OUT OUR WAY

AT THE THEATERS

"Dream of Love" Now Showing At The Star

Fred Niblo had to stage a court ball, lead a revolution, present an opera, manage a carnival and command a firing squad when he directed "Dream of Love," now at the Star theatre as a new Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer feature. The plot concerns the efforts of Mix, the foreman of a "dude ranch," to recover the famous Herent diamond, stolen from the daughter of the ranch owner.

Tom Mix In "Big Diamond Robbery" at Star

Tom Mix, probably the most popular star of the screen for the past five years, and originator of the "new type" of western picture, is to be seen in his latest PEO production, "The Big Diamond Robbery," at the Star theatre starting Friday. Mix holds a position in the hearts of picturegoers that few screen stars have been able to attain. He provides entertainment for old and young alike. Tom Mix always has striven to keep his pictures clean. He has always believed that feature should be upmost.

Laura La Plante Is a Brunet In "Show Boat"

Laura La Plante, the pretty heroine of "Show Boat," the universal dialogue and singing photo-drama now showing at the Arcade theatre, wasn't raised on a show boat as Magnolia, the role she plays in the picture, but she grew up on the banks of the broad Mississippi river, and learned from an old negro mammy the same songs and plaintive appeal in the picture which she renders with such feeling.

Nancy Carroll Featured In "The Sin Sister"

How quickly their thin veneer of civilization is shed by human beings (under given conditions) is the animating motif behind the new Fox Films production, "The Sin Sister," coming to the Colonial Friday and Saturday. Unusually capable players appear in the vigorous characterizations, namely: Nancy Carroll, Lawrence Gray, Josephine Dunn, Alexander Randolph, Myrtle Stedman, Richard Alexander, Frederick H. Graham and George Davis.

Educators' Salaries

Expenditures for salaries of teachers amount to approximately 70 per cent of the total current expenditure for elementary and secondary schools. In colleges and universities it constitutes a somewhat smaller part, or approximately 60 per cent of the total spent for operation and maintenance.

Wearily Willie

Wearily Willie asked for bread. Wherever he did stop; A housewife passed the axe and said: "First, won't you have a chop?" But Wearily Willie simply sighed. As he perceived the point, He turned to go, remarking: "I'd prefer another joint."

Obtaining Her: "You are the most beautiful girl I've ever seen. I long to hold you in my arms, to caress you, to kiss your eyes, your hair, your lips—to whisper in your ear, 'I love you!'"

She: "Well, I guess it can be arranged."

Here's to the girls—the young ones Not so young, And nobody wants a dead one. Here's to the girls—the old ones—Not too old, For the old dye, too, And nobody wants a dyed one!

A noted scientist declares that the time will come when no coal at all will be used. Yeah, but what about brimstone?

Mrs. McTavish: "Little August has just swallowed a penny! Will it be dangerous for him?" Mr. McTavish: "It will be if he doesn't cough it up!"

Bookkeeper Bess: "So you and Dick don't speak now?" Cashier Carrie: "No, we had a dreadful quarrel about who loved the other most."

As to foolish questions, there is the story of a man who had a sore on his forehead. When asked how to get it, he said that he hit himself.

"And how could you bite yourself on your forehead?" someone asked. "Well," he replied: "I stood on a chair."

Mame—I do hope I won't give myself away this summer at the seashore. Mabel—How do you mean? Mame—It's this manuring business. Gets you into the habit of reaching for a fellow's hand.

Another unusual way to spend a two-weeks vacation is to read all of a Sunday newspaper.

About the only thing made better by whipping is cream.

"Your school report is not so good this month, Johnny." "I can't help it, dad—the kid that has to do my arithmetic examples is all at me and I had to do 'em myself."

WEARILY WILLIE
Wearily Willie asked for bread. Wherever he did stop; A housewife passed the axe and said: "First, won't you have a chop?" But Wearily Willie simply sighed. As he perceived the point, He turned to go, remarking: "I'd prefer another joint."

Another place he pitched his tent And there a rest did take; He showed his nerve by asking if He could not have a steak.

Was the lady agreeable? She was anyth'ng, sir, but; She got the lawn mower out And said: "Oh, have a cut!"
