AT THE THEATERS

Pauline Frederick In "The Nest" At Colonial

Pauline Frederick is with us again, this time as the mother in a play, a photograph entitled "The Nest" at the Colonial theatre Sunday and Monday. The girl is in danger when her mother, Mame Jarrow, played by Miss Dresser, saves her at a terrific cost to herself. The girl goes back to the little country town without ever knowing it was her own mother who saved her.

"Not Quite Decent" is based on Wallace Smith's story "The Grouch Bag." It is another directorial achievement of Irving Cummings.

Clara Bow Here Sunday In First Talking Picture

No more dead play for the animated statures of Miss Clara Bow has ever been chosen than her latest vehicle, "The Wild Party," which comes to the Arcade theatre Sunday.

"The Wild Party" is a vivacious, fast-moving, all-talking production based on the story by Warner Pabian, famous author of popular novels of the jazz age.

MENUS

By Sister Mary

Cream puffs are made of what is technically called "choux paste." They are really a form of pastry and are peculiar in that they are twice cooked.

One of their chief merits lies in their excellent keeping qualities. They can be made several days before wanted but must be filled not long before using. This process is always simple.

There are many kinds of fillings, each one offering a different dessert. Since the shell itself is so sweet it need not be used exclusively for dessert but can take the place of a patty shell for creamer fish or meat. If grated cheese is added with the flour the case is good to hold salad as well as a creamed mixture.

"Choux paste is the foundation for eclairs or cream puffs. The shape of the finished pastry is the only difference.

The following rule will make twelve medium-sized puffs. One puff is allowed for each person to be served. The only "rub" about making this paste comes with the heating. Each egg is thoroughly beaten into the mixture separately and the procedure requires muscle. However, the result justifies the effort.

Puff Shells

One cup boiling water, 1-2 cup butter, 1 cup flour, 4 eggs.

Put butter and water into a sauce pan. Bring to the boiling point and when bubbling rapidly add the flour which has been sifted all at once. Stir vigorously over the fire until the mixture leaves the bottom and sides of the pan. Let cool. This cooked mixture must be very stiff and perfectly smooth. When cool add one egg—immediately—and beat until icing is perfectly incorporated into the dough and the mixture is smooth. Add each egg in this fashion, 10-15 on mixture from top of spoon onto an oiled and floured baking sheet and bake 40 minutes in a moderate oven. Cool before storing or sending to fill.

Make a little "fill" in the side, near the top of the puff shell, for the filling.
