New York National League Team Gains as Cubs Defeat Cardinals

By William J. Chipman
(Associated Press Sports Writer)

A large portion of the Delaware river, come into Shibe park at an inopportune moment yesterday caused a let-up in the persecution of the Yankees by the Athletics. With 30,000 Philadelphians yelling for more of the blood of Huggins the second game of the series was put over until August 7 when a double-header will be played.

Eastern teams in the National league also suffered from the rain yesterday. Unwilling to permit such gate pluralities as the Phillies to remain unattended, the Giants immediately arranged a double-header for this afternoon, which marked four games with the Phils in two days as a double-header already was carded for Sunday. The Robins also will double with the Braves on the Sabbath.

Giants Move Up

John J. McGraw climbed into third place through remaining idle yesterday as the Cubs obligingly defeated the Cardinals and previously were tied with the New Yorkers. The Cubs themselves rode to the crest on their 7 to 2 triumph as Cincinnati defeated Pittsburgh by 11 to 2 in the third game of the series. This combination of events gave the Bruins a virtual tie in games with the Pirates, but the McCarthy entry led because of fewer defeats.

The Senators and the Red Sox offered the only action in the eastern half of the American league, the Bostonese winning by 5 to 2, but all of the western clubs took the field. Alvin Crowder pitched the Browns to a 7 to 2 breeze over the White Sox in Chicago, and Cleveland shaded George Uhle and the Tigers by 5 to 4 at Detroit.

Crowder in Good Form

Crowder was particularly impressive, holding Lena Blackburne's team to just five hits. The victory increased the Browns' margin over the third-place Yankees to one and one-half games and decreased their deficit under the leading Macks to ten contests.

Heinie Manush collected three of the thirteen St. Louis hits, and so became the first American league batsman to reach a total of 100 safe drives.

George Uhle, who has found the going rough since he broke his string of nine straight victories, lost a close battle to John Miljus at Navin field because the Tigers erred behind him. The Tigers outhit the Indians by 11 to 9. The defeat was Uhle's fourth of the season against ten victories.

League Leading Reds Strengthen Their Position

By The Associated Press

The league leading position of the San Francisco Mission Reds was made more secure yesterday by virtue of a victory the Reds scored over the Hollywood Stars, and the triumph of the Los Angeles Angels over the San Francisco Seals, who only a few days ago had threatened to displace the Reds at the top.

The double advance of the Killefer crew gave the boys first half honors in the Pacific coast league flag contest and should a split season be declared, as now seems certain, they will benefit financially, as well as otherwise.

Missions Gain

The Missions made it four straight over the Stars in the southern city by taking the game 3 to 2 after a twelve inning mound duel between the veteran Harry Krause and Frank Shellenback, Hollywood pitcher.

The Angels pounded out 22 hits for an 18 to 5 score over the Seals at Recreation park. They seemed to have no respect at all for Elmer Jacobs, league leading twirler.

Portland Wins Again

Portland won from Oakland in twelve innings 4 to 3, making two straight for the Ducks in the north. Portland gained an early six run lead off Craghead, but the Oaks tied in the sixth and eighth innings, mostly through the efforts of Buzz Arlett, who made two homers off Chesterfield, accounting for five of the six Oakland runs.

Yesterday's coast league results:

At Portland (12 innings):

	R.	H.	E.
Oakland	3	10	2
Portland	4	11	0

Batteries: Craghead, Jeffcoat, Kunz and Read; Chesterfield, Knight and Rego, Woodall.

Belanger-Hudkins Purse Is Withheld

SAN FRANCISCO, June 29 (AP)—On the ground that the fight between "Ace" Hudkins, Nebraska wildcat, had "looked bad," Joe Genshlea, secretary of the state boxing commission, held up the purse, amounting to about $20,000, here last night.

Genshlea announced the withholding of the purse shortly after the ending of the bout, which resulted in a decision for Hudkins.

Fight fans hurled their programs and other papers into the ring to show their disapproval of the brand of boxing exhibited and most of the sport writers agreed that it "certainly did look bad."

Genshlea, who said he had acted upon the orders of William Hanna, state boxing commissioner, announced that an investigation would be held, probably next Tuesday.

Del Wolfe Kayos Portland Fighter
