Forty Members Of Hope Chapter Go To Baker Meeting

About forty members of Hope chapter No. 13, Order of the Eastern Star, with their worthy matron, Mrs. Hazel Graham, drove to Baker last evening in response to the most gracious invitation from the members of Eastern Chapter No. 29 of that city, to be their guests—a courtesy which is exchanged annually between the two organizations. The Baker people had planned splendidly for their guests and at intervals during the regular work gave a musical program—solo numbers and selections by the Eastern Star mixed quartet. Mrs. Graham, of this city and the members of her floral team, Mrs. Enghard, Mae, Maguire, Steffen and Dield, very beautifully and impressively exemplified the floral degree honoring the worthy matron of the hostess chapter. Grand officers-elect, Mrs. Carrie Jackson, grand conductress of the grand chapter of Oregon, of Baker, and George S. Cochran, grand associate patron of the grand chapter of the Oregon were introduced and spoke briefly. A lovely banquet, served by the Baker ladies concluded the festivities.

News of Wedding Received Here

Friends and relatives in La Grande have received word of the marriage of Miss Iets Stewart, of Stockton, California and Mr. George Borden, of Klamath Falls, Oregon, which was an event of May 20. The bride on this occasion is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Stewart, for many years residents of this city, and she is a graduate of the La Grande high school. After leaving La Grande she attended the College of Commerce at Stockton from which she was graduated in 1927. Since then, she has been bookkeeper for the Hudson Essex dealers in the California city. Mr. Borden is an electrician and is employed by the Van Fleet Electric Co. of Klamath Falls. They will make their home in that city.

Teachers Enjoy Special Meeting

The La Grande Classroom Teachers' department of the National Education association, held a special meeting sponsored by the executive committee, at the Saterhaus recently. The purpose of the meeting was to install the newly elected officers and to honor them with a specially prepared program. A group of songs was given by the teachers of Central school, then a clown dance number by Myrtle Hoyt, Florence Smith, Beatrice Wardsell, and Ruth Brown, with Mrs. Neppi Central as the piano. Miss Eileen Morelock of Willow school gave two pianologues, "Talk, Talk, Talk" and "A Teacher's Feeling on March 21" with Mrs. Juanita Wilcock furnishing her accompaniment. Miss Vina Conley and Mrs. Nell Thacker of Greenwood school sang two duets, accompanied by Mrs. Clem Green, and E. D. Towler, principal of the high school sang two solos. W. W. Nussbaum was accompanist.

A report of the music convention at Spokane was given by Mr. Nussbaum. As a surprise feature a paper called "The Tallier" was read by Herbert Evans of Ilwaco. This paper was compiled and edited entirely by men of the five city schools and its purpose was to tell the truth (?) concerning the plans and aspirations for the summer of each teacher in the system.

Mrs. Beatrice Young, president, gave a talk on "Why Have a Classroom Teachers' Organization?" in which she said "Many of the things we do in life are done with a group. It is a mark of growth to be able to work in a group." Mrs. Young also gave a summary of the accomplishments of this organization since its inception late last spring. Delegates and members have given reports on the following educational conventions, National Education association, at Minneapolis, Miss Arta Vorley, Oregon State Teachers' association, Portland, in December, Mrs. E. D. Tow-ler, superintendents' convention at Cleveland, in February, J. T. Lonewolf, the Inland Empire gathering in Spokane, in April, Mrs. Beatrice Young, music convention at Spokane, W. W. Nussbaum. The committees have all been very active during the year. The civic committee was especially helpful to the teachers of Union and Wall—two counties during the institute here last fall and also helped with the Red Cross call call. The professional committee worked on several problems during the past year and were responsible for several interesting and instructive programs.

Mrs. Beatrice Young, retiring president, officiated at the installation of these new officers—president, Arnold Gralapp, first vice-pres., H. A. Wilkerson, second vice-pres., Marie Tiedbeck, secretary, Florence Williams, E. D. Towler, representing the members expressed appreciation to Mrs. Young for her efforts during the year.

The following committees were appointed by Mr. Gralapp: professional—Mrs. Young, Mrs. Williamson, Mrs. MacEachron, Herbert Evans, W. W. Thomas, civic—E. A. MacEachron, Herys Jones, Elbridge Hoffman, Mrs. Guy Patten, Olive Moore, social—Eleanor Glass, Eileen Morelock, Mrs. Clem Green, Mrs. Cook, Ruth Brown; remembrance—Nell Mahaffey, Sarah Williamson, Berneice McKinney, Nina Kama, Alice Kippel, publicity, Floyd Meffin.
