

Local News In Brief

Returns After 54 Years—

When Mrs. Harriet McDonald entered Boise, Idaho, for the first time, more than a half century ago, she was riding in a stage coach of the Overland Express. Last week she made her second visit to the Idaho capitol—this time riding in an automobile over fine paved highways that were a far step ahead of the rough roads over which the stage coach had toiled. It was a real thrill to Mrs. McDonald to contrast the old entrance and the new to make her week's trip a particularly interesting one. She has just returned to her home here.

Leaves for Klamath Falls—

Mrs. Harold Lyman and sons, Bobby and Delbert, and Mrs. Orvan Brandt, accompanied Mrs. H. J. Lyman on a motor trip to Klamath Falls this morning.
