Epworth League Enjoys Picnic Up Starkey Highway

Members of the Epworth League of the Methodist church had for the subject of their meeting Sunday evening "God's Out of Doors" and to make the meeting as helpful and practical as possible several cars of young people formed a caravan and drove out to the river at a point on the Starkey road. A picnic supper was spread on the river bank and there, also, the devotional meeting was held with the young people making the subject for discussion very interesting. Mrs. George Pierce and family of Pendleton were out of town visitors.

Picnic Supper To Honor Visitor

A group of young women are driving to the Tom Wallinger farm on the lower Cove road for a picnic supper this evening in honor of Mrs. Frances Dougherty of Portland who is visiting her sister, Miss Mae Strains.

Music Recital At Cove Draws Crowd

La Grande people were interested in a music recital given Saturday evening at French Hall, Cove, by the pupils in Mrs. J. C. Lay's class. The hall with its new decorations, flowers everywhere, took on quite a festive air. The little folk on the program were quite attired and each had and music rendered in a very pleasing manner, with a few exceptions the class having been made up entirely of little folk. The hall was filled with a very appreciative audience. The program was given as follows:

- 2 Piano solo, "Camel Train" (Barnes) Reba and Della Gray.
- Piano solos, "Sing Lee" (Chin Roy), (Lively) and "At the Fair" (Mac Lachlan, Lois Baker).
- Piano solo, "Out of Doors" (Low) Ada Beebeers.
- Piano solo, "Wood Nymph's Ecstacy" (Aaron) Lewis Geles.
- Song, "Three Little Chestnuts," by Roy Wilson.
- Piano solos, "Wayside Rose" (Hocher) and "The Frog Pond" (Gibbel) Maxine Conley.
- 2 Piano solos, "Hark Vesper Bells" (Johnson) and "To a Katydid" (Fox) Berta Barker.
- Song, "Little Chick," Wanda Betty Orten and Don Miller, Jean Miller at the piano.
- Piano solo, "Joyous Moment" (Hartmann) Phyllis Hancock.
- Piano solo, "A Little March" (Wright) Ruth McNeil.
- Piano solos, "Glimmer" (MacLachlan) Velma Richards.
- Piano solo, "Happy Farmer" (Schumann) Cleo Conley.
- Song, "His Buttons Are Marked 'I. S.'" (Bond) Gertrude and Roberta Bell.
- Piano solo, "In a Giant's Garden" (Hogers) Nelda Price.
- Piano solo, "Jolly Darkies" (Bechter) Alvin Petermann.
- Piano duet, "Hogs of the Nation" (Gibbel) Lois and Cleo Conley.
- Piano solo, "Friends Again" (Volgt) George Chadwick.
- Piano solo, "Moonlight Revels" (Andrew) Reba Gray.
- Piano solo, "Forest Voices" (Coolie) Jean Miller.
- Piano solo, "El Destierro" (Cram) Della Gray.

dition, is in charge of the music. The La Grande band will consist of 25 men for this engagement and will be quartered at Pendleton the four days of the Round-Up.

Reports received from Pendleton give promise of this year's Round-Up surpassing all former shows. The association has been making preparations this summer for several features for the four-day world's championship show in September, at which time rodeo kings will be crowned, after the first half of the competition for the season is completed in the Cheyenne Frontier Days celebration.

Another item of interest to La Grande people is that Miss Margaret Higgs, La Grande American Legion beauty queen, will serve as attendant to the Round-Up queen, Carl Davidson.

personal property. A cursory examination of these pieces revealed no presence of the narcotics but under orders from Farmer, they were resubbed and it is expected will be reopened for further search today.

The young Chinese woman refused, however, to reveal the names of her friends whom she said owned the narcotic-filled baggage, declaring "They would have me killed if I told."

"Even if I remained in America, they would find a way to end my life if I even as much as hinted who they were," she said.

Husband Dumb-founded

Her husband, Ying Kao, vice-consul here since 1925, stood dumb-founded as trunk after trunk revealed its contents—more opium worth from $200 to $500 a tin and the finest of the many brands of opium the agents declare.

"That the opium was shipped by heads of a smuggling ring whose headquarters are in the Orient and whose operations have been uncovered by several agents and seizures in the past was the opinion expressed by the agents today."

Shocked at Friends

Mrs. Kao, 28, mother of two children, seemed less concerned.

FIRST NEWS OF BIRD MEN SINCE MONDAY

At noon Dr. James H. Kimball, chief of the New York weather bureau, said that from now on the Pathfinder should be flying in "an absolutely clear sky."

"Up until midnight last night, while they were over the ship lanes. They probably encountered a good deal of rain and low ceiling," he said. "But the tall wind, about 20 miles an hour, was still steadily helping them forward. There were no severe storms."

"At midnight they must have come out of the clouds, and by 8 o'clock this morning, Eastern Standard time, they should have been north of the Azores, with nothing but clear weather ahead."

Bible University President Resigns

EUGENE, Ore., July 9 (AP)—Dr. E. C. Sanderson, president of the Eugene Bible university, last night tendered his resignation to the executive board and it was accepted. Dr. Walter Myers, vice president, was named president. Dr. Sanderson founded the school which is supported by the Christian or Disciples denomination.

of any developments in the flight, and it was said his under-secretary Dabblo probably would be at the landing field to welcome the aviators, Roger Q. Williams and Lewis A. Vaneoy.

possibility of arrests in Honolulu seemed likely when customs officials intimated today's seizure put them on the track of several Honolulu smugglers, who, the agents said, would be placed under surveillance until additional information could be obtained that would make it possible to take them into custody.

At noon Dr. James H. Kimball, chief of the New York weather bureau, said that from now on the Pathfinder should be flying in "an absolutely clear sky."
