Rainbow Girls On Way to Corvallis For State Meeting

Two car loads of young girls, officers and members of the Order of the Rainbow for Girls, and their chaperons, started early this morning for Corvallis where they will attend the Grand Assembly of the Order. In the crowd was one grand officer, Miss Anita Erickson, a past worthy adviser of the La Grande Assembly who is Grand Sister of Service for this year. Miss Lobs Hansell as worthy advisor, Mrs. Margaret Anthony as worthy associate advisor, Miss Ruth Harrison, proxy for Miss Mildred Charlton, sister of charity, went as delegates from the assembly, and with them were Miss Ava Williams of Enterprise, Miss Vivian Kuhn a past worthy advisor, Miss Sarah Hoskins representing the Baker assembly, Mrs. Viva Hansell who went as mother advisor and G. N. Tarkington. Several hundred

Mrs. Putnam Yeck Hostess to Club

The Goodwill club of the Women's Relief Corps met yesterday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Putnam Yeck, 1222 V. avenue. Mrs. Yeck was hostess to the club members and two visitors who were present at the meeting. During the business session, the pattern was chosen for a quilt which the club expects to piece, and this was rather a hard task for so many beautiful patterns were on display. It was also decided to hold the next meeting on July 23, with a picnic at Riverside Park, each and all the members to be hostesses. The meeting was closed by the hostess serving ice cream and cake.

Sacajawea Group Elects Officers

Miss Edna Brown was elected president of the Sacajawea group of Camp Fire girls at the meeting held last evening. Miss Helen Hughes was made vice president, Helen Jensen, treasurer, Juanita Stinger, scribe and Natalie Ebert, secretary. Miss Lief Aves is the guardian of this group and Mrs. Fred Gehring, her assistant. Because of Mrs. Aves' departure last night for Minnesota, Mrs. Gehring was in charge and the council fire, announced, was postponed until some later meeting. The meeting was in the form of a picnic held on the Grande Ronde river and the girls present report a wonderfully good time.

N. O. W. Convention Reports Are Made

The La Grande circle of the Neighbors of Woodcraft met last evening in regular session at the K. of T. hall with a good attendance of the neighbors. After the regular business session, reports were listened to from those who represented the local circle at the district convention held last week at Baker. Two items were of exceptional interest and importance. The first of these was the election of Mrs. Belle Devine, guardian neighbor of the La Grande circle as delegate to the grand circle next month in Portland, and the second was that La Grande was chosen as convention city for the district convention in 1931. The reports given last evening revealed a very profitable and enjoyable convention this year. Last evening plans were discussed for a picnic which the neighbors are to hold on Wednesday, June 19 at Riverside park.

Deauville Accents Suits Of Wash Silk

By DIANA MERWIN (Associated Press Fashion Editor) DEAUVILLE (AP)—Two pieces costumes again are leading everything else for daytime wear here. But this time the two pieces are not skirt and pullover as formerly, but one-piece dress and short jacket. Striped and checked wash silk sleeveless dresses with matching coats are the uniforms of the morning crowds on the boardwalks and tennis courts. In the afternoon one-piece dresses of the same type, except that the dresses are apt to be long sleeved and the jackets sleeveless, are worn.

While so far leads everything else for evening wear, with black a close second. White frocks are apt to be of chiffon, satin or tulle, but the majority of the black dresses are tulle.

Against the black and white costumes, diamond jewelry gleams out conspicuously, and there seems to be more and finer jewelry on display than ever before.

Quite a few yellow frocks, especially in blended shades of butterscotch yellow and cream, appear at gala dances. Shaded blue tulle and gowns which combine tints of pearly and petalium, also have created admiring comment.

Mrs. Ellen G. Hurlbutt, of Tabor, Iowa, has attended the same church for 53 years.

Announcements

The regular meeting of the Lutheran Ladies Aid society will be held tomorrow afternoon at the home of Mrs. L. J. Ebert, 894 B. avenue.

The Neighbors of Woodcraft will hold a special called meeting for balloting on candidates and consideration of any other business, tomorrow evening at 8 o'clock at Mrs. Arthur Dahl's, 2764 North Second street.

Left for Portland— Earl Blackland left this morning for Portland. He will return tomorrow night.

MENUS

By Sister Mary
Cherries may suggest only the cherry pie of "Hilly boy" fame, but they can be used in many delicious desserts and are a distinct boon to the menu planner if she learns how to use them.

The big sweet cherries are popular served "au naturel," and certainly nothing could be easier for the cook than to wash and drain the fruit ready for serving.

A jellied salad made of the juice of tart cherries and gelatine with stoned white cherries scattered through it is good and not ordinary. This salad can be made the day before wanted for serving and is particularly good if chopped nuts are added to the mayonnaise.

A cherry upside-down cake is very good and bakes while dinner is being served and eaten.

The cherry puddings are innumerable. Baked cherry pudding was a favorite dish for farm "hands" when cherry pie failed.

Cherry sauce is another country dish. Tart cherries are pitted and sprinkled with sugar and allowed to stand for an hour. Serve with bread and butter.

Pitted cherries are good added to a bread pudding. Cherry roll and cherry dumplings are liked but should be served with a liquid sauce rather than sugar and cream as is used with the apple puddings.

Cherry Pudding
Four tablespoons butter, 2 cups sugar, 1 cup milk, 2 cups flour, 4 teaspoons baking powder, 2 cups pitted cherries, 1 cup hot water.
Cream butter and rub in 1 cup sugar. Mix and sift flour and baking powder and add alternately with milk. Stir until smooth and turn into a buttered baking dish. Mix cherries with remaining sugar and hot water and pour over dough. Bake 40 minutes in a moderate oven and serve warm.
