Lightning Strikes In Philadelphia

PHILADELPHIA, Aug. 12 (AP)—An unusual display of lightning dashed over Philadelphia Sunday night. The Atlantic Refining company's plant in South Philadelphia was struck twice. A 50,000 gallon tank of gasoline and a 50,000 gallon tank of fuel oil being destroyed. A bolt struck a house in the northern part of the city and knocked Frank Graham, Sr., and his son Frank, Jr., from their chairs. It then passed on a window and struck Michael Lafferty as he walked along the street. None were seriously hurt.

Several other buildings were struck without serious damage.

Leo Duggan defeated both his Canadian open championship and professional roller's championship this year.

AT THE THEATERS

"South Of Panama" Showing At Colonial

There is something about the current picture, "South of Panama," playing at the Colonial theater today and Wednesday, that lifts it most decidedly out of the usual run of photoplays now offered. Perhaps it is due to the fact that the producers have gone to South America for an original locale or atmosphere or again it may be due to the fact that this is the first and only picture we have seen of this type, where our Latin American cousins are not shown as wicked villains with knives and long dancing toungue lizards. Whatever it is, the picture provides good, solid entertainment with one of the best and most natural veins of comedy plot in some time.

Jacqueline Logan and William Collier in Film

A human and interesting love story about a beautiful and successful private secretary and a shiftless young man who wanted to bridge the gap of hard work and jump into the photographic class overnight is told in "The Bachelor Girl," a Columbia production now chronicled with dialogue and music which opens at the Arcade theater Wednesday.

Lon Chaney At Star Tomorrow In Grim Drama

Grappling with wild tigers and gorillas and the still more dangerous human emotions, Lon Chaney gives the screen one of his most daring, thrilling, and powerful dramatic portrayals in "Where East is East." Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer's grim drama of an Oriental jungle, playing at the Star theater Wednesday for three days.

Health Via Vegetables

During the summer months vegetables are plentiful and cheap and, so scientists tell us, essential to health. However, many men seem to have an innate and ingrained aversion to such plain homely vegetables as carrots and onions. A little meat added to these vegetables makes them deliciously savory and palatable.

A meat and vegetable combination dish makes ideal summer fare from the cook's standpoint. It takes care of two items on the menu in one dish and one process, effecting a substantial saving in time and labor.

Chouffers and timbales as well as hashies are made of meat and vegetables and are most acceptable.

Meat and Vegetable Hash
One-half pound round steak, 1-2 cups chopped raw carrots, 1 cup chopped raw potatoes, 3 onions, 1 cup milk, 1 teaspoon salt, 1-2 tablespoon minced parsley, 1-4 teaspoon pepper, buttered crumbs.

Put meat, carrots, potatoes and onions through food chopper. Mix thoroughly and add milk and seasoning. Put into a casserole, cover with coarse buttered crumbs and bake one hour in a hot oven.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Truemp and Mrs. Julia Sennar went to Walla Walla Monday evening and on to La Grande to consult a physician in regard to Mrs. Truemp's and Mrs. Sennar's health. They returned to Walla Walla the same evening. Mrs. Sennar remained at the home of her son, Frank, where she is under the care of a doctor. Mr. and Mrs. Truemp returned to their home Tuesday morning.

David Garrett is helping C. P. Carper during the haying season. Charlie Wortman, who is working near Joseph, spent the weekend with his family here.

Mr. and Mrs. Reuben Barton and Mr. and Mrs. Tom Barton Jr. were visiting at the Lige Barton home on East Grossman street.

Mrs. Stella Paulson and two children are visiting Mrs. Louie Himer and Mrs. Bernice Paulson, on Powwaka this week.

Ch Paulson and Jack Horner are cutting logs for the Bowman-Hols lumber company near Walla Walla.

Mr. and Mrs. Norton of Walla Walla, were at John Carper's Sunday gathering chores.

MENUS

By Sister Mary
To make a little meat go a long way in hot weather, try mixing it with vegetables in a sort of aristocratic hash.

The smell and taste of meat is appetizing, and for this reason if no other is worth serving. But too much is not a good thing; so if just enough can be used in combination with vegetables to make them palatable, a happy medium is produced.

If half a pound of meat can be made to serve four people and at the same time furnish a wholesome and adequate diet, economy would prompt most of us to give
