Visit at Lake
Mrs. L. A. McDonald and son, George, of the Iowa district, drove to the lake last week where they spent a few days at their cottage.

Moves to Washington
Mr. and Mrs. John Trossler and family are moving this week from their home near Alford to Washington where they will reside in the future. The Trossler family have been residents of the Alford section for a good many years.

Visiting Wallinger
Mrs. Margaret Oliver, of Portland, who is spending several weeks with relatives in the valley, is spending this week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Tom Wallinger on the lower Cove road. Mrs. Oliver will accompany her sister, Miss Bertha Wallinger, on her vacation trip which begins the last of this week.

Receives Injuries
Bonnie Stenedahl, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. Stenedahl who live on the Catherine Creek road, was injured considerably one day last week while helping in the hay field. The hay fork broke where the boy was working, the latter sustaining some torn ligaments and the bursting of a blood vessel in his arm.

Goes to Eugene
Lillian Austin, who is connected with the Old National bank at Spokane, left Sunday for Eugene to make a visit at the home of his grandparents. He spent last week at the home of his father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Austin, north of Summerville.

Making Improvements
C. C. Wolsch is improving the buildings on his old home place near Alford, where his son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Fuller, live. All of the buildings are being given a coat of paint.

Visitors From Pendleton
Mr. and Mrs. Ray Van Orsdahl and daughter, Thelma, Leon and Barbara Jandke, came from their home in Pendleton last week and visited over the vacation, spending the Fourth at the home of her mother, Mrs. M. Senter, at the Cove swimming pool, and joining their daughter, Lyle, who had been here for some time. Taking advantage of this assistance at the pool, Mrs. Senter went to Portland this morning on a short business trip. Mr. Van Orsdahl returned to Pendleton Sunday.

Spend the Day
Mr. and Mrs. Henry Laennig, of Muddy Creek, spent the Fourth with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Leffert, at Alford. Plans for the big Muddy Creek fair are being rapidly made, and it is hoped that the 1929 fair may be bigger than any of the preceding years.

Camp-fire Tonight
The two new camp fire groups at the Pleasant Grove grange are to meet tonight at the grange hall. All the preliminaries have not yet been taken care of and names for the two groups have not been selected.

Returns From Eugene
Miss Ellen Arnold has returned from Eugene where she spent several days. Miss Ellen started here on a nurse train at the Pacific Christian hospital there a year ago, then last fall was obliged to submit to a cataract operation. She hopes to take up her work again in the near future.

Have Fine Meeting
Mt. Panny grange held a splendid grange meeting Saturday with a good attendance and several important matters brought up. Among them being the presenting of two more members for membership to be added to the list of those who are to be initiated in September; Mr. and Mrs. C. G. Springer, master and lecturer respectively, who attended the state grange at Myrtle Point, sent in excellent reports; an invitation is extended to the county organization to hold the church Sunday and memorial exercises at Cove; the use of the hall for the meetings of the 4-H clubs was voted; the question of better finance for the sending of boys and girls to the summer school at Corvallis was discussed; it was decided to hold no meetings during the first of August while cherry picking was on. County agriculturist Wray Lawrence was present and during the lecturer's hour gave a talk on the benefits to be derived from having disease-free animals in dairies. J. B. Love gave two vocal solos. Visitors present from La Grande were Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Gekeler and Mr. and Mrs. Wray Lawrence.

Here From Spokane
Mr. and Mrs. T. L. Coburn and daughter, of Spokane, are in the valley visiting at the home of Mr. Coburn's niece, Mrs. Harry Fisher, of Valeria, and Mrs. Frank McKennon, of near Imbler. Sunday the Fishers, McKennons, Coburns, Melvin Carter and Mr. and Mrs. J. W. King drove to Wallowa Lake and had a good day, they reported it to be quite good there at that time.

Drive to Lake
Mr. and Mrs. Ed Hall and daughter, Melvia, of Pleasant Grove, and Mr. and Mrs. Booth McKennon and daughter, Evelyn, of Alford, drove to Wallowa Lake for the Fourth, reporting a very big crowd both at Enterprise for the celebration and at the resort. The two families also spent Sunday together at the Hall home, Evelyn remaining to spend the week with her cousin.

Has Vacation
Archie Keown, mail carrier out from Alford postoffice, is having his annual vacation. Together with Mrs. Keown and their two daughters he has gone on an auto trip to Seattle and other Washington points.

Visiting in Walla Walla
Mr. and Mrs. Grant Tucker and two daughters, Barbara Jean and Wanda Fay, have gone to Walla Walla for a visit among friends.

A Busy Place
Not every one cares to spend the Fourth with a crowd celebrating—that was evidenced by the great company of people who went to the hills and the more quiet places to spend last Thursday. One of the places which attracted the greatest number of private picnic parties was Catherine creek. It is reported that there were 500 cars reported along the banks of this beautiful stream, having carried 2500 people and the parking line started from shortly from Union

Make Large Shipment
Twenty two hundred lambs were brought to North Powder Sunday for shipment by Lee and Sons and Walter Steger and another came in Monday with more

Washington Visitors
Mr. and Mrs. Neil Kight and family, living on the lower Cove road, have been having as their guests Mr. and Mrs. Nelson Kight and daughter, Nora, and Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Kight, of Raymond, Washington.

Visit Sunday
Mr. W. H. Ledbetter, of Alford, and her house guest, Mrs. Hilda McKennon, of Woodland, California, and Charabelle Seaman, of Seattle, were Sunday guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George P. Childers near Cove. Mrs. McKennon, who is spending several weeks in the valley, which was formerly her home, is visiting for a few days this week at the Tom Wallinger home on the lower Cove highway.

Take Up Residence
Mr. and Mrs. Donovan Stewart have arrived in the valley and taken up their residence in the Westendkos property on the edge of Imbler. Mr. Stewart is the new Smith-Hughes instructor at the Imbler High school, succeeding L. L. Morgan.

Re-elected
Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Crow, the latter being known as Edna Meyer, of near Summerville, have been re-elected to positions in the school at Lostine for next year. My Crow is principal of the school and Mrs. Crow will teach in the grades. Both are spending the major part of the summer at Salem, where Mr. Crow is working.

Visits Mother
Mrs. Charles Keenan, of near Imbler, and her two children, Darwin and Lucille, visited Sunday at the home of her mother, Mrs. Conrad, in La Grande. Mr. Keenan has gone on a fishing expedition up to the Salmon river.

Leave For ew Home
Mr. and Mrs. Ralph L. Morgan and son were in the valley from Corvallis over the Fourth vacation, packed their household effects and left Friday night for the Williams-ette valley which is their home this summer. Mr. Morgan attended the conference of Smith-Hughes instructors at the state college, which was recently concluded.

Young People Wed
The marriage of Miss Leona Hanson, daughter of Rev. and Mrs. Hanson, of Island City, and Gus J. Mehl, of Glenns Ferry, Idaho, is being announced. Mrs. Mehl has been teaching at Glenns Ferry and came home in May for the first part of the summer vacation. They will make their home in the Idaho town.

Visit Relatives
Mr. and Mrs. Jay Dobbin and daughters, who live on a big ranch near Joseph, visited among relatives in the valley briefly last week. The parents and one daughter had come to La Grande to meet their two daughters, Margaret and Annette, who were coming home for the summer vacation. Miss Margaret has been in the university at Seattle and Annette has been in New York. Mr. Dobbin reports farming conditions in the Wallowa country to be as promising as they are at present in this valley.

Throughout the Week
The railroad yards as a result are showing additional activity with a large string of cars on sidings. The yards are destined for Chicago stockyards and other eastern points and the shipments will run into many thousands of dollars. This is one of the many important activities of the North Powder territory.

per's two little girls
Mrs. Sarah Anson's daughter and family and some families who are visiting her at present.

Annual Pomona Grange Picnic To Be July 24
July 24 is to be a big day for the farmers of the valley, and their families, who are connected either with the grange or the Union County Dairy Herd Improvement association. That is the day which has been selected for the annual Pomona grange picnic, and this year members of the dairy association are joining the company for a day at the experiment station at Union. Committees are already at work on the proposition, a very large crowd being expected.

Judging Days To Be Held For 4-H Boys And Girls
County agriculturist Wray Lawrence announces that a series of judging days for the boys and girls who belong to the livestock clubs is being arranged and will probably come off the middle or latter part of this month. The series will, in all probability, consist of four days of intensive instruction for the club members, and there will be judged, beef cattle, dairy cattle,

Under Cover Men Protected In Jail
OKLAHOMA CITY, July 7 (AP).—Fearing possible mob violence in Teemuch, officers last night took W. W. Thompson, federal prohibition enforcement officer, and three "under cover" workers, Jeff D. Harris, Tom Little and John D. Williams, charged with the killing of James Harris in a liquor raid July 4, to the Oklahoma county jail here.

Individual records will be kept of each member participating, and for each day's work. At the end of the series, those who rate the highest in the group of tests will be chosen to form the judging teams who will be sent from Union county to both the state fair at Salem and to the Pacific International at Portland.

BE READY WHEN

YOUR GRAIN IS READY

Grain ripe? It won't wait!

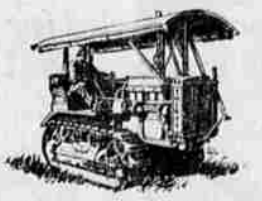

Get your Holt combine now. Become familiar with its adjustments - learn to know it.

Then when the grain is ready - ready to harvest with just you, and the boys.

Ready to save the grain, for Holt combines shake, toss and pick. By positive agitation the straw is "kept in a fog" from the cylinder to the exit. Rapidly rotating pickers and beaters have positive control of the straw.

The extra bushels - the extra dollars reward for a clean harvester . . . deposit them to the account of harvesting better, quicker, cheaper, easier.

You are invited to visit the display of Holt combines at our place of business.

The "Caterpillar" Thirty is the popular Farm Tractor.

Holt Harvester is the Caterpillar's mate at Harvest Time.
