Couple Leaves For Portland To Make Their Home

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond E. Hall, (Thelma Kitchin) accompanied by Mrs. Hall's sister, Miss Ella Belle Kitchin, left by car last night for Portland, where Mr. and Mrs. Hall will make their home. They will go on to Seattle for a short wedding trip while Miss Kitchin will remain in Portland several days as the house agent of Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Hall. The church wedding of Mr. and Mrs. Hall Sunday was an important social event.

Miss Haley Will Visit In Europe

Friends of Miss Lucia Haley, who at one time was librarian here, will be interested in the following item from the Corvallis Gazette-Times, telling of a European trip which Miss Haley, who is now on the Oregon State college library staff, is planning. The hostess at the farewell affair, Miss Ethel Hollister, is a sister of Tracy and Bert Hollister of this city. The item follows:

For Miss Lucia Haley who is on sabbatical leave from Oregon State college and will spend the year on the European continent, and Miss Blanche Stevens, dean of women at the College of Puget Sound, Tacoma, who has been in Corvallis for the summer session at Oregon State college, Miss Ethel Hollister entertained Wednesday night with a supper party at her north Sixth street home. Music and conversation followed the supper hour and Miss Haley told briefly of her plans for the year abroad.

Present besides the hostesses and members of the family were Mrs. Bertha Herse, Miss Gertrude Sines and Miss Ethel Wilkes. Miss Haley is a member of the library staff at Oregon State college. A number of small social affairs have been arranged for her in recent weeks by her friends. Miss Stevens, too, has been honored at several dinners and picnic gatherings.

C. E. Social Meet Enjoyable Event

About 55 young people of the Christian church were guests of Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Schroeder and their daughter, Boubah, last Friday evening when the monthly social meeting of the Christian Endeavor was held.

Most of the evening was spent playing games on the apartment lawn at the Schroeder farm home near Island City. Later in the evening refreshments were served by Miss Schroeder who was chairman of the social committee and Mrs. Elmer Miller, Miss Mildred Spencer and Miss Blanche Fleishman who were on the committee.

Pinks, pinks and other garden flowers carried out an orchid, pink and white color scheme.

The Rev. and Mrs. R. L. Putnam, advisors of the group, took part in the afternoon.

Announcements

The Women's society of the Christian church will meet with Mrs. Arno Voelz in Fruitdale tomorrow afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. Mrs. C. W. Bunting is leader for the day.

The Crystal Bohemian lodge No. 50 will meet Wednesday. It will be a social evening and a good turn out is expected.

PAY LOAD OF ZEPPELIN TO BE $500,000

York hotel owners. They have not decided whether to make the world tour.

Other passengers listed to make the trip to Germany include: Morris Shumetsky of Bridgeport, Conn., Lady Drummond Hay, Dr. Lasser Kiep of Berlin, and Dr. Walter H. Spiess, German minister of transportation. The last two were passengers on the trip over.

Mails Closed Today
Mails for the Zepppelin were ordered closed at 2 o'clock today by the postoffice department.

The freight for the return trip, while not as heavy as on the westward trip, includes two automobile tires, two packages of film, a typewriter, a book, a case of advertising material from a Cleveland firm, a case of scientific instruments and case of fly powder.

The pay load for the world trip is expected to bring $500,000, half the cost of the ship's construction. Of this 18 passengers paying $5,000 each will bring $182,000, while mail and freight, which Dr. Bekker said are more profitable, will bring twice as much.

Dr. Bekker said on the voyage around the world, the greatest danger was from famine in case the ship was unable to land before her provisions were exhausted. He said the worst part of the trip would be the first part of the flight from Friedrichshafen to Tokyo as they might encounter clouds and rain while crossing the mountains of Siberia.

Style Makers Turn Thoughts To Early Fall

A short cloak and dress of the same material, with fur collar and pockets and hat following the lines of a bathing cap, make a chic ensemble for early fall. Center: The vogue of the one skirt scarf brings in the red fox, especially for early fall frocks. Right: A Martin's gown of the coat variety—two tone rain stripe, and black velvet with satin facings.

PARTY LEADERS BEGIN TO WORRY ABOUT ELECTIONS

between Senator Guy D. Goff, republican, and former Senator M. M. Neely, who was defeated by Senator Henry D. Hatfield, republican, in the Hoover landslide last fall after one term in the senate. Neely is considered an exceptional campaigner and is regarded in Washington as certain to seek another term.

A similar situation is held to obtain in Rhode Island, with a contest expected between Senator Jesse H. Metcalf and former Senator Peter G. Gerry, another democrat who was defeated by a republican last fall, and in Delaware, where some leaders predict that Senator Daniel O. Hastings, republican, will be opposed by the veteran democrat, former Senator Thomas F. Bayard.

Party leaders also are looking forward to the possibility of former Senator Edward I. Edwards of New Jersey, another democrat defeated by a republican last fall, re-entering the political limelight. The term of Senator Walter E. Edge, who will resign to become ambassador to Paris, expires next year and the men selected to fill out Edge's term will be required to run for the full term.

The appearance of new and apparently active democratic political leader—Governor W. J. Holloway—by Oklahoma, has given his party additional hope of defeating Senator W. B. Pine, republican. Holloway succeeded the deposed Governor Henry S. Johnston.

"Is Wonderful," Declares Evers

"This wonderful Sargon treatment has done me more good in one month than all the other medicines I have taken in the last seven years."

GEORGE C. EVERS

"After almost every meal I used to suffer so I just decided to eat. Terrible pains in my right side used to strike me suddenly and I never could find any lasting relief no matter how many medicines I took. I was badly constipated all the time and it seemed my liver was swollen to twice its normal size.

"Almost as soon as I started taking Sargon and the Soft Mass Pills those pains began to leave me. I could feel the strengthening effect of the medicine over my whole system and now I can sit down and enjoy my meals without any worry at all. I can eat like a farmer and I am now on the job every day with more strength and energy than I have had in years.

"The Pills got my liver back in shape and I am never constipated any more.

"I only hope my experience will persuade others to regard their health through Sargon."

George C. Evers, 212 Riverside Ave., Spokane, Wash.

Sargon may be obtained in La Grande by Red Cross Drug Store.

parking spaces on Adams avenue in comparison with the number of cars in the community, one cannot expect to find an ideal parking space.

"But I believe if the side streets are used more by citizens of La Grande the condition will work out favorably. And further," he said, "expressing pride in the growth of La Grande, 'I only hope that the side streets will become as badly congested all night of the week as Adams avenue is on Saturday night, because that will mean a healthy, growing community.'

"The city commissioners and other city officials have been facing parking problems for several years and all are attempting to do all they can to solve the problem, but because of the rapid increase in the number of cars find it difficult to regulate to everybody's satisfaction. However, similar conditions are facing other growing cities and La Grande is not the only city where the parking problem is an important one."

ANXIOUS ABOUT POINCARÉ
PARIS, Aug. 6 (AP)—Although physicians today found the recuperation of former Premier Poincaré from his recent operation was proceeding normally, there was an undercurrent of anxiety among M. Poincaré's friends at the slowness of his progress.

NO LOST GOLF BALLS WHEN INDIANS CADDY

HANF, Alta. (AP)—The ideal caddy has been found among the Stoney Indians, near this Canadian resort.

Many of them, some old braves, are employed as caddies, and their impassiveness and keen eyesight have won them popularity among the golfers.

They never smile at a dub shot, never speak unless spoken to, and the caddy masters say they have not lost a ball.

One of the best liked of the Stoney Indian caddies is Chief Sitting Eagle, descendant of famous warriors.

GEORGIAN LAYS CLAIM TO LONGEST HIT RECORD

NORCROSS, Ga. (AP)—Roy Carlyle, a Norcross product and one of the two Carlyle brothers, now starring in the Pacific coast league, is laying claim to the record for the longest hit ball in baseball.

J. Cal Ewing, owner of the Oakland club, with which Carlyle is playing, supports the claim. Ewing says the big Georgian smacked one from home plate to a house-top, where it was found. By actual measurement that wall covered 618 feet.

Several times Babe Ruth has been credited with hitting baseballs between 500 and 600 feet.

URGES FEMINE PROTEST
SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 6 (AP)—An appeal to the women of America to organize in protest against prohibition, was made here last night by Mrs. John D. Cosgrove, vice chairman of the women's organization for National Prohibition Reform, in an address before the Women's Democratic Council of California.

Should this ERRING WIFE be forgiven?

FOR hours she sat by the window, staring with sleepless, unseeing eyes at the dim world outside. Should she tell her husband—confess her sin—bring down upon him the humiliation and agony of knowing that she had cheated and dishonored him?

"You are the purest, noblest, most beautiful woman alive," he had often told her. And she had glowed with pride at his loving praise.

But that was before she had met the fascinating Barry Lawrence. The mere touch of his hand had set her pulses to pounding—had warned her of the danger that lay ahead. Again and again she tried to force him out of her life—to save herself before it was too late. But when Barry finally swept her into his arms and she felt his lips crushed to her—something stronger than fear, more powerful than loyalty or duty seemed to overwhelm her.

"Oh, I love you!" he whispered. "Why struggle against a love like ours? Why?"

But read the story—and then ask yourself: Can a woman really love her husband and take even a temporary interest in another man? Should an erring wife tell her husband? Has she any right to expect his forgiveness? Don't miss this young wife's startling story entitled "Love's Great Sacrifice," in September True Story Magazine.

Cars Figure In Minor Accident Near Wallowa

WALLOWA, Ore., (Special)—Two cars, one driven by Victor Miller and the other by a traveler salesman, collided near Leek Willetts home Saturday. No one was hurt but the cars were badly damaged.

Mrs. In Goodenough and Isabel and Edgar Goodenough returned Saturday from a six weeks vacation trip through California.

Mr. and Mrs. T. T. Shell, Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Hunter, Thorsen and Edith Shell, Virginia Hunter and Lillian and Helen Dale attended the Kitchin-Hall wedding in La Grande Sunday. Thorsen and Edith Shell and Virginia Hunter participated in the ceremony.

Howard McLean, of Corvallis, who came to Pendleton on a business trip Saturday, came on into Wallowa Saturday afternoon and spent the night at the home of his sister, Mrs. C. A. Hunter. He also called at the homes of Mrs. Susie Davis, Duncan McLean and E. K. Hunter. Mr. McLean, who was for four years a resident of Pendleton and where for a number of years was with the firm of Punk & McLean moved to Corvallis with his family in January. There, he is engaged in the insurance and loan business. He says they are very much pleased over their new location, they like the climate, have a good business and enjoy living in a college town. Mr. McLean returned home Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Hamstreet and daughter, Mona Louise, returned to Wallowa Saturday after spending a month at the coast and at Sheridan, their former home. Mr. Hamstreet's father, who was the editor of the Sheridan Sun, sold his business while they were there and has retired. The many friends of the Hamstreets are glad to know that they will make their home here for the present, at least, and that Mrs. Hamstreet will resume her music teaching. Harold Hamstreet was the former editor of the Wallowa Sun which was recently sold to R. H. Jonas.

Heath communicated with federal officers through his attorney last night and admitted that he left the customs agent floundering in the swift current of the Detroit river after a fight during which both men fell into the water from the deck of Heath's boat.

Heath swam back to his craft, the "Maxine," he said, and he saw no more of Sandlands.

Max H. Finkelstein, Heath's attorney said Sandlands boarded the Heath craft in mid-stream and without identifying himself attempted to force Heath to dock at an east side mooring port.

THIS CHIC TURBAN is of chiffon moulded to the head after it has been put on. It is accompanied by a scarf of the same color and is particularly smart for summer evenings.
