GOOD REASONS
"Hello! What's your rush?"
"I want to catch the 5:30 train."
"But you've got half an hour."
"That's true, but I have to count upon being held up on my way to the station by three or four men who want to know what's my rush."

SUGGESTION
Timid Wife (to husband who has just fallen asleep at the wheel)—I don't mean to dictate to you, George, but isn't that hillbilly coming at us awfully fast?

An enthusiastic reporter described a soprano as the "quintessence of charm and beauty." Clara Bow, et al please take notice.

"What's a honeymoon?"
"Oh, you know; that part of a girl's life that comes between the lipstick and the broomstick."

Phillips and his wife had always been reputed to be the happiest of married couples, so when Mrs. Jones heard that her friend was suing for divorce she was astonished.

"You say his chief fault is his absentmindedness?" she said.
"You should try and endure that, dear."

"I did as long as possible," replied the latter, "but when he shook down the player piano and threw a music roll into the furnace, that was going too far."

Uppish Salesman, trying to be impressive at dance: "There's a delicious sense of luxury when one is lying on one's bed and ringing one's bell for one's valet."

Sweet Young thing: "Have you a valet?"
"No, but I have a bell."

Booby (reading aloud): "John appeared presently in immaculate evening dress. What does 'immaculate' mean?"
Eight-year-old Sister: "No gray spots on it."

"Danger Patrol"
Now Showing
At Colonial

Handcuffed to his man—the key thrown away—Sergeant Daley becomes a prisoner of the underworld. This is just a bit of the fast moving drama in "The Danger Patrol," now at the Colonial theater with William Russell and Virginia Brown. Fair handling the leads. A Duke Worne Production from the pen of H. H. Van Loan.

Loveliest Girls In Hollywood In Arcade Film

The loveliest girls in Hollywood posed for the art photographs which feature "The Man in Hobbes," production, "The Man in Hobbes," at the Arcade theater Saturday.

The plot suggested by a story of Peter B. Kyne's, describes the career of a talented young photographer who eventually becomes a partner in a big Fifth Avenue studio specializing in photos of stage beauties. The scenes showing the dazzling creatures posing for their pictures are remarkably effective camera posing.

John Harmon and Lila Lee have the principal roles, assisted by a large cast of film comes in the amusing characterizations of the young couple's relatives by marriage.

"Air Legion" To Be Feature At Star Saturday

The romance that attaches to the aviation of the fliers who pilot the great planes with their tons of mail has never faded and it is this that has contributed to the popularity of "The Air Legion," thrilling epic of the air mail service, showing at the Star theater Saturday.

The powerful dramatic story, in which Ben Lyon, Antonio Moreno and Martha Sleeper portray the featured roles, includes a gripping psychological presentation of a young pilot who develops a streak of "yellow" in his battles with the elements and is saved from himself by an "ace" flier of war days, his rival for the love of a charming girl. Bert Glennon, himself a war-time flier, directed the photography for FBO and in the cast are included John Gough and Colin Clive.

Moultrie, Ga., farmers have adopted a slogan of "bigger and better peanuts." They are not satisfied with present production.
