NO MONEY BUT A FIDDLE. DUBLIN, (AP)—Dr. Walter Starkie, a fellow of Trinity college, has started for Italy with no money but carrying a fiddle with which he intends to support himself while collecting material for a history of the epidemic of south Europe. He went to Italy first because the show rather than each year in honor of their patron saint.

New-fangled plumbing and the washing of automobiles are blamed by British newspapers for the war of shortage.

OUT OUR WAY

AT THE THEATERS

"Blindfold" Opens Run At Star Sunday

Two of Fox Film's latest "finds" will have masculine and feminine second leads in "Blindfold," which will open at the Star theatre Sunday. They are Don Terry, the handsome young juvenile who distinguished himself in "Me, Gustave," and Maria Alba, alluring Spanish beauty who won the Fox Film beauty contest in Spain last year.

She has played the lead in a number of comedies, also parts in "A Girl in Every Port," "Sharp Shooters" and "Road House." Studio experts say both these players are potential stars and await only the roles which will "make" them.

The cast of "Blindfold," which was written for the screen by the distinguished author, Charles Francis Cox, is headed by Lois Moran and George O'Brien. Assisting in the interpretation are Eddie Fox, Fritz Feld, Andy Clyde, Robert Homans and Crawford Kent.

"My Man" Is Fannie Brice's First Talkie

Fannie Brice, one of the most magnetic personalities of the stage, is star of the pretentious Vitaphone special production which comes to the Arcade theatre Sunday under the title of "My Man."

This marks the first screen appearance of the brilliant and unique comedienne, and the picture furnishes her an opportunity to be heard in a number of the songs which have made her famous. Among them will be her sensational success, "My Man," around which the picture is built.

"This talking picture is one of the most important Warner Bros. productions of the year, and Miss Brice's supporting cast includes such well known players as Guinn 'Big Boy' Williams, Edna Murphy, Andre de Segurola, Richard Tucker, Ann Brody, Arthur Hoyt and Billy Seay.

"Head of The Family" Coming To Colonial

An excellent low-down on how to be a hot papa around your domestic dignities is evidenced very eloquently on the screen of the Colonial Sunday and Monday, "The Head of The Family," the monologue of one sweet pastiche of a film fave, and what's been left out in laughs in this scintillating melange of eggs, comedy situations, and poppy histronics would rattle around in a tumbler.

Virginia Lee Corbin is a peppy piece of pulchritude, and contributes to the fun as a female lure to the piece, big Bill Russell, an ex-pumper making a lead pipe sing, and having the family dance to his tones.

The story concerns the domestic difficulties of a wealthy plumber contractor, who finally has the good sense to hire one of his laborers to put his family foundry in shape. The latter succeeds and marries the wealthy man's daughter to boot.

FAVORITE SPORT

PARIS, (AP)—Trying to ride first class on a second class subway ticket is the favorite Parisian sport. Ten thousand persons are caught at it each day and made to pay extra fare. How many escape detection is not known.

If diplomats would play golf together, diplomacy would be improved, thinks the Prince of Wales. But we have enough bodice-rippers now.

Abe Martin

"I'm certainly fed up on an apartment life," says Mrs. Art Lark. "In the building where we live there's three bootleggers, a husband that's just beginning to tire of his wife, a paroled nephew slayer, a stranger we never see, no 'come on' a young couple that turns on the radio at 4:30 'eve' mornin'."

"This is the age of horrors. Our horse-drawn man has married our cottage cheese woman, and so it goes," says Mrs. Leghorn Tharp.

MENUS

By Sister Mary
A substantial salad often forms the main part of a summer luncheon. When this is the case, the rest of the meal should be chosen with much care and thought.
A cup of hot bouillon is excellent to use as a beginning for the salad luncheon. While the bouillon is hot in itself, it does not produce heat in the body and does

CHARRED BODY OF MAN FOUND IN CITY DUMP

NEWARK, N. J., Aug. 10 (AP)—Apparently the victim of a gangster "ride," the badly charred body of an unidentified man was found in a blazing automobile on the city dump last night.

Frank Ferrara, fore-man of the dumping grounds, told the police the car was driven to the dump by two men who drove off in another machine a moment before the car burst into flames. Police expressed belief that the man either had been unconscious or dead when the match was applied to the gasoline that saturated his clothing and the machine.

The abandoned machine carried no license plates and the police said the engine number had been chiseled off. The body was removed to the morgue for an autopsy.

Alabama banned Florida fruit because of the Mediterranean fly, but could not curb the appetites of tourists, who gorged themselves at the border when halted by patrolmen.

REMEMBER DISCOVERY

BRUSSELS (AP)—The 250th anniversary of the discovery of Niagara Falls was commemorated in Belgian newspapers which printed readers that a Belgian, Louis Hennepin, was the first white man to see the famous cataract.
