So will I, master as fast as I can;
Pat it, and prick it and mark it with B,
Put it in the oven for baby and me.

Little Jack Horner sat in a corner
Eating his Christmas pie.
He stuck in his thumb and pulled out a plum
And said, "What a god boy am I!"

When "Lindy" was a little boy,
He'd given much to own a toy
Like the airplanes we have for sale,
They look like the ones that carry the mail;
Their motor is a rubber band that drives them far and high.

Little Tom Tucker sings for his supper,
What shall he sing for, but white bread and butter,
How shall he cut it without a knife?
How shall he marry without any wife?

But mother soon will make them cheery

It made the children laugh and play to see the lamb at school.
