Many Enjoyable Weekend Picnics Held Near Here

The past weekend has been an unusually interesting one because of its many large picnics, either annual affairs or special commemorations, throughout the Grande Ronde valley.

Members of organized labor and their families, numbering 125 in all, gathered at Indian Springs for a delightful annual picnic. Swimming was the chief entertainment feature here.

At the Riverside park the "Three F's" organization of former residents of Indiana, Illinois and Iowa, had a happy day of picnicking and reminiscing. It, too, was an annual day.

For valley folk the Union County Grande Memorial Sunday program made the day an auspicious one. The program took place at Cove, with morning and afternoon services. At noon a basket picnic was spread for the many who attended.

Cove was also the scene of a large gathering on Saturday when the Old Folks' day took place. Morning and afternoon programs, with speaking and music, helped to make that occasion a pleasant one. Many pioneers enjoyed the day.

In addition to the larger organization picnics there were dozens of small parties of picnickers on the many streams of the county and at the swimming pools yesterday. Huckleberry picking and fishing were the chief entertainments. Nor was the country club golf course neglected. From early morning to sunset the fairways were busy.

Miss Hoyt Hostess To Little Girls

Miss Mildred Hoyt was hostess to a group of little girls at the Hoyt farm home in Mount Glen on Friday afternoon. She was assisted in entertaining by Miss Freda Klopfenstein.

The girls had a happy afternoon spent at games on the lawns and at running through the spray.

Miss Hoyt and Miss Klopfenstein served refreshments. Those who enjoyed the happy afternoon were Ruth May Myers, Margaret Ehardt, Patricia Longfellow, Elsie Piper and Margaret Singleton.

Entertain Friends At Sunday Affair

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Hough entertained a number of their friends at breakfast yesterday morning at 11 o'clock at their home on Adams avenue. Covers were placed for ten.

Following breakfast the day was spent visiting. In the afternoon the party drove to Indian Springs for a no-host chicken dinner at the government cabin.

Out-of-town guests for the day were Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Brown of Portland, who are the house guests of Mr. and Mrs. Clark Padlock. Mrs. Brown and Mrs. Padlock are sisters.

Guest Honored At Midnight Supper

To compliment Miss Mildred Smiley, of Walla Walla, who is a guest in this city, the Misses Mildred and Myrtle Hoyt and Miss Freda Klopfenstein entertained at a midnight supper following the dance Saturday night.

Miss Smiley is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Meyerstick and their son, Raymond, this week.

Five couples were guests of the Misses Hoyt and Miss Klopfenstein.

Swimming Party Honors Visitor

Miss Mildred Smiley, of Walla Walla, was the honor guest on a delightful swimming and picnic party at Indian Springs yesterday. Miss Smiley is a guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Meyerstick, this week.

Those who took part in the picnic yesterday were Mr. and Mrs. E. Klopfenstein and daughter, Frieda, Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Hoyt and daughters, Mildred and Myrtle, the J. M. Koehlsperger family, the H. A. Scott family, the P. Steffen family and Mr. and Mrs. Meyerstick and son, Raymond, and Miss Smiley.
