Several Hundred Enjoy Recital By Helen Williams

Miss Helen Williams, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Sheppard Williams, who was graduated early this month from the school of music at the University of Oregon, delighted a company of several hundred people last evening when she appeared in a piano recital at the First Methodist Episcopal church. To comment on the individual numbers on Miss Williams' program would be unnecessary, as she always belonged to this community, and La Grande people have watched her musical career with no little interest, pleased, yet never surprised, at the progress she has made, not now at the heights she has attained. La Grande friends rejoice that she has come "back home" and will remain here, following her announcement that her studio is to be opened here early in the fall. In her program last evening which consisted of eight numbers, Miss Williams was assisted by her sister, Miss Jean, who gave two delightful readings at different intervals, Alfred Noyes' "The Highwayman" and Bowden's "Shoes." Her friends were glad last evening when, for an encore number, Miss Helen gave a selection "Bacchante" of her own composition.

Regular Meetings End Until Autumn

At the regular meeting of the G. I. A. of the B. of L. E. held Thursday afternoon at the Knights, one new member, Mrs. George Hillman was given the initiatory work. Only routine business occupied the remainder of the regular meeting, but at its close a social hour was enjoyed and refreshments served. This was the last regular meeting of the year, the only gathering during the summer to be the annual picnic which comes in August.

Camp Fire Girls Picnic At Park

The Watchtower group of Camp Fire girls had a picnic at the city park yesterday afternoon with a very good attendance of the girls present. At that time the regular weekly meeting was held also when plans were discussed and other matters attended to.

Party Compliments Canadian Visitor

A very pleasant evening was enjoyed last evening when Mrs. I. A. Howell entertained with a dinner party in honor of Mrs. Sarah Ann Broadhead of Alberta, Canada. Covers were laid for twelve guests and a delicious dinner was served. The remainder of the evening was spent in singing and singing old time songs. Mrs. Broadhead is here visiting with her sister Mrs. Hyrum Allen.

Mrs. Read Hostess To Club Yesterday

Mrs. Fred Read, 1107 Twelfth street, was the hostess to the members of the Stitch and Chatter club yesterday at her home, with a dozen of the members present. The club lived up to its name and sewed as they visited, the work completed during the afternoon amounting to a dozen hot water bag covers and four children's ensembles.

Pythian Sisters In Enjoyable Meet

The Pythian Sisters met in regular session last evening at their hall, the evening festivities opening with a pot luck supper served at seven-thirty o'clock. The regular meeting followed, when only routine business was given attention save that a delegate was elected to represent the local temple at Grand Temple to be held in Portland in October. Mrs. Zella Jones was chosen as delegate and Mrs. Ina Koyne as alternate. After the closing time was spent in an informal social fashion.

Announcements

The So-Ne-He club will postpone its regular meeting until July 3 on account of the death of Mrs. Richardson, Mrs. Graham's mother.

When Friends Motor Through La Grande—

It's only natural for the La Grande citizen to recommend the Sacajawea as the logical and pleasant place to stop overnight. Anxious to have outsiders get the best possible impression of this city, local people recognize the fine appointments and unusual facilities of this hotel as the best way to accomplish such a purpose.

They know that visitors stopping at the Sacajawea will have a charming room, a luxurious and friendly lobby—and the excellent meat service which has made the dining room and Coffee Shop so popular.
