Lindy has treated the newspapers pretty shabby, but it would be suicide to knock him. Why call it the underworld when it's on top?

TWO GANGSTERS SHOT TO DEATH IN KANSAS CITY

St. Louis, also had a long police record. He had been arrested numerous times on various charges but never had been convicted.

Pumpsey was wanted in his home city, Memphis, Tenn., police said. In connection with several robberies. He told police, they said, that Barrett recently shot a Chicago gangster who attempted to take him for a "ride" as the result of a disagreement over a liquor deal.

Working "Sheriff Racket"

The quintet, Pumpsey said, had been working what they called a "sheriff racket." They would scatter to small towns, spot the liquor runners, "arrest" them and take the liquor and "hush" money, he said.

Pumpsey also told of a previous disagreement between the quintet when they were flying liquor across the Mexican border. Barrett, he said, fell in love with a Mexican senorita and told her of their operations. She notified United States authorities.

Risked Own Life to Rescue Cat

NEW Orleans Bureau
"We couldn't let the poor devil die, could we?" retorted George Charbonnet, above, when he was praised for risking his life to save a cat that had been trapped under New Orleans docks for a month. The feline, a steamer pet, fell in the water and took refuge on a narrow cement ledge in a manner that defied rescue until Charbonnet and Paul Silva, dock board patrolman, slipped through a man-hole and swam 200 yards in darkness to perform their heroic act. The cat had been fed daily through a hole in the dock.

Respect

The most fitting expression of our respect for departed loved ones is to place over their graves a lasting monument which will mark the sacred spot for the generations to come. We will aid you in selecting a stone and then carve it in a way to suit you.

TUNNEY ANSWER TO SUIT FILED

ing to the Fogarty complaint, he asked again, and was accepted. Then, he married another person — Polly Launder.
Colonel Lewis L. Field, New Haven attorney for Mrs. Fogarty, said that "in general, the Tunney allegations are untrue, but on Mrs. Fogarty's behalf, I will make no statement." Colonel Field said Mrs. Fogarty "still is in hiding" and he would not make a statement until he had conferred with her.
