Mrs. Miller's Violin Pupils In Recital

Among the many spring and early summer recitals which have been given in La Grande during the last few weeks, the violin recital given last evening by the score of pupils of Mrs. Florence Lynch Miller stands out very prominently. The recital was given in the auditorium of the First Presbyterian church, where flowers in great abundance had been used for decorations, tulips, spirea and lilacs.

The large company of friends and music lovers present during the evening were not slow to evidence their appreciation of the numbers, each of the performers doing remarkably well. The majority of them were beginners, with some few more advanced pupils. Mrs. Audmer Playle was accompanist for the evening with Mrs. Harold Hamstreet, of Wallawa, playing for her daughter, Mona Louise. While it is impossible to speak of the numbers individually, the ensemble, in which all the young people participated was most thoroughly enjoyed and appreciated.

MENUS

By Sister Mary
This season of the year, when one's friends are apt to drop in most any time, a well-filled cookie erock is well worth while. A cup of tea or glass of lemonade gains much if served with a plate of cookies. The friends passing through your vicinity, stopping just long enough to say "hello," will enjoy a box of home-made cookies to take with them. Busy housekeepers often feel that they can't afford the time it takes to roll out and cut cookies, but there are shorter methods. Drop cookies are always good while ice-box cookies are quite as satisfactory as rolled ones in all but shape. Either of the quick methods will produce cookies of uniform shape but think of the time saved.

A SHORT CUT.

A Spare Moment Task

The dough can be made up for ice-box cookies during any spare minutes the cook can find. It can be chilled for several hours before making into long rolls or made at once into the rolls. After un-kneading into rolls which may be about the size of a rolling pin, chill over night. When ready to bake the cookies, cut in slices about one-fourth to one-half inch thick. Bake in a hot oven on an oiled baking sheet.

If crisp cookies are wanted cut the dough thin.

The following rule for car-amel cookies makes several dozen, enough to fill the cookie jar for emergencies.

Caramel Cookies

One cup butter, 2 cups light brown sugar, 2 eggs, 1-2 cup sour milk, 4 cups flour, 1-2 teaspoon soda, 1 teaspoon baking powder, 1 teaspoon vanilla, 1-4 teaspoon salt.

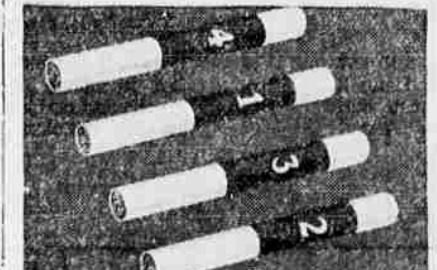

Cream butter and beat in sugar.

Beat until creamy and stir in 1 cup sifted flour. Thoroughly mix and sift remaining flour with soda and baking powder and salt. Beat eggs until light and add to first mixture. When thoroughly blend-ed stir in half the dry ingredients.

Add milk and vanilla and stir until smooth. Add remaining dry mix-ture. If too soft to form into a roll, chill until firm enough to handle. Shape in rolls and chill overnight or several hours in ice box. Slice and bake eight to ten minutes in a hot oven.
