ATHLETICS GAIN ANOTHER VICTORY

In National League Pirates Gain the Lead by Sitting Idle in the Rain.

By William J. Chipman. Associated Press Staff Writer. After exhibiting a fine streak of consecutive wins, the Athletics returned to the winning column yesterday as their fellow professionals, the Pirates, slumped into the National League lead without scoring a run.

The Athletics defeated the Pirates 7 to 2, and of course, landed a full game over the St. Louis Cardinals, who fell into third place. The Yankees worked hard to force a tie with the Athletics, but the champions held their edge over St. Louis in several key games.

Missions Widen Gap; Ducks Are Beaten by Run

By the Associated Press. The dominating Mission Reds of the Bay city, with a lead a mile long, won their game yesterday against Los Angeles in the Southern city, and were still further added by events of the day in other parts of the Pacific Coast league.

Good pitching, excellent support and timely hitting by the Reds accounted for their 2 to 1 victory in the first game of the crucial series with the Angels. The Reds won with two hits, while their opponents scored on a home run by Hal Gray, a pitcher, his 10th career. The Mission loss, however, ended a 42-game win streak of 47 games.

What happened to the Reds proved to be a lucky break for the home leaders. The champions of last year dropped the second game of their series with the Hollywood Stars at Redwood City, but they won it in a walk-off home run by a pitcher, his 10th career. The Mission loss, however, ended a 42-game win streak of 47 games.

Ducks Nosed Out. Larry McVey pitched almost ball for the Ducks at Klamath Falls, but he had to walk nearly half the team in a 7 to 2 loss to the Portland Ducks. The Portlanders scored a couple of runs in the first inning, but the Ducks made a comeback in the fourth.

Iowa Star Tells Of Offer From Purdue 'Friend'

DES MOINES, Ia. (June 5 AP)—The Des Moines Register in a copyrighted story today quoted Robert Spradling, Iowa basketball star, as saying he was offered all expenses by a 'friend of Purdue' if he would enter that school and play basketball.

Spradling, whose home is in Franklin, Indiana, said he was willing to make a frank statement of his relations with both Iowa and Purdue should the Big Ten call upon him to do so. The newspaper said.

Coach Ward Lambert, Purdue basketball coach, knew of the offer, the story added, and urged Spradling to accept it. Instead he accepted a job calling on auto and lending a furnace for his home and room at an Iowa fraternity with the understanding he would join the fraternity.

Spradling's reported testimony supports the charge made by Everett Case, Franklin, Indiana, high school basketball coach that Lambert went to Spradling's home to persuade him from matriculating at Iowa, and having failed to do so, to leave.

Case was in court last Thursday when he was charged with promoting and subsidizing athletes before John I. Gentry, Big Ten athletic commissioner, at Chicago Monday.
