ATHLETICS TAKE SERIES 3 TO 2

Philadelphia Wins Odd Game From Yankees to Increase Lead.

By WILLIAM J. CHIPMAN That hysteria in and about the Yankee stadium now is recent rather than current, and the boys are busy checking up the net results, artistic and financial. The Athletics dipped the champions 7 to 4 before some 55,000 in the fifth and ninth game yesterday, but the really important transaction took place in the counting house. Exactly 184,894 New York fans paid their way at the gate in three days, making the series a complete victory for Edward Grant Barrow regardless of what happened to Higgins.

The attendance set a new record for a single series, beating the mark of 177,152 made by the same teams at the same park last September in three afternoons. Comic Gets $16,000 The only fly in Mr. Barrow's coffee was the necessity of tendering Mr. McGillicuddy a check for $16,000 before the armored van opened to a downtown bank with the loot.

Although the victory of the Athletics by three games in two weeks of heat, hardly decisive, the work of the Mackmen was stretched to eight and one-half games, and the impressive spread among metropolitan fans that here, indeed, were the coming champions. The current Athletics have in the face of Yankee fire a confidence lacking by their immediate predecessors, and ability to stand up before the Huguenot is all that was missing in the Mackmen last year.

Elmke Wins The final game was a triumph for Howard Elmke, the veteran right hander, although George Earnshaw had to be called in the eighth to put down a Yankee appearing which threatened to assume serious proportions. The series ended without the appearance of Eddie Rommel, the kumkule ball expert who never seemed to fool the Yankees.

The defeated pitcher yesterday was another left hander and the third Yankee southpaw victim of the series—Eddie Wells. The Birmingham boy's customary wildness showed, but the Messrs. Simmons and Fox made up for this little oversight with successive home runs in the fourth. Mr. Myle has caught the spirit that he hampered Wells, resolute, Tom Zachary, for a four-batter within the lot in the eighth.

Simmons Gets No. 18 It was Simmons' eighteenth, Fox's thirteenth and Haas' ninth. Simmons might have had an earlier home run in the second when he limped palpably on a triple because of a broken ankle. Now that the Yankees' series is over, Simmons may remain out of the game.

By ALAN J. GOULD Poughkeepsie, N. Y., June 24 (AP)—Overcast skies, intense humidity and placid waters greeted the incoming thousands arriving here this morning for the intercollegiate regatta in which 22 crews from nine colleges row late today.

The weather experts prophesied good water conditions but expected also heavy showers might develop to witness the regatta. The advance forecast of expert opinion bracketed the details of the world's champion Californians and New York's own Columbia, 1927 champions and 1928 runner-up. As co-favorites in the varsity struggle but there was a distinctly manifest opinion that anything might happen with nine shells sweeping down the old Hudson.

California Favored Although the Californians, seasoned, confident and unbeaten, loomed as champions in every sense of the word, they by no means dominated the big First Columbia was considered to be even better than last year, when the New Yorkers were barely three quarters of a length behind the Golden Bears in the fastest four mile college race ever rowed.

to rest his netter limbs, but the real misfortune for the Huguenot Higgins combination seems to be that Simmons did not arrive at this decision earlier. Here it was what he did to the champions in three days.

Gerbig Hits Homer Lou Gerbig inserted his twentieth home run into the proceedings yesterday, placing himself in a tie with Mel Ott of the Giants for the Major League leadership. The defeat coupled with the 6 to 2 victory of the Browns over the White Sox, dropped the champions into a tie with St. Louis for third place, but this hardly will last. The Yankees may not be as good as the Athletics, but they remain some better than the rest of the flock.

Detroit moved out of Cleveland by 3 to 7, advancing to within one game of the Yankees and the Browns, and Washington won from Boston by 7 to 1 in other American League engagements yesterday.

Pirates Defeat Cubs The National League campaign on the Sabbath witnessed the third straight victory of the Pirates over the Cubs, 3 to 2. The Cubs shaded the champion Cardinals by 4 to 2 and the Brooklyn Robins noosed the Giants by 3 to 2 in fourteen innings, giving the day a pronounced Pirate trend. The Brewers led the Cubs by two and one-half games, the Cardinals by three and the Giants by three and one-half.

The Braves completed the National League program by taking two from the Phillies, 5 to 1 and 7 to 5.

Senators Trim Ducks The Sacramento Senators won both games from the Portland Ducks, 3 to 0, and 10 to 4. The Senators won the series five out of seven. Loss of the first game was a bitter pill for pitcher Chesterfield of the Ducks for he held the Senators to a mere two singles up to the ninth inning, when a hit by Canfield and a fumble by Charles at second with the bases loaded, was followed with a homer by Korfey.

Hollywood took both games from Los Angeles, 3 to 2 and 12 to 10, the afternoon play going but seven innings.

MISSIONS KEEP AT LEAGUE TOP

Reds Divide Sunday's Double Header With Second Place Seals.

The San Francisco Mission Reds continued today in the Pacific Coast league leadership, though only by the narrowest margin, as a result of yesterday's double header, in which the Killdeer clan divided the honors with the Seals. Eleven home runs were scored in the eight league games.

The Seals came back in the afternoon fray at Recreation park to win 6 to 3, after the Reds had walked away with the morning game 4 to 0. The Seals won the series four to three and advanced to within three games of the leaders.

Coming from behind to win both games, Oakland copped the series from Seattle, five games to two. The Seals were 4 and 2, and 6 to 4.

Senators Trim Ducks The Sacramento Senators won both games from the Portland Ducks, 3 to 0, and 10 to 4. The Senators won the series five out of seven. GRID PEACE IS SOUGHT FOR SERVICE TEAMS WASHINGTON, June 24 (AP)—Secretary Good announced today he had begun negotiations with Secretary Adams with a view to the resumption of football relations between West Point and Annapolis.

Full details on the question of the eligibility rule which resulted in a disruption of the games between the service schools have been asked of the general staff by the secretary. He said that since the schedules of the army and navy had been completed for a considerable time in advance, any games which they might play this year as a result of a favorable completion of the negotiations would have to be outside the schedules.

Five reasons for sugar in the diet Scientist talks about this healthful food ONE OF THE great food scientists of the country told us not long ago, "Sugar not only has an important use in the diet of nearly everyone—it has five distinct uses. "First of all, it is a great conservator of many foods, especially fruits. In the second place, as a flavoring substance, it is most valuable in making nearly all foods much more appetizing. In this way it leads to the eating of a more balanced diet. The third point I would call to your attention about sugar is its value as a satiation factor. Ending a meal with a sweet gives a sense of satisfaction—of having had just enough. "Perhaps the best known use of sugar is as a staple fuel for keeping the human body active. Sugar is more rapidly digested than starch, and it ranks with starch as a vital food for every normal person. "The final point about sugar is its adaptability as an emergency fuel. Sugar is rapidly absorbed in the system. It is always helpful to get the opinion of a recognized authority on any important subject. In a day when food fads are so much in evidence it is a part of wisdom to discover exactly how important sugar is in the diet of all of us. The sensible way to well-being is to eat all kinds of healthful fresh and canned fruits and vegetables, sweetened to taste. Remember the value of puddings, ice creams, and cakes for dessert. A bit of sweet makes the meal complete. The Sugar Institute.
