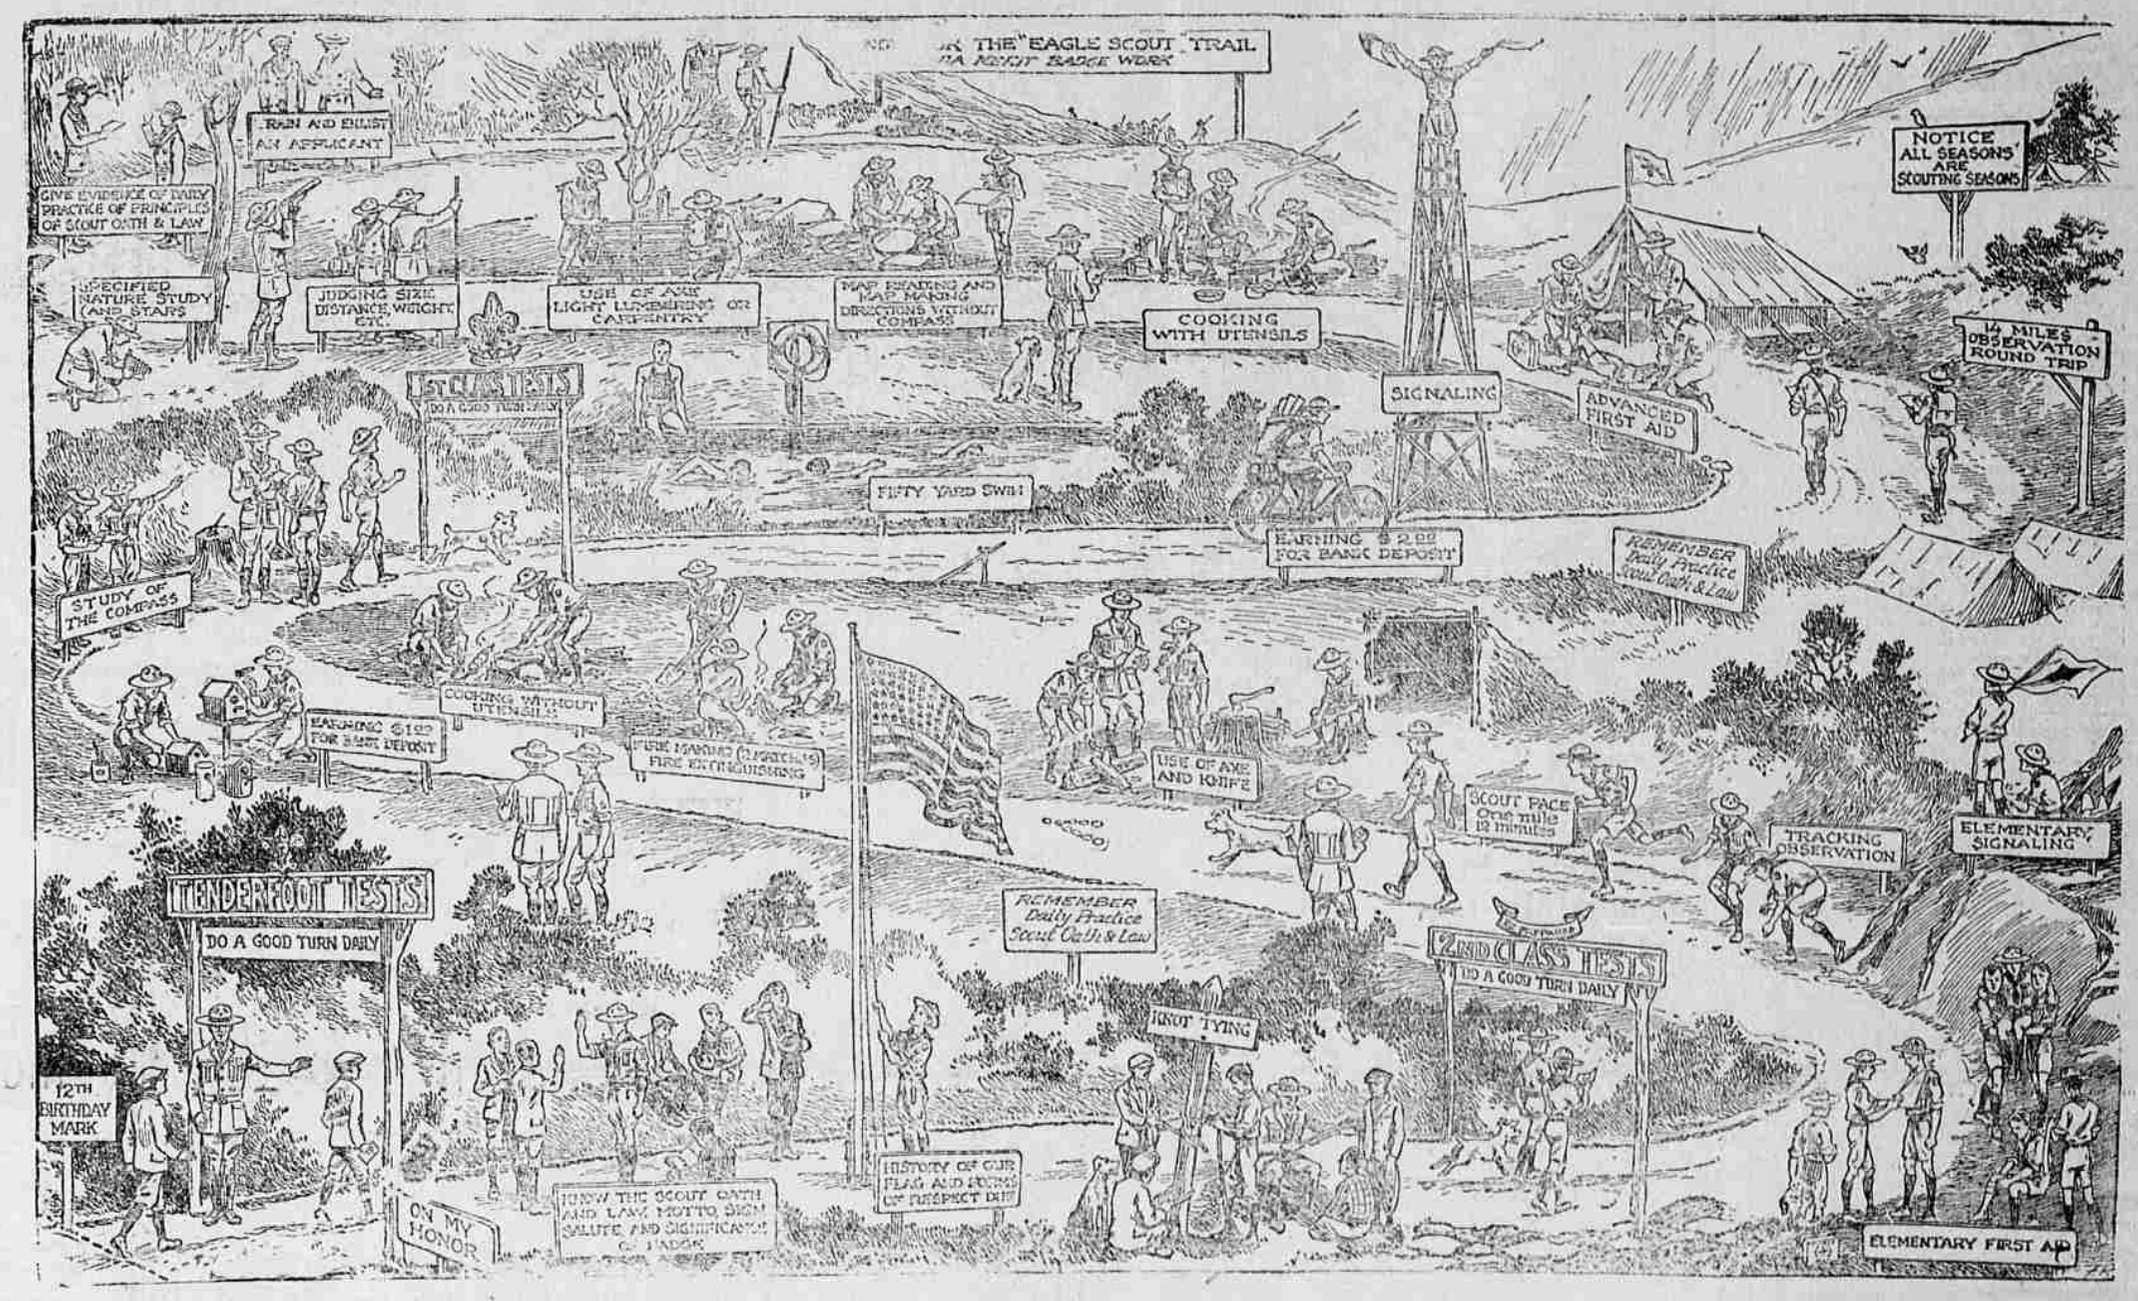
BOYS! HERE'S YOUR OPPORTUNITY TO ATTEND BOY SCOUT SUMMER CAMP

Have ten days jammed full of vacation and training without a cent of cost to you--Earn your trip

"THE BOY SCOUT TRAIL TO CITIZENSHIP"



Any boy earning 110 points as an Observer Junior Circulation Salesman, will have his fee paid for a ten day period at this year's boy scout camp. Notice point schedule below.

JOIN THE

Observer Junior Circulation Salesmen NOW!

Remember this offer is open to every boy between 12 and 18 years of age residing in Union and Wallowa Counties.

All Junior Salesmen must register—Use the coupon below. In addition to paying the camp fee, The Observer will pay one year's dues in Boy Scouts for any successful Junior Salesman not now a member.

The points schedule will remain the same throughout the campaign.

Only new subscriptions will be accepted. Any boy not securing the total of 110 points will receive $1 in cash for each 10 points earned. One dollar in cash will be given for each 10 points earned over 110.

The Scout camp, Camp Phy, is located on Catherine creek, 11.2 miles east of Union. The first camp period begins June 30th, and there will be three 10 day periods ending July 29th. If successful you may attend any one of the three periods.

Point Schedule

Points will be counted on the following schedule:
One new subscription, by mail, for one year—10 points
One new subscription, by mail, for 6 months—5 points
One new subscription, by mail, for 3 months—3 points
Fill out coupon and bring or mail to the Observer today.
