Gene Howe, the Texas editor who criticized opera stars because they "saved their voices" when appearing in his home town, ought to be the first to congratulate Marion Talley on deciding to buy a farm. A movement of grand opera singers to the farm promises to be a splendid thing.

Mrs. Engler To Leave Mission; Preaches Sunday

Christian Church to Observe Pentecost—Confirmation Services at Lutheran Church.

Mrs. Engler, pastor of the Light-house Gospel Mission since September, 1928, has resigned her pulpit here and will leave next week for the coast on a vacation trip. She will be in charge of the regular services at the church Sunday and also plans to deliver a talk on Tuesday night.

Mrs. Engler has been very successful in her work in La Grande and her congregation expresses sorrow at her leaving, although wishing her success in future fields. She will be accompanied to the coast by her mother, Mrs. Westbrook, of Tacoma, who has been seriously ill.

English Lutheran Church
Confirmation services will be held Sunday morning beginning at 11 o'clock at the English Lutheran church.

The following young people will come up for confirmation: Lilly Hoffman, Arnold Inseth, Thelma Inseth, Henry Jensen and Grace Kellogg.

The pastor's message Sunday morning will be "Making Good."

The choir will have special music for the occasion.

Worship and instructions will be at 9:45 a. m.

First Presbyterian Church
"Our individual work is different, but our interdependence on and with each other—to help and to be helped—is unchangeable. We help each other as well as ourselves by attending the Divine worship on the Sabbath Day," says the Rev. J. George Waiz, pastor.

The reading room in the West-Jacobson buildings is open every day except Sundays and legal holidays from 12 to 4:30 o'clock.

The public is cordially invited to attend the church services and visit and use the reading room.

Mrs. Engler, pastor of the Light-house Gospel Mission, who has resigned her pulpit here, will leave next week for a vacation, and will be accompanied by her mother, Mrs. Westbrook, of Tacoma, who came here a short time ago following a severe illness.

There will be no evening service at the Presbyterian church as the pastor will be at Imbler, delivering the baccalaureate sermon to the Imbler High school graduating class.

The Eastern Oregon Christian Church convention opens at Heppner on Tuesday evening, closing on Thursday night. On account of this convention there will be no Loyal Volunteer Band meeting on Thursday evening. Several La Grande Christians are expecting to attend the Heppner meetings.

District Superintendent Harry S. Hamilton will preach at the 8 o'clock evening service at the First M. E. church Sunday.

Mrs. T. Bailey, president of the Women's Missionary society of the Churches of Christ in Oregon, will speak at 11 a. m. in the La Grande church on Sunday, May 26. It is announced by the Rev. H. L. Putnam, pastor. She will be accompanied by Mrs. Anna Kellihy, of Pendleton, Mrs. Stenmark, of Salem, and Mrs. Day, of Eugene, who will assist in the afternoon conference for women and girls.

Dr. Warrenton Speaks At Cove Commencement

By Mrs. J. R. Price (Observer Correspondent)
COVE, Ore. (Special)—"All of us are capable of rising above the circumstances in which we are located. If we are defeated it is not through the force of circumstances but through a lack in ourselves," said Dr. E. B. Warrenton in his address to the seniors Thursday evening. The exercises opened with a selection by the Cove String ensemble, "Love and Flowers," by Calbulka. The Rev. P. F. Sturges pronounced the invocation followed by the salutatory by Esther Anderson. The valedictory by Lee Ellen Breshers and a vocal solo by Archer Antles, who sang "Friend of Mine," by Sanderson, preceded the address by Dr. Warrenton, "Glorious Forever" by Rachmaninoff was sung by the high school chorus. Thomas Hefty, chairman of the school board, presented the diplomas and C. G. Springer, principal of the school, gave a farewell to the class. The closing number was "To the Rising Sun," by Torsussen, played by Lola Brothers. The two girls in the graduating class carried sweet peas and white rose buds, while the boys wore a boutonniere of a rose of Killarney and fern. Lee Ellen Breshers wore a dress of Nile green satin trimmed in rhinestones while Esther Anderson was dressed in an apricot crepe.

The senior class gave their class day exercises Thursday afternoon. The program opened with a song by the school, "Boost for Old Cove High." Esther Anderson read the class history, Dean Puckett the class poem after which Edward Bristow and Archer Antles sang "One Fleeting Hour," by Lee. This was followed by the class will by Lee Ellen Breshers, the class prayer by Edward Bristow and Mrs. Puckett's "Spring Time in the Rockies," sung by Lee Ellen Breshers, Archer Antles and Edward Bristow. Dell Puckett, president of the class of '29, presented the hoo to Elsie Anderson, representative of the class of '30. The program closed with "America" by the school. All the grades with the exception of those who were busy with their examinations attended the program, which is always greatly enjoyed by the seniors and their parents and friends who attend.

Mr. and Mrs. Guy Barker are among the first of the Cove people to try much paper on their garden. The garden is very thrifty-looking and seems much farther advanced than the majority of gardens around Cove at this time. Mrs. Barker says they are well pleased with the results shown so far.

NOTICE OF SHERIFF'S SALE
Notice is hereby given that I have received a foreclosure execution and order of sale, issued out of and under the seal of the Circuit Court of the State of Oregon for the County of Union, dated the 24th day of April, 1929, in the suit therein pending wherein North-western and Pacific Hypotheekbank (Northwestern and Pacific Mortgage Company), a corporation, was plaintiff, and Anton T. Hewitt, a bachelor, C. Hewitt, a bachelor, and Eastern Oregon Development Company, a corporation, were defendants, to me directed, upon a decree and order of sale made and entered in said court and cause on the 17th day of April, 1929, in favor of the above plaintiff and against the said defendants, Anton T. Hewitt and C. Hewitt, for the sum of $500.00, with interest thereon at 8 1/2% per annum from December 1, 1927; $125.00 attorney fees; $5.00 abstract charges, and $22.00 costs and disbursements, in which said execution and order of sale I am commanded to sell the following described property, being the property described in the mortgage being foreclosed in said suit, to-wit:

The southwest quarter (SW 1/4) of Section Twenty-five (25) in Township five (5) South, Range Thirty-nine (39) E. W. M., together with all water rights for irrigation or otherwise, or any interest therein, and together with the tenements, hereditaments and appurtenances thereunto belonging or in anywise appertaining.

NOW THEREFORE, by virtue and authority of said writ, and in obedience to its commands, I will, on Monday, the 27th day of May, 1929, at two o'clock P. M. of said day, at the front door of the court house in La Grande, Union county, Ore., sell at public auction the said real property, and all the right, title, estate, interest and equity of the said defendants therein and
