Imbler Berries Ripening; Hail Skips Territory

By Mrs. C. M. Hale
(Observer Correspondent)
IMBLER, Ore. (Special)—Local strawberries are now coming on the market. Alie Watson gathered his first picking Tuesday. The damaging hail storm that hit some sections last week missed this locality for which the berry and orchard men are very thankful.

E. Hazen invited to Pendleton Saturday evening. Mrs. Hazen and children who have been visiting for several days returned with him Sunday morning.

Maxine Neesley who makes her home with Mr. and Mrs. T. Ruetman has been visiting with her mother near Bend.

William Smith who has been ill at home for a week is improved in health and has returned to his work at Hilgard.

Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Welch have spent the week in the Willamette valley visiting relatives and also attending commencement exercises at Salem. Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Welch are both members of the graduating class at Willamette university. Mr. and Mrs. Welch were accompanied as far as Portland by Mrs. Ida Hendricks who will visit with relatives there.

Mrs. E. L. Perrin who has spent some time in the home of her granddaughter, Mrs. John Gekeler, of Elgin, is spending this week here in her home.

Mrs. Ralph Morgan is again at home after spending several weeks in Oklahoma. She has been all most of the time since reaching home.

Francis Padlock, nephew of Charles Cleaver, and his little nephew, Delwyn Padlock, of San Bernardino, Cal., came last Saturday to spend a week with relatives. Mr. and Mrs. Charles Cleaver, Lydia Cleaver and the two visitors were guests Tuesday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Chick Cleaver.

Dr. and Mrs. Briggs and children, of Oklahoma, are visiting relatives in the valley. Mrs. Briggs is a daughter of Mrs. E. M. Waggoner, of Summerville. She has several sisters living here and is a sister of H. C. and J. J. Waggoner, of Summerville.

Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Watson and daughter, Donna and Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Hale and daughter, Ruth, were among those from Imbler who attended the piano recital given by the pupils of Mildred Spencer at the La Grande hotel. Howard Wilson and Neta Wilson were among the pupils and deserve much credit for the selections given by them.
