Hoover Discards Famous Coat

Maybe the weather is getting hot in Washington or maybe it's for some other reason, but at any rate President Hoover has discarded his famous double-breasted coat for the natty, single-breasted kind and here's the proof. At the left is a recent photo of Mr. Hoover, showing the single-breasted outfit that he now wears, while at the right the older pictures show him as he appeared during his vacation in Florida just prior to his inauguration (above) and as he donned a year ago. The famous Hoover collar, you will observe, has also undergone a slight change.

Defeat Friday Tenth Straight For Champions

By WILLIAM J. CHIPMAN (Associated Press Sports Writer)

Guns were spilled generally along the baseball front yesterday as the major league armies moved into positional battles, but the Cardinals found time to lose their tenth straight while waiting for the other teams to swing into action.

The champions were accommodated yesterday by nobody but the Phillies, who obligingly dropped 20 out of 22 to St. Louis last year.

Joe Hanna made it for a slip a fast one past Charlie Klein, first Philadelphia batsman in the tenth inning, after Master Klein had refused to bite at swinging into action.

The fast one was just to Klein's liking, and he drove it high over the right field wall of Baker bowl to give the Phils a 10 to 9 decision.

It was his twentieth home run and enabled him to keep pace with Chuck Harley of St. Louis, who picked up his own twentieth earlier in the game.

Reds Play Giants The Cardinals will remain in Philadelphia for a full series, and the Cubs will invade the citadel of the Braves today for the rest of the inter-sectional openings will be delayed until tomorrow.

The Reds, who hold the Giants in no awe, will come to the Polo grounds for two games on the Sabbath after a farewell break with Pittsburgh today, and the fast moving Pirates will settle themselves at Ebbets field, Brooklyn will entertain at the Polo grounds today.

As the Pirates and the Cubs give each other heart failure in the dash toward the National league stretch, Cecil-Hus McGillicuddy moves serenely toward his seventh flag with his two nearest rivals, the Yankees and the Browns, nine and one half games to the rear.

The Mackinnon open a series at Chicago today as the Yankees and the Browns begin a fight to see which shall hold second place for the moment.

Greggy Game The Indians turned back the White Sox by 11 to 10 in a scraggy game at Cleveland yesterday prior to the arrival of Boston in Cleveland and of Washington in Detroit for two stirring series.

The victory gave the Indians an edge of four games to two in the extended holiday engagement.

GREAT BRITAIN WINS ST. ANDREWS, Scotland, July 6 (AP)—Great Britain won the senior international three-cornered golf match today with a score of 41 points. The United States was second with fifteen points and Canada third, scoring 12 points.
