NOTICE OF SHERIFF'S SALE

Notice is hereby given, that I have received an execution issued out of and under the seal of the Circuit Court of the State of Oregon (in Union County), dated the 22nd day of July, 1929, in the action therein pending wherein Fred Spaeth, is plaintiff and Mrs. Ellen Beavel is defendant, to me directed, upon a judgment made and entered in said court and cause on the 8th day of March, 1926, in favor of the plaintiff and against the said defendant, for the sum of $123.39, with interest thereon at the rate of six per cent per annum from the 22nd day of May, 1925, and $11.95 in costs and disbursements, under which said execution docketed real property in Union County, Oregon, to-wit:

In Lot four (4), in Block 175, between 1573, of Chapin's Addition to La Grande, Union County, Oregon.

NOW THEREFORE, by virtue and authority of said writ, and in obedience to its commands, I will, on Saturday the 21st day of August, 1929, at ten o'clock a. m., of said day, at the front door of the court house in La Grande, Union County, Oregon, sell at public auction the above described real property, and all the right, title, interest and equity of the defendant, thereon, to the highest bidder for cash, the proceeds of said sale to be applied in satisfaction of said judgment, including costs and accruing costs of execution and sale. Dated at La Grande, Oregon, this 1st day of August, 1929. Jess H. Bevel, Sheriff of Union County, Oregon. 8-1-29.

Manchurian Rains Take Heavy Toll

TOKYO, Aug. 5, (AP)—Hongo News dispatches to Mukden, Manchuria, today said that floods, following heavy rains, had caused many deaths and widespread destruction in Southern Manchuria. Eighty dead and injured were reported from one village near Liaoning. Broken bridges and washed-out tracks caused suspension of traffic along much of the south Manchurian railroad, damage was greatest between Mukden and Antung.

OUT OUR WAY

AT THE THEATERS

Bessie Love's Return To Films is Success

Bessie Love, who was about to go on the stage when microphones came along and lured her back into the films, is playing at the Arcade theatre now in "The Broadway Melody." This is M-G-M's first all-talking, all-singing, all-dancing production, and deals with the theatrical side of the Main Stem. Bessie Love will play Paulette, while her screen sister, Anita Page, goes off to marry their joint heart's desire, Charles King. But Bessie takes the matter philosophically. In fact, she seizes such a bit in this brilliant production that she is anything but the world but heartbroken.

College Picture At Colonial Today Only

College pictures are generally good entertainment but Gotham Productions with their latest opus, "The Cheer Leader," playing at the Colonial theatre today only, have turned out a crackpick up-to-the-minute class of the campus that roams through for a touchdown. There are several unusual twists to the story that are quite original and clever, not the least is the point of making the "college hero" turn out to be the villain. Ralph Graves is the star of the picture

Beery Is Good Bad Man In Film at Star

Wallace Beery, veteran character actor of the films plays Guerd Larey, the jovial bad man, in "Stairs of Sand," Paramount's version of the famous novel by Zane Grey which heads the program at the Star theatre today. Chester Conklin plays the comedy-relief role of the production, that of Tim, and will be seen for the first time in twenty years of acting without the mistake that contributed so much to his fame as a comic.

A writer says that all you have to have to get into Washington society is a suit of evening clothes. And, if Mrs. Gann is there, perhaps you'd better bring your own chair. The home of a reclus was searched in Wisconsin and $6500 was found. He must have been a non-union reclus to have so little as that around.

MENUS

By Sister Mary
With watermelons tempting the shopper from every market place, a few suggestions regarding some of the ways of using them may be useful.
As an appetizer or dessert, watermelon is refreshing and satisfactory for hot weather menus. A perfect, sweet melon can't be improved upon and should be served "au naturel." Thoroughly chilled and cut in circles or wedges, with the rind trimmed down to the pink, the fruit makes a delicious first course.

Sometimes a melon is not sweet and unless a little thought and care is spent on it, it will be wasted. There are several ways to help out a tasteless melon. Neat cubes of small wedges can be allowed to stand in heavy syrup for one or two hours and then drained and chilled. A sherry dressing or orange juice and sugar will make the insipid melon into a delicious cocktail. The fruit might also be utilized in preserves and the rind is sweet pickles if there is danger of its going bad.
Never use any portion of a watermelon that looks over-ripe. This is easily distinguished by the color and softness of the fruit. Over-ripe melon may cause some form of indigestion.
Sherry Dressing
One-half cup powdered sugar, 1-2 cup cooking sherry, 25 or 30 cubes or marbles of watermelon.
Cooking sherry has been called 90 extra salt is unnecessary. If sherry flavoring is preferred, a few grains of salt should be added. Remove seeds from melon balls and place in a deep bowl. Mix sugar and sherry and pour over melon. Cover and let stand on ice for several hours. Serve six or eight balls for each portion.

"Little Audrey is a remarkable child, isn't she?" we asked.
"Yes," replied her uncle Strang, "although she is nearly 13 years old she is not yet wild about the boys."
The Ideal Vacation
"How are you spending your vacation?"
"In an ideal way, I'm pleased nearly all the time."
"Lucky chap! What is your method?"
"I spend two days in the country, then I'm glad to get back to the city. I spend two days in the city, then I'm glad to get back to the country. It's a great scheme. Try it!"
