TWO PLANES RACING WEST OVER OCEAN

Famous French flier and Jacques Bollomonte followed just 45 minutes later at 5:52 a. m.

Frenchmen Sighted The French fliers were sighted three times, once over Tours, the second by a fisherman off the French coast due west of Bordeaux and the third time over Santander, Spain.

While flying between Tours and Bordeaux, Coste dropped a note saying that everything was going fine and that he intended to follow the steamship lane.

Both planes should reach New York tomorrow afternoon if all goes well, the French a little in advance for their machine is faster than that of the Poles.

Although the two planes headed in different directions at the start their courses came close together near the Azores when both plan to continue by the same route by way of Halifax to New York.

Excitement Grows The sensational start of the first trans-Atlantic air race soon became known in Paris and throughout France and excitement grew with each succeeding report of the progress of the Question Mark as the French machine is known.

CARRYING FILMS LEHOUCQET, France, July 13 (AP)—Dieudonne Coste and his flying companion, Jacques Bollomonte, are carrying to the United States a motion picture of their own departure.

While in flight, they took aboard a packet of films that recorded the preliminaries and departures both of their rivals in the Marshal Pilsudski and their own Question Mark.

WOMAN KILLED IN WRECK SALEM, Ore., July 12 (AP)—Mrs. Henry Mehl, 29, was killed near Tillam Friday afternoon when her automobile stalled on a grade and overturned when she attempted to steer it into a bank. She was on her way to pick berries when the accident occurred. Two daughters in the machine were not damaged.

Products Steady Or Higher Today; Berries Scarce

PORTLAND, Ore., July 13 (AP)—The East Side market of the Gardeners' and Ranchers' association was a busy place today with most products holding steady and several others advancing.

The raspberry season is still stubborn despite its advancement, thus giving hint of a smaller harvest than expected. The warm weather was said to be doing some damage to the fruit by drying them up. Loganberries were scarce and firm, a most unusual state of affairs for this season.

Following prices were quoted: Raspberries $1.75 to $2; strawberries $1.75; quality poor; black caps $1.75 to $2; loganberries $1.25; peas 4 to 5 cents; beans 9 cents; carrots, beets and onions 25 cents; bunch; new potatoes 3 to 4 cents; cucumbers $1.25 dozen; squash $1.50; tomatoes $2.75 crate; turnips 40 cents dozen bunches; big cherries 10 cents; Royal Anns 10 cents; pie cherries 8 cents; celery hearts $1.50; radishes 20 cents dozen bunches; Italian squash 50 cents; asparagus $3.75; spinach 45 cents; cabbage $1.

CHICAGO LIVESTOCK CHICAGO, July 13 (U. S. D. A.) Cattle: 2,000; compared to a week ago strictly choice, weighty, fed steers steady; lower grades 25 to 50 cents lower; all grades of light yearlings 50 cents to $1 lower; vealers about steady; extreme top on fed steers $10.50; 25c higher than a week earlier; the close on all grades unevenly and in most instances slightly lower; strained best beef trade along with sharp expansion in supply figures; un-determined all plain classes except possibly strictly long fed offerings; extreme top light steers $16.25; yearlings $16.25.

Sheep: 5,000; market nominal, 4,500; direct demand ruled active through the week compared with the close of last week. Lambs mostly steady, some sales weak to 25 cents lower; yearlings 25 cents higher; fat ewes unchanged; week's top range lambs $13.35; natives $15.50; yearlings $12.75; fat ewes $6.75; late bulk prices range lambs $14.75 to $15.00; natives $14.50 to $14.75; late top $15.10; yearlings mostly $12.00 to $12.50; fat ewes $5.00 to $5.50; feeding lambs steady to strong; bulk 55 to 70 lbs. weight $12.25 to $13.75.

Hogs: 6,500; including 2,500 direct; market unevenly steady to 10 cents lower; big killers supporting the market; bulk desirable 100 to 200 lbs. weights $12.00 to $12.50; packing sows $10.05 to $10.75; shippers 500 estimated holdovers 2,000; butchers; medium to choice 100-200 lbs. $11.25 to $12.20.

The National Educational association estimates that for every dollar Arkansas spends on education, it pays $6.44 for motor cars.

our goal. "But we are very happy that we have won all records by over 71 hours. We desire at this time to thank the thousands of people all over the United States who have sent telegrams and letters of encouragement during the flight. They will never know how these messages helped us to win the fight, how they kept up our spirits and kept us determined to push on to the fullest of our powers.

Long, Gauebling Grind "As to the flight, it was a long, gruelling grind, but we feel as though it was well worth every effort that we made, and we are pleased with the interest which the people have shown toward us." Inspection of the 220 horsepower Whirlwind motor which carried the biplane to its astounding record showed that it was in excellent condition. The nine-cylinder air-cooled power unit was taken apart yesterday by W. E. Thomas, Wright Aeronautical corporation expert, and after being thoroughly looked over, he pronounced it as "ready to fly again."

It was estimated that the Angelino had flown approximately 19,760 miles in the journey which had taken it only a few miles from the airport. The average speed was 89 miles an hour, with the motor consuming 3,925 gallons of gasoline.

Paul Whittier, millionaire pilot and Slide Hulbert had charge of the refueling ship which kept motor and men supplied with the sustenance necessary to keep them in the air in their monotonous flight. Receive New Plane A new Buhl air-sea today was en route here, a gift to the fliers from the makers of the plane. Whirlwind motor, gift of the Wright Aeronautical corporation. Cash contributions amounting to more than three thousand dollars, and possible contracts for screen and stage appearances, as well as for newspaper and magazine articles, awaited the pair when they had completed their feat.

The flight was backed by William Gibbs McAdoo, former secretary of treasury who owns the plane, William G. McAdoo Jr., A. E. McManus Jr., manager of the Culver City airport where the flight was staged, and Paul Whittier, pilot of the refueling ship.

Closing Strong In New York Stocks NEW YORK, July 13 (AP)—The bull movement on the stock market ran into considerable week-end profit taking in today's short session, but operations for the advance pressed with violence in the rails, more than a dozen of which were sent up 2 to nearly 16 points, many to record levels. The utilities, particularly, encountered resistance, but recessions were generally limited to a point or less. Buying centered in the rails and utilities. Coppers were again under pressure, which unsettled the market somewhat for a time. U. S. Steel recorded a new high at 294, up a point. The close was strong, total sales approximating 2,500,000 shares.

PORTLAND LIVESTOCK PORTLAND, Ore., July 13 (AP)—Receipts: Hogs, 75; sheep 25, all direct. Approximate totals for week: cattle, 200; calves 175; hogs $265; sheep 550. Cattle market compared with week ago; all classes around steady, with trading slow, except strictly good steers strong to 25 cents higher. Two or three loads fairly good steers, $12. One load strictly good, $12.50. Other desirable kinds mostly $11 to $11.75, with feeders and low grade killers $10.50 down to $8.50. Scattering lots strictly good heifers, $11; bulk $8.75 to $10.50. Best cows, $9.50; bulk, $7.75 to $9. Low cutters down to $5. Sausage hogs mostly $8 to $8.50. Old head butcher bulks $8.75 to $9. Practical top light scalars, $14, with some commanding lot at $14.50. Calves, $11.50 down. Throwouts down to $7.50.

Hogs: killing classes mostly 25 cents higher. Feeders up 50 cents. Bulk good and choice light butchers, including drive-ins, $12.75. Scattering small lots Monday at $12.85. Over and underweight, $12.50 down. Packing sows mostly $9.25 to $9.75. Bulk slaughter pigs $11.50 to $11.75. Small choice lots, $12. Feeder pigs in strong demand at $12 to $12.50; closing top $13.

Sheep: quotably steady. Strictly choice Mt. Athaus and eastern Oregon lambs still quoted up to $12. Bulk of arrivals medium to fairly good, $9.50 to $11. Throwouts down to $8 and under. Bulk medium grade yearlings, $7.50 to $8. Ewes mostly $5 down.

WOOL MARKET BOSTON, July 13 (AP)—The value of the toadskin in the wool market showed an important move during the past week. The increase in demand was largely of 64s and finer grades of 50-60 good combing wools. Prices on these grades were about steady with slightly lower on some sales. Demand was fair on 50-55s and 48-50s strictly clothing wools. Clothing wools were slightly easier owing to the general weakness of woulen wools.

TO MUTUALIZE COMPANY PORTLAND, Ore., July 13 (AP)—C. F. Adams, president of the Oregon Life Insurance company, issued a statement today which was his announcement that policy holders had voted to mutualize the company.

DRAMATIC FINISH TO EPOCH-MAKING ENDURANCE FLIGHT (Continued from Page 1) provisions were whisked away to a hospital for physical examination and a complete rest. Dr. Frederick Rhodes, who examined them, said that their condition was "much better than might have been expected." "The temperature, blood pressure and pulse of each was about that which a person would show after violent exercise under ordinary conditions, with the exception that the return to normal was slower. "While they came through fine, I wouldn't want to see anybody else attempt it." Mendell and Reinhart both complained of slight deafness, but this had cleared away in large part by the time they were interviewed by newspapermen at their resting place at a hotel to which they were taken following the examination. There they issued this statement: "We are awfully proud of having the honor to hold the endurance record for refueling. We wish to take this opportunity to express our thanks and appreciation for all the help and encouragement rendered us during this flight. "In setting this record we have put it as high as possible. It was our intention of making 300 hours, but due to debris that had collected on the stabilizer and to the hatch blowing off and cutting a hole in the stabilizer of the Buhl, excessive vibration was caused and we were forced to land 45-hour short of our goal. "But we are very happy that we have won all records by over 71 hours. We desire at this time to thank the thousands of people all over the United States who have sent telegrams and letters of encouragement during the flight. They will never know how these messages helped us to win the fight, how they kept up our spirits and kept us determined to push on to the fullest of our powers.
