as delightful as death from an operation.

The vain sex is the one that wears a hot coat all summer to conceal its funny shape.

"Well, how did you sleep last night?" asked the landlady of the new boarder.

"I didn't rest much," he replied. "I was troubled all night with insomnia."

"Sir," was the landlady's indignant comment. "I've never heard such a complaint before, and I'd have you know I've had your letters as my boarder's! Moreover, she went on, as he began to numble an explanation "I do not believe you sir, and am willing to board you free if you had a single one in the bed."

Old party—"I am 50, young man, and I don't recollect ever having told a lie."

Young man—"Well, you can't expect your memory to be reliable at that age."

There is nothing that costs so little and is appreciated and enjoyed as much as flattery.

Miss Bright: I use the dumbbells to get color in my face.

Her Uncle: Sensible girl! That's a lot better than using color on your face to get the dumbbells.

Citizen Cullidge says he doesn't like to write. However, he writes.

Notice is hereby given, that I have received execution and order of sale issued out of and under the seal of the Circuit Court of the State of Oregon for the County of Union, dated the 3rd day of July, 1929, in the matter therein pending wherein The Citizens' National Bank of Baker City, a corporation, is plaintiff, and Herbert Mires and Bessie Mires, his wife, are defendants, to me directed, upon a judgment in the sum of $1120.00, with interest thereon at the rate of 7 per cent per annum from the 6th day of May, 1922, until the 30th day of November, 1923, and the further sum of $15.00 costs and disbursements, and the further sum of 4 per cent per annum on the entire amount aforesaid from the 30th day of November, 1923, in which said execution I am commanded to satisfy said sums out of the personal property of the defendant Bessie Mires, or if sufficient cannot be found, then out of the real property belonging to her, on and after July 31, 1929.

NOW THEREFORE, by virtue and authority of said writ, and in obedience to its commands, I duly levied upon the following described real property standing in the name of said defendant on July 30, 1929:

Lot Eight (8) in Block Sixty-five (65) of Chapter's Addition to La Grande, Union County, Oregon.

And I will, on Monday, the 5th day of August, 1929, at two o'clock p. m., of said day, at the front door of the court house in La Grande, Union County, Oregon, sell at public auction the above described real property, and all the right, title, estate, interest and equity of the defendants therein and thereto, to the highest bidder for cash, subject to redemption as provided by law. The proceeds to be applied in satisfaction of said judgment and decrees, including costs and accruing costs of execution and sale.

Dated this 31st day of July, 1929.

JESSE BISHOPHART, Sheriff of Union County, Oregon.
