AT THE THEATERS

Mounted Police In Picture Coming to Star

When James Oliver Curwood writes of the great Northwest above the Canadian border he does so with a surety born of long and intimate association with the country and its people—trappers, loggers, woodsmen, the famed Royal Northwest Mounted Police and all the other colorful elements of the rugged region.

This was never better exemplified than in the film production of his famous story, "The Yellow Back," which was made by Elio with Tom Moore in the title role and is showing at the Star theater Saturday.

Moore is seen in the role of a "mountain" one of the intrepid police of the Royal Northwest Mounted, whose desperate adventures in the film, of course, for Powell casts a role in "Interference" that shows him being ardently pursued by no less a person than pretty Evelyn Brent.

Powell, veteran of many villainous screen characterizations, has one of the four leading roles in the latest Paramount picture which was adapted to the screen from the stage play of the same name. "Interference" has four central

Wild West Thriller Now Showing Here

A real wild west thriller, hand-drawn in a novel fashion, that will delight grown-ups as well as youngsters, is "The Lawless Legion," the latest Charles B. Rogers, producer for First National pictures, starring Ken Maynard, now at the Colonial theater.

Ken portrays the part of a young devil-may-care fellow, who is taken from jail to lead the starving herds of cattle to green pastures. Ken and Tarsan manage through great difficulties, not the least of which is distance, to get the herd to Grass Valley; but he has to circumvent "The Lawless Legion," a gang of cattle thieves which has been terrorizing the country for miles around.

An all star cast has been gotten together to support Ken with Nora Lane, Paul Hurst, J. P. McGowan, Frank Rice and Howard Truesdell, Harry J. Brown directed.

HER INCONSISTENCY

The housewife over her labor sighs, 'Tis overworking whereof she frets, then she goes out and buys Some more things to take care of.

Census Taker—Your husband's name, please.

Mrs. Grogan—Pat.

Census Taker—I want his full name.

Mrs. Grogan—Well, son, when he's full he thinks he's Gene Tunney, but when it lay me hands on 'em, he's just plain Pat again.

A tailor's sign should be the apple. If it had not been for the apple, clothes would not be where they are today.

Laundry Department—"May I see some trunks, please?"

Laundry Salesman: "Do you prefer the plain ones, Madam, or shall I show you some of our new metal trimmed, indestructible, camp or running board type?"

Lady: "Just plain ones, I guess. My husband wants to wear them in swimming."

Life would hardly be worth living were it not for Saturday nights and it is hardly worth living because of Monday mornings.

It is no longer funny for a woman to run for office, but she still

"Interference" Now Playing At Arcade

For the first time in his career William Powell receives a kiss that he does not have to fight for! Meaning in the film, of course, for Powell casts a role in "Interference" that shows him being ardently pursued by no less a person than pretty Evelyn Brent.

Powell, veteran of many villainous screen characterizations, has one of the four leading roles in the latest Paramount picture which was adapted to the screen from the stage play of the same name. "Interference" has four central

Advertising Campaign

CHICAGO, June 28 (AP)—A million dollar a year newspaper advertising campaign was formulated today by directors of the Apple for Health association. Paul Stark, who was elected president of the association, said the advertising budget would be paid for by a tax of one cent a bushel on apples sold by producers.

Governor Harry Byrd, of Virginia, one of the largest orchard owners in the state, was elected vice president.

ON LOCATION

THE VIEW AT KNOB HILL MANOR IS SIMPLY DIVINE. YOU LOOK OVER THE ENTIRE CITY. IT MAKES YOU FEEL SO SUPERIOR LOOKING OVER EVERYTHING YOU MUST BE SURE TO SEE IT.

WE'LL MAKE ONE MORE TRY AND DASH OUT THERE AFTER DINNER.

HERE WE ARE WASTING ANOTHER EVENING ON A BUM STEER. IF THIS IS SCENERY I NEVER WANT TO SEE THE ALPS. THIS WOULD BE A GREAT PLACE FOR SOMEBODY LIKE SANTA CLAUS, WHO GETS A KICK OUT OF LOOKING DOWN CHIMNEYS.

IT'S JUST ANOTHER ONE OF THOSE THINGS. HAVING YOUR FRIENDS PICK OUT A GARDEN SPOT TO PLANT YOUR NEW HOME ON IS LIKE HAVING SOMEONE ELSE CHOOSE YOUR HUSBAND.

Freckles and His Friends

WAW! BOY! THIS AIR UP HERE CERTAINLY MAKES A FELLA HUNGRY, DOESN'T IT, FRECKLES?

YEAH—WE OUGHTA GET FAT. JUST SMELL THOSE PORK CHOPS CHARLIE'S COOKING FOR US!

I'LL HAVE ANOTHER PLATE OF THOSE PORK CHOPS AND HASH BROWN POTATOES, CHARLIE!

YESSA—TAGALONGS RIM FLINE BLIG EATER—TASTE GOOD, DON'T EM!

WHERE IN THE WORLD ARE YOU GOING TO PUT THEM, TAG?

OH, I'LL PUT THEM ALL RIGHT!

GLUT MORE FOR YOU TOO.

JUST WAIT TILL YOU SMACK YOUR LIPS ON THOSE CHOPS AND POTATOES—LICK UP EVERY SCRAP TOO, BECAUSE CHARLIE DOESN'T LIKE PEOPLE TO JUST PICK AT WHAT HE FIXES!

Charlie's Cooking

WE WANT A PLACE WITH A VIEW. I GET SO SICK OF SEEING THE SAME BRICK WALL IN THE COURT HERE.

Sometimes when people don't talk sense, what they need is change.

looks as funny as ever when running for a train.

If he carries her bundles, holds the umbrella over her while he gets wet himself, and takes her arm when going up steps and is otherwise profusely polite—she's not his wife.

Bernice, three years ago, was asked by her daddy, who had just returned from work, what she had been doing all day.

"Oh," she answered, "just setting minn' easy."

The Fair One: "I suppose you will marry, though, when the golden opportunity offers, won't you?"

The Cautious One: "It will depend on how much gold there is in the opportunity."

Mac—She may be beautiful, but she's resourceful.

Vera—How come?

Mac—She forgot her powder puff yesterday, but she wasn't fooled. She powdered herself with a marsh-mallow.

About the only time a man shows as much bare arms as a woman does when she is out in public, is when he is taking a bath.

Norman ran blithely up the steps and gave the bell a joyful tug. The door was opened by the new maid, who had never seen the young man before.

"Is Miss Edith in?" asked the well-tailored youth on the steps.

"Yes, she," replied the girl. "But, I'm sorry, she's engaged."

"That's right," agreed Norman. "Absolutely right, and I'm what she's engaged to."

Civilization is improving. People are now only half-shot at dawn.
