DE PRIEST HITS BACK AT SOUTH IN OHIO SPEECH

appreciate a penny to enforce the 18th amendment until similar sums are voted to enforce these other amendments now being violated all through the south."

To Appoint Negroes
De Priest said as a congressman he will pay as much attention to the needs of his white constituents as to those who are black.

"Only in one respect will I insist favoring negroes, and that is in my recommendations for appointments to West Point and Annapolis. As long as I am in congress, I'll appoint only negroes to those two schools, or until some white congressman appoints a negro."

"I want to thank the democrats of the south for one thing—they were so barbaric they drove my parents to the north. If it hadn't been for that I wouldn't be in congress today."

"I've been Jim Crowed, segregated, persecuted, and I think I know how hot the negro can put a stop to being imposed upon. It is through the ballot, through organization, through fighting eternally for his rights."

De Priest's reference to "driving his parents to the north," harkened back to his childhood in Northern Alabama. There he witnessed the lynching of three negroes near his home, and after that his parents moved to Kansas and later to Chicago.

While the 2,000 persons in the hall where the congressman spoke, cheered him loudly and long, another 1,000 stood outside, unable to gain admittance.
