One Crew Operates Train For 42 Years

ATHENS, Ga., (AP)—Endurance, refueling and distance records of a kind—were claimed by three Athens men.

Tom Moore, engineer Arthur Cox, conductor, and John Mann, fireman, are waiting to see which roster after 42 years of labor on the same train.

Moore estimates he has guided the train the equivalent of 80 times around the earth. Cox says he has pushed a carload of tickets and Mann insists he has shoveled enough coal to burn Rome over again.

The train makes a short round trip daily between Athens and Lula, Ga.

OUT OUR WAY

AT THE THEATERS

"Big Diamond Robbery" At The Star

A unique departure in the field of western films is made in "The Big Diamond Robbery," Tom Mix's latest FBO thriller, which is the present attraction at the Star theatre.

Instead of placing the entire action of the picture in the battle country, the story opens in a metropolitan city, where the activities of a band of gem thieves are disclosed.

Tom Mix proves himself fully as much at home in the urban surroundings as on the open plains, for his sensational stunts in ransacking down the thieves in the city.

Later the action takes him back to his post as a foreman in an Arizona ranch, where the unusual story is wound up in fast-moving manner.

Appearing with Mix in "The Big Diamond Robbery" are Kathryn McGee, Martha Mattox, Henny Pausy, and other favorites, including Tom's horse Tony.

Davey Lee Wins Stardom At Age Of Four

Four-year-old Davey Lee was the first player to be chosen for Al Johnson's second super-special, "The Singing Fool," and it was his astonishingly natural work as the tragic figure, "Sonny Boy," that caused Warner to elevate him to stardom—and to present him in the delightful Vitaphone comedy, "Sonny Boy," showing at the Arcade theatre, starting Sunday.

Al Johnson's selection of Master Davey as the "Sonny Boy" of the "Singing Fool" meant a triumph for

Harold Lloyd Here Sunday In "Hot Water"

Harold Lloyd introduces a new type of light automobile, to "The Water," showing Sunday, Monday and Tues. at the Colonial theatre. He is the sole creator, the inventor and the producer. It is the "Butterfly Six" (no advertising intended) and if, through it, you don't receive more laughs than you have had for many a day, there is something wrong with your sense of humor. Some funny bone needs chiropractic treatment.

For the "Butterfly Six" is the center of one of the wisest and funniest fictions that has ever been seen in one of Harold Lloyd's comedies. There are two other rib-tickling sequences in this picture that

Office Cat

A bald-headed, scantly clad flapper was making her application at the pearly gates and St. Peter was putting her through her category.

"What was your occupation?" he inquired.

"Men called me a Gold-digger," she uttered.

"I'm sorry—but an account of the having we can't let you in here!"

Some girls are strong for all figures, except slim financial figures.

I wrote home for another $1,000 but my folks are getting sore! Look how they sign this letter! Mamma and Pappa.

Perhaps you have noticed that it is the people whom we can easily handle that we do not give a fig to handle.

Most of us prefer pleasant lies to unpleasant truths.

The simple truth is, dad prefers the mountains because he knows he looks ridiculous in a bathing suit.

Again we have one about a Scotchman who was invited to a party and told that each guest was to bring something. He brought his relatives.

If you desire to be known as a good conversationalist just let the other fellow do most of the talking.

An apple a day may keep the doctor away but an onion a day will keep everybody away.

A green brakeman on a mountain railroad was making his first trip up. They were going up a very steep grade, and with unusual difficulty the engineer succeeded in reaching the top. At the station, the looking out of his cab, the engineer saw the new brakeman, and said with a sigh of relief:

"I tell you, my lad, we had a job getting up there, didn't we?"

"You bet your life!" said the new man, "and if I hadn't put on the brakes when we started, we'd have slipped back."

Klamath Prepares For Elks' Meeting

KLAMATH FALLS, Ore., July 13 (Special)—This city is preparing already for the invasion of more than 3000 members of the Elks lodge on July 17 to 20, during the State Convention which will be held at that time.

Already the "Red, White and Blue" mingled with the "Purple and White" of Elksdom adorn the streets and flags, banners and bunting float from wires strung across the street.

Many of the yards and flower gardens of the city are featured by displays of purple and white flowers. As one of the features of the Convention an all-purple and white flower show will be held.

An ordinance at Nancy, France, forbids use of the saxophone after 10 p. m. That country certainly is progressing.
