleton defeated La Grande at Pendleton in the first quadrangular meet, the Tigers winning from Baker and Union at Union last Saturday.

Nowland has won both high hurdle races, one in 17 flat and one in 17 2-5. Tabor won the javelin at Union at 145 feet 6 inches, but at Pendleton Temple was first with 143 feet 10 inches.

In the distances, Pendleton or Union is expected to win the half mile, the race apparently being between Huntley and Reuter. McDonald and Vinson, of Pendleton, and Thompson, of La Grande, are favorites in the mile run.

Shotput Uncertain The shotput is an uncertain event, with Carson, of Baker; Tabor, of La Grande, and Bauman, of La Grande, having about an equal chance.

In the low hurdles a duel between

King, of Pendleton, and Conley, Roe and Price, of La Grande, is anticipated. King defeated Conley at Pendleton in the meet two weeks ago.

The quarter mile is another toss-up, with Mires, of Union; Huntley, of Pendleton; Patten and Palmer, of La Grande, all in the running. Huntley won at Pendleton in 55 flat at Mires at Union in 54 4-5.

The polevault finds Temple, of Pendleton, a slight favorite, with Evans, of La Grande, and Deland, of Union, close seconds. The high jump is expected to be hotly contested between Arterburn, Guyll and Drulids, of Pendleton, and Nowland, Wolfe and Knapp, of La Grande.

The broad jump, on paper, finds Price and Wolfe, of La Grande, and Johnson, of Pendleton, favorites. Johnson's best leap this year was 20 feet 4 inches and Wolfe turned in 20 feet 2 1/2 inches at Union.

60 Points Win? A total of more than 200 points will be at stake, and it is predicted that a team score of 60 will just about win first place, considering that there will be seven other teams to split the remaining 140 points.

Spectators tomorrow are urged by the student body to respect barriers which will be placed about the various events, so as to give the contestants a chance to "do their stuff" without handicaps. Student police are being organized and the 30 officials will also help in keeping the crowd clear of the track.

Trophies are being offered for each event, as well as two or more cups. The Rotary club is giving a cup for the winning team and Dr. William Pearce, who holds the Eastern Oregon half mile record at 2:02, is offering a handsome trophy for the winner of the 800-yard run.

A raising pep meeting, reported to be one of the best ever given locally, was held at the high school this morning with the freshmen giving a stunt depicting track history here for the last four years. Song, speeches, yells reflected the enthusiasm of the student body and indicated that the Tiger team will have united support tomorrow.

It was explained today that business men's tickets will not be honored for the meet tomorrow, as the Eastern Oregon meet comes in the same classification as a district basketball tournament. However, regular prices will be charged for the event which will include a charge of 50 cents for adults. Many cities increase prices for district athletic meets but the local school decided not to follow that policy.
