OUT OUR WAY

AT THE THEATERS

"Stairs of Sand" Now Playing at the Star

As befits a strong novel of Western life in the days when men reached for a six-shooter instead of a sweet, a strong cast is to be seen in the Paramount production of the famous Zane Grey best-seller, "Stairs of Sand", now showing at the Star theater.

"Broadway Melody" Opens Run at Arcade Theater

"The Broadway Melody," which may properly be called the screen's first musical drama, is an eye-filling, heart-tugging, fascinating entertainment. Sound picture specialties may see this picture, now playing at the Arcade theater, and be amazed. It is a revelation of what can be accomplished—a portent for the future.

Worn At Races

Such is the bare outline of a gorgeous evening in the theatre—an evening that stretches the boundaries of the silver screen far beyond anything reached before. Looked on as a great human interest story, "The Broadway Melody" is a remarkable achievement; as an elaborate musical production it is equally fine.

State Treasurer Ill In Montreal

SALEM, Ore., Aug. 7, (AP)—State Treasurer T. B. Kay, who is to arrive in Montreal tomorrow, may be in a serious condition as a result of poisoning suffered by him while in Europe, according to a letter received from Mrs. Kay by their daughter, Mrs. Hollie Huntington of Salem. The letter said that the poison had settled in Mr. Kay's arms and hands so that he was unable to use them.

The letter was written from London July 22, and no word has been received since. In response to a telegram from the Kays while in London, Dr. R. E. Steiner of Salem left last Saturday for Montreal where he will meet them tomorrow.

The flapper had evaded his persistent proposals of marriage with soft words intended to allay the hurt of her definite and inevitable refusal.

Exasperated, he turned upon her: "In plain English, will you marry me, or no?" "Hell, no!" she replied.

Added to equal rights a lot of women seem to want unusual privileges.

Up to the time of going to press war and argument had never settled a single dispute.

"I'm a self-made man, that's what I am—a self-made man," he said. "You knocked off work too soon," came a quiet voice from the corner.

Death works so great a change in nothing as when it makes a statement of a politician.

How much does a girl's clothes weigh? A pretty La Grande girl says a pound or so. But she included a fur coat. . . . If you don't think a girl can get interested in her work, watch her chew gum. . . . Many a man who is scared stiff to take a judge's intuition will walk into marriage without a fear. But a married man yelps as loud as any. . . . An adding and calculating machine company boasts of 5,000 calculations an hour. Most any woman can beat that.
