OUT OUR WAY

AT THE THEATERS

Human Struggles Theme of Show Coming to the Star

The picture coming to the Star Theater on Saturday entitled, "Human Struggles" is a gripping drama revealing the secrets in the dual careers of men and women who pose as saints by day and live the lives of sinners at night.

It is vividly enacted against colorful backgrounds and luxurious surroundings. There are thrilling, sensational sequences of love, romance, pathos and tragedy in the action.

Under the skillful direction of John G. Adolfi, the Columbia production has become a masterpiece of human struggles in search of happiness under the crushing burden of economic pressure. The plot deals with conditions and situations familiar to every man, woman and child and forcefully presents the drama in them.

Victor Varconi and Dorothy Dwyer head a star cast which includes John Patrick, Edna Marion, Marjorie Bonner, Charissa Selwynne and Jack Mower.

Sue Carroll Seen As Aviatrix In "The Air Circus"

Efforts of young America to emulate the example of America's flying ambassador, Col. Charles A. Lindbergh, are graphically shown at the Star theater, where the Fox Film, "The Air Circus," opened yesterday. This is by no means an ordinary picture and fine direction, excellent photography and sterling ability on the part of a cast of young players makes of this sky epic a delightful screen entertainment.

Volcano Active Again in Hawaii, Rumbles Heard

HAWAII, July 26. (AP)—Pele, goddess of the volcano, who has slumbered since February, was active today at the "house of everlasting fire" in Halemauana, fire pit of the Kilauea volcano.

The first eruption, at 6:30 o'clock yesterday morning, was signaled by four fountains of lava that shot 150 feet into the air. They gradually grew stronger through the day until the columns attained a height of 400 feet while

Talkies Bring New Kind of Comedy

Screen comedy, having evolved slowly from the free-for-all chaos and pie-throwing stunts to the plot situation plane, is undergoing another revolutionary change. Talking pictures are responsible, according to those intimately connected with the film industry.

Talking films open up the realm of clever dialog for screen comedy and "The Dummies," Paramount's latest all-talking picture, a comedy melodrama, has taken full advantage of this new opportunity. It is now playing at the Arcade theater.

Stamboul Wealthy Must Care For The Poverty Stricken

STAMBOUL, Turkey. (AP)—The old question "Am I my brother's keeper?" has just been answered in the affirmative by the prefecture of Stamboul, the answer taking the form of a drastic law.

Under this law every well-to-do family in which the many divided into which the city is divided, must see to it that at least one pauperized family living in the same district does not starve or suffer from exposure.

Government inspectors are drawing up lists determining those families which are well-to-do, and those which are paupers. The former may use what method they choose for protecting the latter, either by supplying food from their own kitchens, by paying money allowances, or by procuring work for the able-bodied members of the pauper family.

As there are not enough wealthy families to equal the number of pauperized families needed for the thousands of impoverished in Stamboul, the government inspectors will delegate to the wealthy individuals only the worst cases. The Turkish Red Crescent Society, the equivalent of the Red Cross, will attempt to care for the others.
